9 O Belteshazzar, [j] master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed; [2] I saw, and behold a [k] tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great.

11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth:

12 The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: [l] the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, [m] a watcher and an holy [n] one came down from heaven:

14 He cried [3] aloud, and said thus, Hew [o] down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let [p] the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches:

15 Nevertheless, leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth:

16 Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let [q] seven times pass over him.

17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent [r] that the living may know that [s] the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.

18 This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, [t] forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 ¶ Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonied for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the [u] dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

20 The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth;

21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

22 It [6] is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, [w] and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

23 And whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, [x] and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him;

24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High, which is come upon my lord [y] the king:

25 That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee [z] to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, [a] till thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth [b] it to whomsoever he will.

26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the [c] heavens do rule.

27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and [d] break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; [e] if it may be [4] a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

28 ¶ All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.

29 At the end of twelve months he walked [5] in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon.

30 The king [f] spake, and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

31 While [g] the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee:

32 And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

34 And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honoured him [i] that liveth for ever, whose dominion is [j] an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation:

35 And [k] all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and [l] he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and [m] none can stay his hand, or say unto him, [n] What doest thou?

36 At the same time my reason returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added [o] unto me.

37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

CHAPTER V.

Belshazzar's impious feast.

BELSHAZZAR the king [a] made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Belshazzar, whiles he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his [1] father Nebuchadnezzar had [2] taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might [b] drink therein.

3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them.

4 They drank wine, and praised the [c] gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 ¶ In [d] the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the king's [3] countenance [4] was changed, and his [e] thoughts troubled him, so that the [5] joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees [f] smote one against another.

7 The king cried [6] aloud to bring in [g] the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and show me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with [7] scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, [h] and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

8 Then came in all the king's wise men: but [i] they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

9 Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his [8] countenance was changed in him, and his lords were astonied.

10 ¶ Now the queen, by reason of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet house: and the queen spake, and said, [j] O king, live for ever: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed:

11 There is a man in thy kingdom in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy [9] father, light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy [10] father, the king, I say, thy father, made [k] master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers;

12 Forasmuch [l] as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, [11] interpreting of dreams, and showing of hard sentences, and [12] dissolving of [13] doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. And the king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my [14] father brought out of Jewry?

14 I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee.

15 And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not show the interpretation of the thing:

16 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst [15] make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 ¶ Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy [16] rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 O thou king, [m] the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour:

19 And for the majesty that he gave him, all [n] people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew, and whom he would he kept alive, and whom he would he set up, and whom he would he put down.

20 But [o] when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened [17] in pride, he was [18] deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:

21 And he was [p] driven from the sons of men; and [19] his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; [q] till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

22 And thou his son, O Belshazzar, [r] hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this;

23 But hast [s] lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, [t] nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and [u] whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified:

24 Then was the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written.

25 ¶ And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.

26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered [v] thy kingdom, and finished it.

27 TEKEL; [w] Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.

28 PERES; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the [x] Medes and [y] Persians.

29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 ¶ In [z] that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain.

31 And [a] Darius the Median took the kingdom, [20] being [21] about threescore and two years old.

CHAPTER VI.

Daniel is cast into the den of lions.

IT pleased Darius to set [a] over the kingdom an hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom;

2 And over these three presidents, of whom [b] Daniel was first; that the princes might give accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage.

3 Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because [c] an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

4 ¶ Then [d] the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but [e] they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him.

5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God.

6 Then these presidents and princes [1] assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, [f] live for ever.

7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm [2] decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions.

8 Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law [g] of the Medes and Persians, which [3] altereth not.

9 Wherefore [h] king Darius signed the writing and the decree.

10 ¶ Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and, [i] his windows being open in his chamber [j] toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees [k] three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime.

11 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

12 Then [l] they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any god or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

13 Then answered they, and said before the king, That Daniel, which [m] is of the children of the captivity of Judah, [n] regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day.

14 Then the king, when he heard these words, [o] was sore displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, [p] Thy God, whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

17 And [q] a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and [r] the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

18 ¶ Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were [4] instruments of music brought before him: and his [s] sleep went from him.

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, [t] is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

21 Then said Daniel unto the king, [u] O king, live for ever.

22 My [v] God hath sent [w] his angel, and hath [x] shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, [y] and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God.

24 ¶ And the king commanded, and [z] they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, [a] their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

25 ¶ Then [b] king Darius wrote unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.

26 I [c] make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men [d] tremble and fear before the God of Daniel; [e] for he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not [f] be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end.

27 He delivereth and rescueth, and [g] he worketh signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the [5] power of the lions.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Daniel's vision of the four beasts,
9 and of God's kingdom.

IN the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel [1] had a dream and visions [a] of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the [2] matters.

2 Daniel spake, and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea.

3 And four great beasts [b] came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

4 The first was [c] like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, [3] and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

5 And [d] behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and [4] it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

6 After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also [e] four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; [f] and it had ten horns.

8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there [g] came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

9 ¶ I [h] beheld till the thrones were cast down, and [i] the Ancient of days did sit, whose [j] garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, [k] and his wheels as burning fire.

10 A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: [l] thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

11 I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: [m] I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet [5] their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one [n] like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

14 And [o] there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is [p] an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15 ¶ I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my [6] body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

18 But [q] the saints of [7] the Most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse [8] from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet;

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

21 I beheld, [r] and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

22 Until the Ancient of [s] days came, [t] and judgment was given to the saints of the Most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

24 And [u] the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

25 And [v] he shall speak great words against the Most High, and shall [w] wear out the saints of the Most High, and think [x] to change times and laws: and they [y] shall be given into his hand [z] until a time and times and the dividing of time.

26 But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end.

27 And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High, [a] whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all [9] dominions shall serve and obey him.

28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I [b] kept the matter in my heart.

CHAPTER VIII.

Daniel's vision of the ram and he-goat.

IN the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

2 And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at [c] Shushan in the palace, which is in the province [b] of Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than [1] the other, and the higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but [c] he did according to his will, and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, an he-goat came from the west, on the face of the whole earth, and [2] touched not the ground: and the goat had [3] a notable horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

8 Therefore the he-goat waxed very great: and, when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up [d] four notable ones, toward the four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward [e] the south, and toward the east, and toward the [f] pleasant land.

10 And [g] it waxed great, even [4] to the host of heaven; and [h] it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 Yea, [i] he magnified himself even [5] to the prince of the host, and [6] by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 And [7] an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.

13 ¶ Then I heard [j] one saint speaking, and another saint said unto [8] that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression [9] of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred [10] days; then shall the sanctuary be [11] cleansed.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

17 So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and [l] fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man; for at the time of the end shall be the vision.

18 Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and [12] set me upright.

19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be.

23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors [13] are come to the full, a king [m] of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.

24 And his power shall be mighty, but [n] not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the [14] holy people.

25 And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by [15] peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be [o] broken without hand.

26 And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true: [p] wherefore shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days.

27 And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days: afterward I rose up, [q] and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

CHAPTER IX.

3 Daniel prays for his people. 20 Gabriel informs him of the seventy weeks.

IN the first year [a] of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, [1] which was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans;

2 In the first year of his reign, I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to [b] Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes:

4 And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;

5 We [c] have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments:

6 Neither [d] have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, righteousness [2] belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 To [e] the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him;

10 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, all [f] Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured [g] upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he [h] hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

13 As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet [3] made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the LORD watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice.

15 And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast [4] gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 ¶ O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us.

17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake.

18 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city [5] which is called by thy name: for we do not [6] present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies.

19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

20 ¶ And whiles I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God;

21 Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly [7] swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation.

22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth [8] to give thee skill and understanding.

23 At the beginning of thy supplications the [9] commandment came forth, and I am come to show thee; for thou art [10] greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision.

24 [11] Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people, and upon thy holy city, [12] to finish the transgression, and [13] to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and [14] prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy.

25 Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment [15] to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street [16] shall be built again, and the [17] wall, even [18] in troublous times.

26 And after threescore and two weeks shall [i] Messiah be cut off, [19] but not for himself: [20] and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war [21] desolations are determined.

27 And he shall confirm [22] the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, [23] and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured [24] upon the desolate.

CHAPTER X.

Daniel sees a glorious vision.

IN the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was [1] long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I Daniel was mourning three [2] full weeks.

3 I ate no [3] pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is [4] Hiddekel;

5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold [5] a certain

6 His body also was like the beryl, and [a] his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.
7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.
8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw [b] this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my [6] comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.
9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep [c] on my face, and my face toward the ground.
10 ¶ And, behold, an hand touched me, which [7] set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.
11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, [8] a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and [9] stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.
12 Then said he unto me, [d] Fear not, Daniel; for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.
13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, [e] Michael, [10] one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.
14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days.
15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, [f] I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.
16 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched [g] my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Overthrow of Persia by the king of Grecia. 5 Kings of the north and south. 30 Invasion and tyranny of the Romans.

ALSO I, [a] in the first year of Darius [b] the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.
2 And now will I show thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia.
3 And [c] a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and [d] do according to his will.
4 And when he shall stand up, his [e] kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, [f] nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others besides those.
5 ¶ And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.
6 And in the end of years they [1] shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make [2] an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and [3] he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times.

7 But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up [4] in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail:

8 And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with [5] their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

10 But his sons [6] shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, [g] and overflow, and pass through: [7] then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress.

11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, his [h] heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it.

13 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come [8] after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also [9] the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

15 So the king of the north shall come, [i] and cast up a mount, and take [10] the most fenced cities: and the arms [j] of the south shall not withstand, neither [11] his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and [k] none shall stand before him; and he shall stand in the [12] glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 He shall also [l] set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and [13] upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, [14] corrupting her; but she shall not stand on his side, neither [m] be for him.

18 After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince [15] for his own behalf shall cause [16] the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him.

19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, [n] and not be found.

20 Then shall stand up [17] in his estate [18] a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in [19] anger, nor in battle.

21 And [20] in his estate shall stand up a [o] vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain [p] the kingdom by flatteries.

22 And with the arms of a flood shall [q] they be overflown from before him, and shall be broken; yea, [r] also the prince of the covenant.

23 And after the league made with him he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people.

24 He shall enter [21] peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and he shall [22] forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

25 And [23] he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that [s] feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow; and many shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings' [24] hearts

shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak [t] lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land.

29 At the [25] time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter.

30 For [u] the ships of Chittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

31 And arms shall stand on his part, and they [v] shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that [26] maketh desolate.

32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he [27] corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do [w] know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.

33 And [x] they that understand among the people shall instruct many; [y] yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days.

34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.

35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try [28] them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.

36 And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall [z] exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, [a] nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all.

38 [29] But [30] in his estate shall he honour the God of [31] forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and [32] pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he do in the [33] most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for [34] gain.

40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

41 He shall enter also into the [35] glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.

42 He shall [36] stretch forth his hand also upon the countries; and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps.

44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many.

45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between [b] the seas in the [37] glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

CHAPTER XII.

Michael shall deliver Israel from trouble.

AND at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people; [a] and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people [b] shall be delivered, every one that shall be [c] found written in the book.

2 And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, [d] some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

3 And they that be [1] wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness [e] as the stars for ever and ever.

HOSEA.

CHAPTER I.

1 Hosea shows God's judgment for spiritual whoredom. 10 Restoration of Judah and Israel.

THE [a] word of the LORD that came unto Hosea the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

2 The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms: [b] for the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD.

3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son.

4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will [1] avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.

5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.

6 ¶ And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name [2] Lo-ruhamah: for [3] I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; [4] but I will utterly take them away.

7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

8 ¶ Now, when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son.

9 Then said God, Call his name [5] Lo-ammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

10 Yet [c] the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that [6] in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are [d] the sons of the living God.

11 Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

CHAPTER II.

1 Idolatry of the people: 6 God's judgments against them.

SAY ye unto your brethren, [1] Ammi; and to your sisters, [2] Ruhamah.

2 Plead with your mother, plead; for [a] she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her [b] whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

3 Lest [c] I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her [d] as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with [e] thirst.

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of whoredoms.

5 For their mother hath played the harlot; she that conceived them hath done shamefully; for she said, I will go after my lovers, [f] that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my [3] drink.

6 ¶ Therefore, behold, [g] I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and [4] make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, [h] I will go and return to my first [i] husband; for then was it better with me than now.

8 For she did not know that I gave her corn, and [5] wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, [6] which they prepared for Baal.

9 Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will [7] recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now will I discover her [8] lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.

11 I [j] will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

12 And I will [9] destroy her vines and her fig trees, whereof she hath said, These are my rewards that my lovers have given me: and [k] I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

13 And I will visit upon her [l] the days of Baalim, wherein she burned incense to them, and she [m] decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgat me, saith the LORD.

14 ¶ Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and [n] bring her into the wilderness, and speak [10] comfortably unto her.

15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and [o] the valley of Achor for a door of hope: and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

16 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me [11] Ishi, and shalt call me no more [12] Baali.

17 For [p] I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

18 And in that day will I make a [q] covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and [r] I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie [s] down safely.

19 And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in loving-kindness, and in mercies:

20 I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness; and [t] thou shalt know the LORD.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, I [u] will hear, saith the LORD, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth;

22 And the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jezreel.

23 And [v] I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I [w] will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

CHAPTER III.

The desolation of Israel foreshown.

THEN said the LORD unto me, Go yet, love a woman beloved of her friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Israel, who look to other gods, and love flagons [1] of wine.

2 So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, and for an homer of 5 Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and [c] seek the LORD their God, and David [d] their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the [e] latter days.

CHAPTER IV.

1 God's judgments against the sins of the people, 6 and of the priests.

HEAR the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath a [a] controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge [b] of God in the land.

2 By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and [1] blood toucheth blood.

3 Therefore [c] shall the land mourn, and every [d] one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

4 Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for thy people are as they [e] that strive with the priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall [f] in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will [2] destroy thy mother.

6 ¶ My people are [3] destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

7 As they were increased, so they sinned against me: therefore will I change their glory into shame.

8 They eat up the sin of my people, and they [4] set their heart on their iniquity.

9 And there shall be, like people, like priest: and I will [5] punish them for their ways, and [6] reward them their doings.

10 For [g] they shall eat, and not have enough; they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase;

12 ¶ My people ask counsel at their [i] stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for [j] the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: [k] therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14 [7] I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery; for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall [8] fall.

15 ¶ Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah offend; and [l] come not ye unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to [9] Beth-aven, nor [m] swear, The LORD liveth.

16 For Israel slideth back as a backsliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place.

17 Ephraim is joined to idols: let [n] him alone.

18 Their drink [10] is sour: they have committed whoredom continually: her [11] rulers with shame do love, Give ye.

19 The wind hath bound her up in her wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

CHAPTER V.

God's judgments against Israel.

HEAR ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is toward you, because ye have been a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.

2 And the revolters are profound to make slaughter, [1] though I have been a rebuker of them all.

3 I [a] know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest whoredom, and Israel is defiled.

4 [2] They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD.

5 And the pride of Israel doth testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them.

6 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find him; he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 They have dealt treacherously against the LORD; for they have begotten strange children: now shall [b] a month devour them with their portions.

8 ¶ Blow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: cry aloud at [c] Beth-aven, after thee, O Benjamin.

9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be.

10 The princes of Judah were like them that [d] remove the bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

11 Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after [e] the commandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as a moth, and to the house of Judah as [3] rottenness.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent [4] to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

14 For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

15 I will go and return to my place, [5] till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.

CHAPTER VI.

God exhorts Israel to repentance.

COME, and let us return unto the LORD: for [a] he hath torn, and [b] he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

2 After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

3 Then [c] shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us [d] as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

5 Therefore have I hewed them by the [e] prophets; I have slain them by [f] the words of my mouth: [2] and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth.

6 For I desired [g] mercy, and [h] not sacrifice; and the [i] knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.

7 But they, [3] like men, have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me.

8 Gilead is a city of them that work iniquity, and is [4] polluted with blood.

9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way [5] by consent: for they commit [6] lewdness.

10 I have seen an horrible thing in the house of Israel: there is the whoredom of Ephraim, Israel is defiled.

11 Also, O Judah, he hath set an harvest for thee, [j] when I returned the captivity of my people.

CHAPTER VII.

A reproof of manifold sins.

WHEN I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the [1] wickedness of Samaria: for they commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers [2] spoileth without:

2 And they [3] consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their [a] own doings have beset them about; they are [b] before my face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with [c] their lies.

4 They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, [4] who ceaseth [5] from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.

5 In the day of our king the princes have made him sick [6] with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorners.

6 For they have [7] made ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

7 They are all hot as an oven; and have devoured their judges; all their kings [d] are fallen: [e] there is none among them that calleth unto me.

8 ¶ Ephraim, he [f] hath mixed himself among the people; Ephraim is a cake not turned.

9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not; yea, grey hairs are [8] here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not.

10 And the pride of Israel testifieth to his face: and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him for all this.

11 Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart: they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.

12 When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them, as [g] their congregation hath heard.

13 Woe unto them! for they have fled from me; [9] destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.

14 And they have not [h] cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds; they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

15 Though I [10] have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.

16 They return, but not to the Most High: they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the [i] rage of their tongue. This shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER VIII.

Destruction threatened to Israel and Judah.

SET the trumpet to [1] thy mouth. He shall come [a] as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

2 Israel [b] shall cry unto me, My God, we know thee.

3 Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him.

4 They [c] have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off.

6 For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

7 For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no [2] stalk; the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.

8 Israel is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles as a vessel wherein is no pleasure.

9 For [e] they are gone up to Assyria, a wild ass alone by himself: Ephraim hath hired [3] lovers.

10 Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall [4] sorrow [5] a little for the burden [f] of the king of princes.

11 Because Ephraim hath made many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin.

12 I have written to him [g] the great things of my law, but they were counted as [h] a strange thing.

13 [6] They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it; but the LORD accepteth them not: now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins: they shall return to Egypt.

14 For Israel hath forgotten his Maker, and [i] buildeth temples; and Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

CHAPTER IX.

Distress and captivity of Israel for their sins.

REJOICE not, O Israel, for joy, as other people: for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God, thou hast loved a reward [1] upon every cornfloor.

2 The floor and the [2] winepress shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her.

3 They shall not dwell in [a] the LORD's land; [b] but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and [c] they shall eat unclean things in Assyria.

4 They shall not offer wine offerings to the LORD, neither shall they be pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as [d] the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD.

5 What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?

6 For, lo, they are gone because of [3]destruction: Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: [4]the pleasant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompence are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a fool, the [5]spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

8 The watchman of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred [6]in the house of his God.

9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of [e]Gibeah: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

10 I found Israel [f]like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the first-ripe in the fig tree at her first time: but they [g]went to Baal-peor, and separated themselves unto that shame; and their abominations were according as they loved.

11 As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.

12 Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, woe also to them when I depart [h]from them!

13 Ephraim, as I saw Tyrus, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer.

14 Give [i]them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them a [7]miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

15 All their wickedness is in Gilgal; for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house, I will love them no more: all their princes are revolters.

16 Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit; yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even [8]the beloved fruit of their womb.

17 My God will [j]cast them away, because they did not hearken unto him: and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

CHAPTER X.

Israel reproved and threatened for idolatry.

ISRAEL is [1]an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly [2]images.

2 [3]Their heart is divided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall [4]break down their altars, he shall spoil their images.

3 For now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not the LORD; what then should a king do to us?

4 They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of [a]the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and [5]the priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to [b]king Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel.

7 As for Samaria, her king is cut off as the foam upon [6]the water.

8 The high places also of Aven, the [c]sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they [d]shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

9 O Israel, thou hast sinned from the days of Gibeah: there they stood: the battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 It is in [c]my desire that I should chastise them; and the people shall be gathered against them, [7]when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.

11 And Ephraim is as an heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon [8]her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods.

12 Sow [f]to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

13 Ye [g] have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.

14 Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shalman spoiled [h] Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.

15 So shall Beth-el do unto you because of [9] your great wickedness: in a morning shall the king of Israel utterly be cut off.

CHAPTER XI.

Israel's ingratitude to God.

WHEN Israel was a child, then I loved him, [a] and called my son [b] out of Egypt.

2 As they called them, so they went from them: [c] they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burnt incense to graven images.

3 I [d] taught Ephraim also to go, taking them by their arms; but they knew not that [e] I healed them.

4 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love: and I was to them as they that [1] take off the yoke on their jaws, and I [f] laid meat unto them.

5 ¶ He shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be his king, because [g] they refused to return.

6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels.

7 And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though they called them to the Most High, [2] none at all would exalt him.

8 How [h] shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee [i] as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? [j] Mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

9 I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: [k] for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee: and I will not enter into the city.

10 They shall walk after the LORD: he shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.

11 They shall tremble as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.

12 Ephraim compasseth me about with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful [3] with the saints.

CHAPTER XII.

Ephraim and Judah reproved.

EPHRAIM feedeth on wind, and followeth after the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; [a] and they do make a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil is [b] carried into Egypt.

2 The LORD hath also a controversy with Judah, and will [1] punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him.

3 ¶ He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he [2] had power with God:

4 Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication unto him: he found him in [c] Beth-el, and there he spake with us;

5 Even the LORD God of hosts; the LORD is his memorial.

6 Therefore turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually.

7 ¶ He is [3] a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to [4] oppress.

8 And Ephraim said, Yet I am become rich, I have found me out substance: [5] in all my labours they shall find none iniquity in me [6] that were sin.

9 And I, that am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt, will yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feasts.

10 I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, [7] by the ministry of the prophets.

11 Is there iniquity in Gilead? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in [d] Gilgal; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.

12 And Jacob fled into the country of Syria; and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.

13 And by a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he preserved.

14 Ephraim provoked him to anger [8] most bitterly: therefore shall he leave his [9] blood upon him, and his [e] reproach shall his Lord return unto him.

CHAPTER XIII.

God's anger for Ephraim's impiety.

WHEN Ephraim spake [a] trembling, he exalted himself in Israel; but [b] when he offended in Baal, he died.

2 And now [1] they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let [2] the men that sacrifice kiss the calves.

3 Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

4 Yet I am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt, and thou shalt know no god but me; for there is no saviour besides me.

5 I did know thee in the wilderness, in the land of [3] great drought.

6 According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted; therefore have they forgotten me.

7 Therefore I will be unto them as a lion; as a leopard by the way will I observe them:

8 I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: [4] the wild beast shall tear them.

9 ¶ O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself; but in me [5] is thine help.

10 [6] I will be thy king: where is any other that may save thee in all thy cities? and thy judges of whom thou saidst, Give me a king and princes?

11 I [c] gave thee a king in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath.

12 The [d] iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is hid.

13 The sorrows of a travailing woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; for he should not stay [7] long in the place of the breaking forth of children.

14 I [e] will ransom them from [8] the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death: [f] O death, I will be thy plagues; O grave, I will be thy destruction: [g] repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.

15 ¶ Though he be fruitful among his brethren, an east wind shall come, the wind of the LORD shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: he shall spoil the treasure of all [9] pleasant vessels.

16 [10] Samaria shall become desolate; [h] for she hath rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword; their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Exhortation to repentance. 4 Promise of God's blessing.

O ISRAEL, [a] return unto the LORD thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.

2 Take with you [b] words, and turn to the LORD: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and [1] receive us graciously: so will we render the calves [c] of our lips.

3 Asshur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses; neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy.

4 ¶ I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him.

5 I will be as the dew unto Israel: he shall [2] grow as the lily, and [3] cast forth his roots as Lebanon.

6 His branches [4] shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive tree, and his smell as Lebanon.

7 They that dwell under his shadow shall return; they shall revive as the corn, and [5] grow as the vine: the [6] scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon.

8 Ephraim shall say, What have I to do any more with idols? [d] I have heard him, and observed him: I am like a green fir tree. [e] From me is thy fruit found.

9 Who [f] is wise, and he shall understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them? for [g] the ways of the LORD are right, and the just shall walk in them: but the transgressors shall fall therein.

JOEL.

CHAPTER I.

Joel, declaring sundry judgments of God, exhorts to observe them.

THE [a] word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.

2 Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. Hath [b] this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

3 Tell [c] ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

4 [1] That which the palmer-worm hath left hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath the canker-worm eaten; and that which the canker-worm hath left hath the caterpillar eaten.

5 Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; [d] for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For [e] a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, [f] whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek teeth of a great lion.

7 He hath [g] laid my vine waste, and [2] barked my fig tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

8 ¶ Lament [h] like a virgin girded with sackcloth for [i] the husband of her youth.

9 The [j] meat offering and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, the LORD's ministers, mourn.

10 The field is wasted, [k] the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the [l] new wine is [3] dried up, the oil languisheth.

11 Be [m] ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vine-dressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

12 The vine is dried up, and the fig tree languisheth; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because joy [n] is withered away from the sons of men.

13 ¶ Gird [o] yourselves, and lament, ye priests; howl, ye ministers of the altar; come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat offering and the drink offering is withholden from the house of your God.

16 Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, [s] joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17 The [5] seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.

18 How do [t] the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

19 O LORD, to thee will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the [6] pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burnt all the trees of the field.

20 The beasts of the field [u] cry also unto thee: for [v] the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

CHAPTER II.

1 Terribleness of God's judgments: 12 Joel exhorts to repentance.

BLOW ye the [1] trumpet in Zion, and sound [a] an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for [b] the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand;

2 A [c] day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: [d] a great people and a strong; [e] there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years [2] of many generations.

3 A fire devoureth before them, and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, [f] and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them.

4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.

5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained; [g] all faces shall gather [3] blackness.

7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

8 Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the [4]sword, they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall; they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

10 The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining:

11 And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army; for his camp is very great: for [h] he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and [i] who can abide it?

12 ¶ Therefore also now, saith the LORD, Turn [j] ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning;

13 And [k] rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he [l] is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

14 Who [m] knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave [n] a blessing behind him, even a meat offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God?

15 ¶ Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly;

16 Gather the people, [o] sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, [p] gather the children, and those that suck the breasts; let the [q] bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet:

17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep [r] between the porch and the altar, and let them say, [s] Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should [5] rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

18 ¶ Then will the LORD [t] be jealous for his land, [u] and pity his people.

19 Yea, the LORD will answer and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you [v] corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith; and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen:

20 But [w] I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea, and his hinder part toward [x] the utmost sea, and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because [6] he hath done great things.

21 Fear [y] not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the LORD will do great things.

22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for [z] the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength.

23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice [a] in the LORD your God: for he hath given you [7] the former rain [8] moderately, and he will [b] cause to come down for you [c] the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.

24 And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the fats shall overflow with wine and oil.

25 And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the canker-worm, and the caterpillar, and the palmer-worm, my great army which I sent among you.

26 And ye shall [d] eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed.

27 And ye shall know that I am in [e] the midst of Israel, and that [f] I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

28 ¶ And [g] it shall come to pass afterward, that I [h] will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh; [i] and your sons and [j] your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:

29 And also upon [k] the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my Spirit.

30 And [l] I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.

31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into

CHAPTER III.

1 God's judgments against the enemies of his people: 18 his blessing on the church.

FOR, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,

2 I [a] will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the [b] valley of Jehoshaphat, and will [c] plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

3 And they have [d] cast lots for my people; and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.

4 Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O [e] Tyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? [f] will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly [g] and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head;

5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly [1] pleasant things:

6 The children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold unto [2] the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their border.

7 Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head:

8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to [h] the Sabeans, to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 ¶ Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; [3] Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up:

11 Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither [5] cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD.

12 Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to [k] the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to [l] judge all the heathen round about.

13 Put [m] ye in the sickle; for [n] the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow: for their wickedness is great.

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of [6] decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

15 The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

16 The LORD also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the [7] hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel.

17 So shall ye know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be [8] holy, and there shall no [o] strangers pass through her any more.

18 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall [9] flow with waters, and [p] a fountain shall come forth of the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Shittim.

19 Egypt shall be a desolation, and Edom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the violence against the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

20 But Judah shall [10] dwell for ever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation.

21 For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed: [11] for the LORD dwelleth in Zion.

AMOS.

CHAPTER I.

1 God's judgments upon Syria, 6 the Philistines, 9 Tyrus, 11 Edom, 13 and Ammon.

THE words of Amos, who was among the [a] herdmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in [b] the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the [c] earthquake.

2 And he said, The LORD will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall wither.

3 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of [d] Damascus, [1] and for four, I will not [2] turn away the punishment thereof; [e] because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron:

4 But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.

5 I will break also the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from [3] the plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from [4] the house of Eden: and [f] the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto Kir, saith the LORD.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of [g] Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they [5] carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Edom:

7 But I will send a fire on the wall [h] of Gaza, which shall devour the palaces thereof:

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon, and I will turn mine hand against Ekron: and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord GOD.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not [6] the brotherly covenant:

10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

11 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of [i] Edom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did pursue his brother [j] with the sword, and [7] did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever:

12 But I will send a fire upon Teman, which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.

13 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have [8] ripped up the women with child of Gilead, that they might enlarge their border:

14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall [k] of Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind:

15 And [l] their king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER II.

1 God's wrath against Moab 4 Judah, 6 and Israel.

THUS saith the LORD; For three transgressions of [a] Moab, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because [b] he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime:

2 But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of [c] Kirioth; and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet:

3 And I will cut off [d] the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; [e] because they have despised the law of the LORD, and have not kept his commandments, and [f] their lies caused them to err, after [g] the which their fathers have walked:

5 But [h] I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they

11 And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for [p] Nazarites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD.

12 But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, [q] saying, Prophesy not.

13 Behold, [3] I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.

16 And he that is [5] courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER III.

Neccssity of God's judgments against Israel.

HEAR this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying,

2 You only have I known of all the families of the earth: [a] therefore I will [1] punish you for all your iniquities.

7 Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but [c] he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

8 The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord GOD hath spoken, [d] who can but prophesy?

9 ¶ Publish in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the [5] oppressed in the midst thereof.

10 For they know not to do right, saith the LORD, who store up violence and [6] robbery in their palaces.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; An [e] adversary there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled.

12 Thus saith the LORD; As the shepherd [7] taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and [8] in Damascus in a couch.

13 Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jacob, saith the Lord GOD, the God of hosts, 14 That in the day that I shall [9] visit the transgressions of Israel upon him I will also visit the altars of Beth-el: and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.

15 And I will smite the winter house with the summer house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Israel reproved for oppression. 4 for idolatry, 6 and for their incorrigibleness.

HEAR this word, ye kine of Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

2 The Lord GOD hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fish-hooks.

3 And ye shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and [1] ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Come [a] to Beth-el, and transgress; at Gilgal [b] multiply transgression; and [c] bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after [2] three years:

5 And [3] offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the [d] free offerings; for [4] this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

6 ¶ And I also have given [e] you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: [f] yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

7 And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.

8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

9 I [g] have smitten you with blasting and mildew: [5] when your gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees increased, the palmer-worm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

10 I have sent among you the pestilence [6] after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, [7] and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

11 I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew [h] Sodom and Gomorrah, [i] and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, [j] prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.

13 For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the [8] wind, [k] and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, [l] and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, [m] The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name.

CHAPTER V.

1 Lamentation for Israel. 4 Exhortation to repentance.

HEAR ye this word which [a] I take up against you, even a lamentation, O house of Israel.

2 The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.

3 For thus saith the Lord GOD; The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel.

4 ¶ For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Israel, [b] Seek ye me, and [c] ye shall live:

5 But seek not [d] Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to [e] Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth-el shall come to nought.

6 Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el.

7 Ye who turn judgment to wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth,

8 Seek him that maketh the [f] seven stars and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that [g] calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth; [h] The LORD is his name:

9 That strengtheneth the [1] spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress.

10 They [i] hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they [j] abhor him that speaketh uprightly.

11 Forasmuch therefore as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat: ye [k] have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted [2] pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

12 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take [3] a bribe, and they [l] turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time.

14 Seek [m] good, and not evil, that ye may live; and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as [n] ye have spoken.

15 Hate [o] the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: [p] it may be that the Lord GOD of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, [q] and such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing.

17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for [r] I will pass through thee, saith the LORD.

18 Woe [s] unto you that desire the day of the LORD! to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light.

19 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

20 Shall not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

21 ¶ I [t] hate, I despise your feast days, and I will not [4] smell in your solemn assemblies.

22 Though ye offer me burnt offerings and your meat offerings I will not accept them; neither will I regard the [5] peace offerings of your fat beasts.

23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.

24 But let judgment [6] run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

25 Have [u] ye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?

26 But ye have borne [7] the tabernacle of your Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves:

27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, saith the LORD, whose name is The God of hosts.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The wantonness of Israel 7 shall be plagued with desolation.

WOE to them that [1] are at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Samaria, which are named [2] chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel came!

2 Pass ye unto [a] Calneh, and see; and from thence go ye to [b] Hamath the great: then go down to Gath of the Philistines: be they better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border?

3 Ye that [c] put far away the evil day, and cause the [3] seat of violence to come near;

4 That lie upon beds of ivory, and [4] stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall;

5 That [5] chant to the sound of the viol, and invent to themselves instruments of music, like David;

6 That drink [6] wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments: but they are not grieved for the [7] affliction of Joseph.

7 ¶ Therefore now shall they go captive with the first that go captive, and the banquet of them that stretched themselves shall be removed.

8 The Lord GOD hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD the God of hosts, I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city, with all [8] that is therein.

9 And it shall come to pass, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.

10 And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he that burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? And he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue; for [9] we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.

11 For, behold, the LORD commandeth, and he will smite the great house with [10] breaches, and the little house with clefts.

12 ¶ Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? for ye have turned judgment into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into hemlock:

13 Ye which rejoice in a thing of nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength?

14 But, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from [d] the entering in of Hamath unto the [11] river of the wilderness.

CHAPTER VII.

1 The judgment of the grasshoppers, 4 and of the fire, are diverted by the prayer of Amos. 10 Amaziah complains of Amos.

THUS hath the Lord GOD showed unto me; and, behold, he formed [1] grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.

2 And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord GOD, forgive, I beseech thee: [2] by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

3 The [a] LORD repented for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Thus hath the Lord GOD showed unto me; and, behold, the Lord GOD called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part.

5 Then said I, O Lord GOD, cease, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

6 The LORD [b] repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord GOD.

7 ¶ Thus he showed me; and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plumb-line, with a plumb-line in his hand.

8 And the LORD said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumb-line. Then said the Lord, Behold, [c] I will set a plumb-line in the midst of my people Israel: [d] I will not again pass by them any more:

9 And [e] the high places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and [f] I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

10 ¶ Then Amaziah [g] the priest of Beth-el sent to [h] Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words.

11 For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land.

12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:

13 But [i] prophesy not again any more at Beth-el: [j] for it is the king's [3] chapel, and it is the [4] king's court.

15 And the LORD took me [6] as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people Israel.

16 Now therefore hear thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Israel, and drop [m] not thy word against the house of Isaac.

17 Therefore [n] thus saith the LORD; [o] Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Oppression of the poor reproved. 11 A famine of God's word threatened.

THUS hath the Lord GOD showed unto me: and behold a basket of summer fruit.

2 And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, [a] The end is come upon my people of Israel; I will not again pass by them any more.

3 And the songs of the temple [1] shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord GOD: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth [2] with silence.

4 ¶ Hear this, O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail,

5 Saying, When will the [3] new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and [b] the sabbath, that we may [4] set forth wheat, making the ephah [c] small, and the shekel great, and [5] falsifying the balances by deceit?

6 That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

7 The LORD hath sworn by [d] the excellency of Jacob, Surely [e] I will never forget any of their works.

8 Shall [f] not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, [g] as by the flood of Egypt.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord GOD, that [h] I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day:

10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; [i] and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

11 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of [j] hearing the words of the LORD:

12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.

13 In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst.

14 They that swear [k] by the sin of Samaria, and say, Thy God, O Dan, liveth; and, The [6]manner of Beer-sheba liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up again.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Certainty of Israel's desolation. 11 Restoring of the tabernacle of David.

I SAW the Lord standing upon the altar: and he said, Smite the [1] lintel of the door, that the posts may shake: and [2] cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall not flee away, and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered.

2 Though [a] they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; [b] though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down:

3 And though they [c] hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them:

4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, [d] thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I [e] will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.

5 And the Lord GOD of hosts is he that toucheth the land, and it shall [f] melt, and all that dwell therein shall mourn; and it shall rise up wholly like a flood, and shall be drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

6 It is he that buildeth his [3] stories in the heaven, and hath founded his [4] troop in the earth; he that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth; The LORD is his name.

7 Are ye not as children of the Ethiopians unto me, O children of Israel? saith the LORD. Have not I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt? and the Philistines [g] from Caphtor, and the Syrians [h] from Kir?

8 Behold, [i] the eyes of the Lord GOD are upon the sinful kingdom, and I [j] will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the LORD.

9 For, lo, I will command, and I will [5] sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least [6] grain fall upon the earth.

10 All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, which say, The evil shall not overtake nor prevent us.

11 ¶ In [k] that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and [7] close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old:

12 That [l] they may possess the remnant of [m] Edom, and of all the heathen, [8] which are called by my name, saith the LORD that doeth this.

13 Behold, [n] the days come, saith the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that [9] soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet [10] wine, and all the hills shall melt.

14 And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall [o] build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

15 And I will plant them upon their land, [p] and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, saith the LORD thy God.

OBADIAH.

1 Destruction of Edom. 3 for their pride.
10 and wrong unto Jacob in his distress.
17 Salvation and victories of Jacob.

THE vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord GOD [a] concerning Edom; We have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

2 ¶ Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised.

3 The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts [b] of the rock, whose habitation is high; [c] that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4 Though [d] thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD.

5 If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grapegatherers came to thee, would they not leave [1] some grapes?

6 ¶ How are the things of Esau searched out! how are his hidden things sought up!

7 All the men of thy confederacy have brought thee even to the border: [2] the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; [3] they that eat thy bread have laid a wound under thee: there is none understanding [4] in him.

8 Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD, even destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau?

9 And thy [e] mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

10 For thy [f] violence against thy brother Jacob shame shall cover thee, and [g] thou shalt be cut off for ever.

11 In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the strangers [5] carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates, and [h] cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them.

12 But [6] thou shouldest not have looked [i] on the day of thy brother in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have [j] rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have [7] spoken proudly in the day of distress.

13 Thou shouldest not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their [8] substance in the day of their calamity;

14 Neither shouldest thou have stood in the crossway, to cut off those of his that did escape; neither shouldest thou have [9] delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distress.

15 For the day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen: [k] as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee: thy reward shall return upon thine own head.

16 For as ye have drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the heathen drink continually, yea, they shall drink, and they shall [10] swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been.

17 ¶ But upon mount Zion shall be [11] deliverance, and [12] there shall be holiness; and the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions.

18 And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau; for the LORD hath spoken it.

19 And they of the south shall possess the mount of Esau; [l] and they of the plain the Philistines: and they shall possess the fields of Ephraim, and the fields of Samaria; and Benjamin shall possess Gilead.

20 And the captivity of this host of the children of Israel shall possess that of the Canaanites, even [m] unto Zarephath; and the captivity of Jerusalem, [13] which is in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the south.

21 And [n] saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom [o] shall be the LORD'S.

JONAH.

CHAPTER I.

1 Jonah, sent to Nineveh, flees to Tarshish; 4 he is overtaken by a tempest, 11 thrown into the sea, 17 and swallowed by a fish.

NOW the word of the LORD came unto [a] Jonah the son of Amittai, saying,

2 Arise, go to Nineveh, [b] that great city, and cry against it; for their [c] wickedness is come up before me.

3 But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish [d] from the presence of the LORD, and went down to [e] Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish [f] from the presence of the LORD.

4 ¶ But the LORD [1] sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship [2] was like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, [g] call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us [h] cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

8 Then said they unto him, [i] Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us? What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew; and I fear [3] the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land.

10 Then were the men [4] exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

11 Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea [5] may be calm unto us? for the sea [6] wrought, and was tempestuous.

12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for [j] my sake this great tempest is upon you.

13 Nevertheless the men [7] rowed hard to bring it to the land; [k] but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay [l] not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea; and the sea [8] ceased from her raging.

16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and [9] offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

17 ¶ Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And [m] Jonah was in the [10] belly of the fish three days and three nights.

CHAPTER II.

1 Prayer of Jonah: 10 he is delivered out of the belly of the fish.

THEN Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly,

2 And said, I cried [1] by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me; out of the belly of [2] hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

3 For [a] thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the [3] midst of the seas; and the floods compassed me about: all thy billows and thy waves passed over me.

4 Then [b] I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again toward [c] thy holy temple.

5 The waters compassed me about, even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the [4] bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life

CHAPTER III.

1 Jonah preaches to the Ninevites: 3 they repent.

AND the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying,

2 Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

3 So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an [1] exceeding great city of three days' journey.

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and [a] he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

5 ¶ So the people of [b] Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, [c] and sat in ashes.

7 And [d] he caused it to be proclaimed and [2] published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his [3] nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing; let them not feed, nor drink water:

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God; yea, let them turn [e] every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands.

9 Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way;

CHAPTER IV.

Jonah, repining at God's mercy, 4 is reproved by the type of a gourd.

BUT [a] it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

2 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a [b] gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

3 Therefore [c] now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live.

4 ¶ Then said the LORD, [1] Doest thou well to be angry?

5 So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the LORD God prepared a [2] gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah [3] was exceeding glad of the gourd.

7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.

8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a [4] vehement east wind; and [d] the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

9 And God said to Jonah, [5] Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, [6] I do well to be angry, even unto death.

10 Then said the LORD, Thou hast [7] had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which [8] came up in a night, and perished in a night:

11 And should not I [e] spare Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons [f] that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much [g] cattle?

MICAH.

CHAPTER I.

1 Micah shows the wrath of God against Jacob for idolatry: 10 he exhorts to mourning.

THE [a] word of the LORD that came to [b] Micah the Morasthite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 ¶ [1] Hear, all ye people; hearken, O earth, and [2] all that therein is: and let the Lord GOD be witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.

3 For, behold, [c] the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth.

4 And the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down [3] a steep place.

5 For the [d] transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem?

6 Therefore I will make Samaria as [e] an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.

7 And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the hires thereof shall be burnt with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.

8 Therefore I will wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the [4] owls.

9 For [5] her wound is incurable; for [f] it is come unto Judah; he is come unto the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem.

10 Declare ye it not at Gath, weep ye not at all: in the house of [6] Aphrah roll thyself in the dust.

11 Pass ye away, [7] thou inhabitant of Saphir, having thy shame naked: the inhabitant of [8] Zaanan came not forth in the mourning of [9] Beth-ezel; he shall receive of you his standing.

12 For the inhabitant of Maroth [10] waited carefully for good; but evil came down from the LORD unto the gate of Jerusalem.

13 O thou inhabitant of Lachish, bind the chariot to the swift beast: she is the beginning of the sin to the daughter of Zion; for the transgressions of Israel were found in thee.

14 Therefore shalt thou give presents [11] to Moresheth-gath: the houses of [12] Achzib shall be a lie to the kings of Israel.

15 Yet will I bring an heir unto thee, O inhabitant of Mareshah: [13] he shall come unto Adullam the glory of Israel.

16 Make thee bald, and poll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they [g] are gone into captivity from thee.

CHAPTER II.

1 God's judgment against oppression. 4 Lamentation. 7 Reproof of injustice and idolatry. 12 Promise of restoring Jacob.

WOE to them [a] that devise iniquity, and [b] work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light, they practise it, because [c] it is in the power of their hand.

2 And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they [1] oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

3 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, against [d] this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is evil.

4 In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and lament [2] with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! [3] turning away he hath divided our fields.

5 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall [e] cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.

7 O thou that art named The house of Jacob, is the Spirit of the LORD [5] straitened? are these his doings? do not my words do good to him that walketh [6] uprightly?

8 Even [7] of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe [8] with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.

9 The [9] women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.

10 Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your [f] rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.

11 If a man [10] walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people.

12 ¶ I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the [g] remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

13 The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it; and their King shall pass before them, and the LORD on the head of them.

CHAPTER III.

1 The princes' cruelty. 5 Falsehood of the prophets; 8 their ill-grounded security.

AND I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel; [a] Is it not for you to know judgment?

2 Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones;

3 Who also [b] eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron.

4 Then [c] shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD [d] concerning the prophets that make my people err, that [e] bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him:

6 Therefore [f] night shall be unto you, [1] that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, [2] that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded; yea, they shall all cover their [3] lips: for there [g] is no answer of God.

8 But truly I am full of power by the [h] Spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, [i] to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

9 ¶ Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.

10 They build up Zion with [4] blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.

11 The [j] heads thereof judge for reward, and [k] the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet [l] will they lean upon the LORD, [5] and say, Is not the LORD among us? none evil can come upon us.

12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be [m] plowed as a field, [n] and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Establishment of Christ's kingdom; 3 the peace, 6 restoration, 8 kingdom, 11 and victory of the church.

BUT [a] in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it.

2 And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he [b] will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords [c] into plough-shares, and their spears into [1] pruning-hooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither [d] shall they learn war any more.

4 But [e] they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

5 For [f] all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we [g] will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

6 ¶ In that day, saith the LORD, will [h] I assemble her that halteth, and [i] I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted;

7 And I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD shall [j] reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever.

8 And thou, O tower of [2] the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 ¶ Now why dost thou cry out aloud? is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail.

10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

11 ¶ Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion.

12 But they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor.

13 Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass; and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: [k] and I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

CHAPTER V.

1 Birth of Christ foretold: 4 his kingdom, 8 and conquest.

NOW gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us; they [a] shall smite the Judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

2 But thou, [b] Beth-lehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be [c] ruler in Israel; whose goings [d] forth have been from of old, from [1] everlasting.

3 Therefore will he give them up, until the time that she which travaileth hath brought forth; then the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel.

4 And he shall stand and [2] feed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God; and they shall abide: for now [e] shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

5 And this man [f] shall be the peace, when the Assyrian shall come into our land: and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight [3] principal men.

6 And they shall [4] waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land [g] of Nimrod [5] in the entrances thereof: thus shall he [h] deliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders.

7 And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many [i] people as a dew from the LORD, as the showers upon the grass, that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men.

8 ¶ And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of [6] sheep; who, if he go through, both treadeth down, and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.

9 Thine hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

10 And [j] it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots:

11 And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds:

12 And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand; and thou shalt have no more soothsayers:

13 Thy [k] graven images also will I cut off, and thy [7] standing images out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt [l] no more worship the work of thine hands.

14 And I will pluck up thy groves out of the midst of thee: so will I destroy thy [8] cities.

15 And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the heathen, such as they have not heard.

CHAPTER VI.

1 God's controversy for unkindness, 6 for ignorance, 10 for injustice, 16 and for idolatry.

HEAR ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou [1] before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

2 Hear ye, O mountains, [a] the LORD's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

3 O my people, [b] what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me.

4 For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5 O my people, remember now what Balak [c] king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from [d] Shittim unto Gilgal; that ye may know the [e] righteousness of the LORD.

6 Wherewith [f] shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves [2] of a year old?

7 Will [g] the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? [h] shall I give my first-born for my transgression, the fruit of my [3] body for the sin of my soul?

8 He hath showed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to [4] walk humbly with thy God?

9 ¶ The LORD's voice crieth unto the city, and [5] the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.

10 [6] Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the [7] scant measure that is abominable?

11 [8] Shall I count them pure with the [i] wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?

12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

13 Therefore also will I make thee sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate because of thy sins.

14 Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee; and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver; and that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword.

15 Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine.

16 For [9] the statutes of [j] Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels; that I should make thee a [10] desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therefore ye shall bear the reproach of my people.

CHAPTER VII.

1 The church, complaining of her small number, 3 and the general corruption, 5 puts not confidence in man, but in God. 8 She triumphs, 14 is comforted.

WOE is me! for I am as [1] when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grape gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: [a] my soul desired the first ripe fruit.

2 The [2] good man is perished out of the earth; and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; [b] they hunt every man his brother with a net.

3 That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, [c] the prince asketh, [d] and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth [3] his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

4 The best of them is as a brier; the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity.

5 Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide; keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

NAHUM.

CHAPTER I.

1 The burden of Nineveh. 2 Majesty of God, 7 in goodness to his people, 8 and severity against his enemies.

THE burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

2 [1] God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and [2] is furious; the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

3 The LORD is [a] slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the [b] LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 He [c] rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

5 The [d] mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.

6 Who can stand before his indignation? and who can [3] abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

7 ¶ The LORD is good, a [4] strong hold in the day of trouble; [e] and he knoweth them that trust in him.

8 But with an [f] overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

9 What do ye imagine against the LORD? he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time.

10 For while they be folden together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

11 There is one come out of thee, that imagineth evil against the LORD, a wicked counsellor.

12 Thus saith the LORD; [5] Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be [6] cut down, when he shall pass through. Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.

13 For now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

14 And the LORD hath given a commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image and the molten image: I will make thy grave; for thou art vile.

15 Behold upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Judah, [7] keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows: for [8] the wicked shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

CHAPTER II.

Judah and Israel being punished, God sends fearful armies against their enemies.

HE [1] that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily.

2 For the LORD hath turned away [2] the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches.

3 The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are [3] in scarlet: the chariots shall be with [4] flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir trees shall be terribly shaken.

4 The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall justle one against another in the broad ways: [5] they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightnings.

5 He shall recount his [6] worthies: they shall stumble in their walk; they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the [7] defence shall be prepared.

6 The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be [8] dissolved.

7 And [9] Huzzab shall be [10] led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves, tabering upon their breasts.

8 But Nineveh is [11] of old like a pool of water; yet they shall flee away. Stand, stand, shall they cry; but none shall [12] look back.

9 Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold; [13] for there is none end of the store and glory out of all the [14] pleasant furniture.

10 She is empty, and void, and waste; and the heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them all gather blackness.

11 Where is [15] the dwelling of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion, even the old lion, walked, and the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid?

12 The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ravin.

13 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions; and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

CHAPTER III.

Miserable ruin of Nineveh.

WOE to the [1] bloody city! it is all full of lies and robbery; the prey departeth not;

2 The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the prancing horses, and of the jumping chariots.

3 The horseman lifteth up both [2] the bright sword and the glittering spear: and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcases; and there is none end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses:

4 Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the well-favoured harlot, the [a] mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.

5 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts; and [b] I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will show the nations

6 And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee as a gazing-stock.

7 And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee shall flee from thee, and say, Nineveh is laid waste: who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for thee?

8 Art thou better than [3] populous No, that was situate among the rivers, that had the waters round about it, whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was from the sea?

9 Ethiopia [c] and Egypt were her strength, and it was infinite; Put and Lubim were [4] thy helpers.

10 Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity: her young children also were dashed in pieces at the top of all the streets; and they [d] cast lots for her honourable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.

11 Thou also shalt be drunken; thou shalt be hid, thou also shalt seek strength because of the enemy.

12 All thy strong holds shall be like [e] fig trees with the first-ripe figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater.

13 Behold, [f] thy people in the midst of thee are women: the gates of thy land shall be set wide open unto thine enemies: the fire shall devour thy bars.

14 Draw thee waters for the siege, fortify thy strong holds: go into clay, and tread the mortar, make strong the brick-kiln.

15 There shall the fire devour thee; the sword shall cut thee off, it shall eat thee up like [g] the canker-worm: make thyself many as the canker-worm, make thyself many as the locusts.

16 Thou hast multiplied [5] thy merchants above the stars of heaven: the canker-worm [6] spoileth, and fleeth away.

17 Thy [h] crowned are as the locusts, and thy captains as the great grasshoppers, which camp in the hedges in the cold day, but when the sun ariseth they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.

18 Thy shepherds slumber, O king [i] of Assyria: thy [7] nobles shall dwell in the dust: thy people [j] is scattered upon the mountains, and no man gathereth them.

19 There is no [8] healing of thy bruise; thy wound is grievous: all [k] that hear the bruit of thee shall clap the hands over thee: for upon whom hath not thy wickedness passed continually?

HABAKKUK.

CHAPTER I.

1 Unto Habakkuk, complaining of the iniquity of the land, 5 is shown the fearful vengeance by the Chaldeans.

THE burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.

2 O LORD, how long [a] shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!

3 Why dost thou show me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention.

4 Therefore [b] the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore [1] wrong judgment proceedeth.

5 sharp.

5 ¶ Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you.

6 For, lo, [2] I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the [3] breadth of the land, to possess the dwelling-places that are not theirs.

7 They are terrible and dreadful: their [4] judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves.

8 Their horses [c] also are swifter than the leopards, and are more [5] fierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat.

9 They shall come all for violence: [6] their faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand.

10 And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it.

11 Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, imputing this his power unto his god.

12 ¶ Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O [7] mighty God, thou hast [8] established them for correction.

13 Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on [9] iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?

14 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?

15 They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their [10] drag: therefore they rejoice and are glad.

16 Therefore they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their meat [11] plenteous.

17 Shall they therefore [12] empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

CHAPTER II.

1 Unto Habakkuk, waiting for an answer, is shown that he must wait in faith. 5 Judgment upon the Chaldeans for their sins.

I WILL stand upon [a] my watch, and set me upon the [1] tower, and will watch to see what he will say [2] unto me, and what I shall answer [3] when I am reproved.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, [b] Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

3 For [c] the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

4 ¶ Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but [d] the just shall live by his faith.

6 Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, [5] Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay!

7 Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

8 Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's [6] blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

9 ¶ Woe to him that [7] coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the [8] power of evil!

10 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.

11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the [9] beam out of the timber shall [10] answer it.

12 ¶ Woe to him that buildeth a town with [11] blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity!

13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the people shall labour [f] in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves [12] for very vanity?

14 For the earth shall be filled [13] with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

15 ¶ Woe unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that puttest thy bottle to him, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness!

16 Thou art filled [14] with shame for glory: drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the LORD's right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory.

17 For the violence [g] of Lebanon shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid, because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

18 ¶ What profiteth the graven image that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the [15] maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?

19 Woe unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

20 But the LORD is in his holy temple: [16] let all the earth keep silence before him.

3 ¶ God came from [4] Teman, and the Holy One from mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.

4 And his brightness was as the light; he had [5] horns coming out of his hand: and there was the hiding of his power.

5 Before him went the pestilence, and [6] burning coals went forth at his feet.

6 He stood, and [a] measured the earth: he beheld, and drove asunder [b] the nations; and the everlasting mountains were scattered, the perpetual hills did bow: his ways are everlasting.

7 I saw the tents of [7] Cushan [8] in affliction: and the curtains of the land of Midian did tremble.

11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation: [11] at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear.

12 Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou didst thresh [d] the heathen in anger.

13 Thou wentest forth [e] for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thine anointed; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, [12] by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Selah.

14 Thou didst strike through with his staves the head of his villages; they [13] came out as a whirlwind to scatter me: their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly.

15 Thou didst walk through the sea with thine horses, through the [14] heap of great waters.

16 When I heard, my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will [15] invade them with his troops.

ZEPHANIAH.

CHAPTER I.

1 When Zephaniah prophesied. 2 God's severe judgments against Judah for divers sins.

THE [a] word of the LORD which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hizkiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

2 [1] I will utterly consume all things from off [2] the land, saith the LORD.

3 I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the [3] stumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the LORD.

4 I will also stretch out mine hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and [4] I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the [b] Chemarims with the priests;

5 And them that worship the host of heaven upon the housetops; and them that worship and that swear [5] by the LORD, and that swear [c] by Malcham;

6 And them that are turned back from the LORD; and those that have not sought the LORD, nor enquired for him.

7 Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord GOD; for the day of the LORD is at hand: for the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath [6] bid his guests.

8 And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD's sacrifice, that I will [7] punish the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel.

9 In the same day also will I punish all those that leap on the threshold, which fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the [d] fish gate, and an howling from the second, and a great crashing from the hills.

11 Howl, [e] ye inhabitants of [8] Maktesh, for all the merchant people are cut down; all they that bear silver are cut off.

12 ¶ And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are [9] settled on their lees; [f] that say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil.

13 Therefore their goods shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but [g] not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but not [h] drink the wine thereof.

14 The [i] great day of the LORD is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness,

16 A day of [j] the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.

17 And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.

18 Neither [k] their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured [l] by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

7 And the coast shall be for the [j] remnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed thereupon: in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening: [2] for the LORD their God shall visit [k] them, and [l] turn away their captivity.

8 ¶ I [m] have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and [n] magnified themselves against their border.

9 Therefore as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely [o] Moab shall be as Sodom, and [p] the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and salt pits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

10 This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts.

11 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will [3] famish all the gods of the earth; and [q] men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all [r] the isles of the heathen.

12 ¶ Ye [s] Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by my sword.

13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Assyria; and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

14 And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all [t] the beasts of the nations: both the [4] cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the [5] upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: [6] for he shall uncover the cedar-work.

15 This is the rejoicing city [u] that

CHAPTER III.

1 The princes of Jerusalem reproved. 8 Exhortation to wait for the restoration of Israel.

WOE to [1] her that is filthy and polluted, to the oppressing city!

2 She [a] obeyed not the voice; she received [b] not [2] correction; she trusted not in the LORD; she drew not near to her God.

3 Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow.

4 Her [c] prophets are light and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done [d] violence to the law.

5 The just LORD [e] is in the midst thereof; he will not do iniquity: [3] every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not; but the unjust knoweth no shame.

6 I have cut off the nations: their [4] towers are desolate; I made their streets waste, that none passeth by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, that there is none inhabitant.

7 I said, Surely thou wilt fear me, thou wilt receive instruction; so their dwelling should not be cut off, howsoever I punished them: but they rose early, and [f] corrupted all their doings.

8 ¶ Therefore [g] wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey; for my determination is to [h] gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.

9 For then will I turn to the people a pure [5] language, that they may all call upon the name of the LORD, to serve him with one [6] consent.

10 From [i] beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my suppliants, even the daughter of my dispersed, shall bring mine offering.

11 In that day shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me: for then I will take away out of the midst of thee them that rejoice [j] in thy pride, and thou shalt no more be haughty [7] because of my holy mountain.

12 I will also leave in the midst of thee an [k] afflicted and poor people, and they shall trust in the name of the LORD.

13 ¶ The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

14 ¶ Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel; be [l] glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem.

15 The LORD hath taken away thy judgments, he hath cast out thine enemy: the King [m] of Israel, even the LORD, [n] is in the midst of thee: thou shalt not see evil any more.

HAGGAI.

CHAPTER I.

2 Haggai, reproving the people's negligence, 7 incites them to build the house, 12 and promises God's assistance therein.

IN the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD [1] by Haggai the prophet unto [a] Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, [2] governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech [b] the high priest, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD's house should be built.

3 Then came the word of the LORD by Haggai [c] the prophet, saying,

4 Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your cieled houses, and this house lie waste?

5 Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; [3] Consider your ways.

6 Ye have sown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages, earneth wages to put it into a bag [4] with holes.

7 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways.

8 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.

9 Ye looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did blow [5] upon it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts. Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.

10 Therefore [d] the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit.

11 And I [e] called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and [f] upon all the labour of the hands.

12 ¶ Then [g] Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him, and the people did [h] fear before the LORD.

13 Then spake Haggai the LORD'S messenger in the LORD'S message unto the people, saying, [i] I am with you, saith the LORD.

14 And [j] the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, [k] governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; [l] and they came and did work in the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, 15 In the four and twentieth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

CHAPTER II.

1 He encourages the people to work, by a promise of greater glory to the second temple than was in the first: 10 he shows that their sins hindered the work, etc.

IN the seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of the LORD [1] by the prophet Haggai, saying,

2 Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and to the residue of the people, saying,

3 Who [a] is left among you that saw this house in her first glory? and how do ye see it now? [b] is it not in your eyes in comparison of it as nothing?

4 Yet now [c] be strong, O Zerubbabel, saith the LORD; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Josedech, the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the LORD, and work: for [d] I am with you, saith the LORD of hosts:

5 According [e] to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, so [f] my Spirit remaineth among you: fear ye not.

6 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; Yet [g] once, it is a little while, and I [h] will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land;

7 And I will shake all nations, and [i] the Desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill [j] this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts.

8 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 The [k] glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in this place will I [l] give peace, saith the LORD of hosts.

10 ¶ In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying,

11 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Ask [m] now the priests concerning the law, saying,

12 If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No.

13 Then said Haggai, If one that is [n] unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

14 Then answered Haggai, and said, [o] So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, [p] consider from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD:

16 Since those days were, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to the press-fat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty.

17 I [q] smote you with blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the labours of your hands; yet [r] ye turned not to me, saith the LORD.

18 ¶ Consider now from this day and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, even from [s] the day that the foundation of the LORD'S temple was laid, consider it.

19 Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, as yet the vine, and the fig-tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree, hath not brought forth: from this day will I bless you.

20 ¶ And again the word of the LORD came unto Haggai in the four and twentieth day of the month, saying,

21 Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, [t] I will shake the heavens and the earth;

22 And [u] I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will ZECHARIAH.

CHAPTER I.

1 Zechariah exhorts to repentance. 7 Vision of the horses. 12 Comfortable promises made to Jerusalem. 18 Vision of four horns, and four carpenters.

IN the eighth month, [a] in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto [b] Zechariah, (the son of Barachiah, the son of Iddo,) the prophet, saying,

2 The LORD hath been [1] sore displeased with your fathers.

3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye [c] unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [d] Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.

5 Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?

6 But [e] my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not [2] take hold of your fathers? and they returned and said, [f] Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 ¶ Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, (the son of Barachiah, the son of Iddo,) the prophet, saying,

8 I saw by night, and behold [g] a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the bottom; and behind him were there [h] red horses, [3] speckled, and white.

9 Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will show thee what these be.

10 And the man that stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, [i] These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth.

11 And [j] they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

12 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, [k] O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation [4] these threescore and ten years?

13 And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me [m] with good words and comfortable words.

14 So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I am [n] jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy.

15 And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for [o] I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; I [p] am returned to Jerusalem with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a [q] line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem.

17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; My cities through [4] prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; [r] and the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and [s] shall yet choose Jerusalem.

18 ¶ Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, four horns.

19 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, These [t] are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.

20 And the LORD showed me four carpenters.

21 Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which [u] lifted up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it.

CHAPTER II.

An angel sent to measure Jerusalem, and its flourishing state under God's protection foretold.

I LIFTED up mine eyes again, and looked, and, behold, [a] a man with a measuring line in his hand.

2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, [b] To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.

3 And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him,

4 And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, [c] Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein:

5 For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a [d] wall of fire round about, [e] and will be the glory in the midst of her.

6 ¶ Ho, ho! come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have [f] spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD.

7 Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon.

8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you; for he that [g] toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye.

9 For, behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

10 ¶ Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, lo, I come, and I [h] will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.

11 And [i] many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and shall be [j] my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou [k] shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

12 And the LORD shall [l] inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Jerusalem again.

13 Be [m] silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is raised up out of [1] his holy habitation.

CHAPTER III.

1 Under the type of Joshua, the restoration of the church promised. 8 Christ, the Branch, promised.

AND he showed me [a] Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and [1] Satan standing at his right hand to [2] resist him.

2 And [b] the LORD said unto Satan, [c] The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan; even the LORD that [d] hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: [e] is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?

3 Now Joshua was clothed with filthy [f] garments, and stood before the angel.

4 And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and [g] I will clothe thee with change of raiment.

5 And I said, Let them set a fair mitre [h] upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD stood by.

6 And the angel of the LORD protested unto Joshua, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my [3] charge, then thou shalt also [i] judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee [4] places to walk among these that stand by.

8 Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou, and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men [5] wondered at: for, behold, I will bring forth [j] my servant [k] The BRANCH.

9 For behold the stone that I have laid before Joshua; [l] upon one stone shall [m] be seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and [n] I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour under [o] the vine and under the fig tree.

CHAPTER IV.

1 By the golden candlestick is foreshown the good success of Zerubbabel's foundation; 11 by the two olive trees, the two anointed ones.

AND the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, [a] as a man that is wakened out of his sleep,

2 And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and, behold, [b] a candlestick all of gold,[1] with a bowl upon the top of it, and [c] his seven lamps thereon, and [2] seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof:

3 And [d] two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.

4 So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?

5 Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by [3] might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Who art thou, [e] O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth [f] the head-stone thereof [g] with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it!

8 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall [h] also finish it; and thou [i] shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you.

10 For who hath despised the day of small [j] things? [4] for they shall rejoice, and shall see the [5] plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; [k] they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

11 ¶ Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof?

12 And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches which [6] through the two golden pipes [7] empty [8] the golden oil out of themselves?

CHAPTER V.

1 By a flying roll is shown the curse of thieves and false swearers. 5 Babylon's ruin.

THEN I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, a flying roll.

2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.

3 Then said he unto me, This is the [a] curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for [1] every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side according to it.

4 I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of [b] him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and [c] shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.

5 ¶ Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.

7 And, behold, there was lifted up a [2] talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.

8 And he said, This is Wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

9 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.

10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?

11 And he said unto me, [d] To build it an house in the land of Shinar: and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Vision of four chariots. 9 By the crowns of Joshua are shown Christ the Branch, and his church and kingdom.

AND I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass.

2 In the first chariot were [a] red horses, and in the second chariot black horses,

3 And in the third chariot [b] white horses, and in the fourth chariot grisled and [1] bay horses.

4 Then I answered [c] and said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?

5 And the angel answered and said unto me, [d] These are the four [2] spirits of the heavens, which go forth from [e] standing before the Lord of all the earth.

6 The black horses which are therein go forth into [f] the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grisled go forth toward the south country.

7 And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they [g] might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.

8 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north country have quieted my [h] spirit in the north country.

9 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

10 Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah, which are [i] come from Babylon, and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah;

11 Then take silver and gold, and make [j] crowns, and set them upon the head of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest;

12 And speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Behold the [k] man whose name is The [l] BRANCH; and he shall [3] grow up out of his place, and he [m] shall build the temple of the LORD:

13 Even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he [n] shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and [o] he shall be a priest upon his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.

14 And the crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, [p] for a memorial in the temple of the LORD.

15 And [q] they that are far off shall come and build in the temple of the LORD; and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.

CHAPTER VII.

1 The captives enquire of fasting: 4 Zechariah reproves their hypocritical fasting. 8 They are exhorted to repentance, etc.

AND it came to pass in the fourth year of king Darius, that the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in Chisleu;

2 When they had sent unto the house of God Sherezer and Regem-melech, and their men, [1] to pray before the LORD,

3 And to [a] speak unto the priests which were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?

4 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD of hosts unto me, saying,

5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, [b] even those seventy years, did ye at all fast unto [c] me, even to me?

6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, [2] did not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves?

7 [3] Should ye not hear the words which the LORD hath cried [4] by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men [d] inhabited the south and the plain?

8 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying,

9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, [5] Execute true judgment, and show mercy and compassions every man to his brother:

10 And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

11 But they refused to hearken, and [6] pulled away the shoulder, and [7] stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

12 Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his Spirit [8] by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts.

13 Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts:

14 But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not: thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned; for they laid the [9] pleasant land desolate.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Jerusalem's restoration. 9 They are encouraged to the building by God's favour.

AGAIN the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I [a] was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.

3 Thus saith the LORD; I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem [b] shall be called, A city of truth; and [c] the mountain of the LORD of hosts, [d] The holy mountain.

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; There [e] shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand [1] for very age.

5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If it be [2] marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, [f] should it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from [3] the west country;

8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; [g] and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Let [h] your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of [i] the prophets, which were in [j] the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before these days [4] there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 For the seed shall be [5] prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to [k] possess all these things.

13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were [l] a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and [m] ye shall be a blessing: [n] fear not, but let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; [o] As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, [p] and I repented not:

15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah: fear ye not.

16 ¶ These are the things that ye shall do; [q] Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; [6] execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates:

17 And [r] let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I [s] hate, saith the LORD.

18 ¶ And the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying,

19 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The [t] fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, [u] and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah [v] joy and gladness, and cheerful [7] feasts; therefore love the truth and peace.

20 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; It shall yet come to pass, that there

22 Yea, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the LORD.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you; for we have heard that God is with you.

CHAPTER IX.

1 God defends his church. 9 Zion exhorted to rejoice for the coming of Christ.

THE burden of the word of the LORD in the land of Hadrach, and [a] Damascus shall be the rest thereof: when [b] the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be toward the LORD.

2 And [c] Hamath also shall border thereby; [d] Tyrus, and [e] Zidon, though it be [f] very wise.

3 And Tyrus did build herself a strong hold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, the LORD will cast her out, and he will smite [g] her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire.

5 Ashkelon [h] shall see it, and fear; Gaza [i] also shall see it, and be very sorrowful; and Ekron, for her expectation, shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

6 And a bastard shall dwell in Ashdod; and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

7 And I will take away his [1] blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but he that remaineth, even he, shall be for our God; and he shall be as a governor in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite.

8 And [j] I will encamp about mine house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth; and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now [k] have I seen with mine eyes.

9 ¶ Rejoice [l] greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy [m] King cometh unto thee: he is [n] just, and [2] having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

10 And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle-bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace [o] unto the heathen; and his dominion shall be [p] from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

11 As for thee also, [3] by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy [q] prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12 Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to-day do I declare that I will render double unto thee;

13 When I have bent Judah for me, filled the bow with Ephraim, and raised up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O Greece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man.

14 And the LORD shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord GOD shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south.

15 The LORD of hosts shall defend them; and they shall devour, and [4] subdue with sling stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they [5] shall be filled like bowls, and as [r] the corners of the altar.

16 And [s] the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people: for [t] they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted [u] up as an ensign upon his land.

17 For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! Corn shall make the young men [6] cheerful, and new wine the maids.

CHAPTER X.

1 God to be sought unto, and not idols. 3 As he visited his flock for sin, so will he save and restore them.

ASK ye [a] of the LORD rain [b] in the time of the latter rain; so the LORD shall make [1] bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

they [3] were troubled, because there was no shepherd.

3 Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I [4] punished the goats: for the LORD of hosts hath [c] visited his flock the house of Judah, and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle.

4 Out of him came forth the corner, out of him [d] the nail, out of him the battle-bow, out of him every oppressor together.

5 And they shall be as mighty men, which tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them, and the [5] riders on horses shall be confounded.

6 And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them again to place them: for I have mercy upon them: and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the LORD their God, and will hear them.

7 And they of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine: yea, their children shall see it, and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.

10 I will [f] bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon; and [g] place shall not be found for them.

11 And he shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up; and the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and the [h] sceptre of Egypt shall depart away.

12 And I will strengthen them in the LORD; and they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the LORD.

2 Howl, fir tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the [1] mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan; for [2] the forest of the vintage is come down.

3 ¶ There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is spoiled.

4 Thus saith the LORD my God; Feed the flock of the slaughter;

5 Whose possessors slay them, and [a] hold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them [b] say, Blessed be the LORD; for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but, lo, I will [3] deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king; and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

7 And I will feed the flock of slaughter, [4] even you, [c] O poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called [5] Bands; and I fed the flock.

8 Three shepherds also I cut off in [d] one month; and my soul [6] loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

9 Then said I, I will not feed you: that [e] that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh [7] of another.

10 ¶ And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people.

11 And it was broken in that day: and [8] so the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD.

12 And I said unto them, [9] If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. So they [f] weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver.

13 And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto the [g] potter: a goodly price that I was prized at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD.

14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even [10] Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 ¶ And the LORD said unto me,

Take [h] unto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd:

16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which shall not visit those that be [11] cut off, neither shall seek the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor [12] feed that that standeth still: but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces.

17 Woe [i] to the idol shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly [j] darkened.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Jerusalem a cup of trembling and a burdensome stone to the confusion of her adversaries. 6 Victorious restoring of Judah. 10 Repentance of Jerusalem.

THE burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and [a] formeth the spirit of man within him.

2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of [1] trembling unto all the people round about, [2] when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

3 And in that day will I make Jerusalem a [b] burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

4 In that day, saith the LORD, [c] I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness; and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

5 And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, [3] The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

6 In that day will I make the governors of Judah like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem.

7 The LORD also shall save [d] the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem do not magnify themselves against Judah.

8 In that day shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and [e] he that is [4] feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of the LORD before them.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

10 And [f] I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications; and they shall [g] look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born.

11 In that day shall there be a great [h] mourning in Jerusalem, [i] as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.

12 And the land shall mourn, [5] every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart;

13 The family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family [6] of Shimei apart, and their wives apart;

14 All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Fountain of purgation for Jerusalem. 2 from idolatry and false prophecy. 7 Death of Christ, and trial of a third part.

IN that day there shall be [a] a fountain opened to the house of David, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for [1] uncleanness.

2 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will [b] cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered; and also I will cause the [c] prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

3 And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, then his [d] father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

6 And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

7 ¶ Awake, O sword, against my [e] Shepherd, and against the man [f] that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: [g] smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered; and I will turn mine hand upon [h] the little ones.

8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; [i] but the third shall be left therein.

9 And I will bring the third part through [j] the fire, and will [k] refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people; and they shall say, The LORD is my God.

1 Destruction of Jerusalem. 3 Coming of Christ, and graces of his kingdom. 12 Plague of Jerusalem's enemies. 16 The remnant shall turn to the Lord, 20 and their spoils shall be holy.

BEHOLD, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For [a] I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 ¶ Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

4 And his feet shall stand in that day upon [b] the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, [c] and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

6 And it shall come to pass in that day, [3] that the light shall not be [4] clear, nor [5] dark:

7 But [6] it shall be one day which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at [g] evening time it shall be light.

8 And it shall be in that day, that living waters [h] shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the [7] former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

9 And the LORD shall be [i] King over all the earth: in that day shall there be [j] one LORD, and his name one.

10 All the land shall be [8] turned as a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem: and it shall be lifted up, and [9] inhabited in her place, from Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, [k] and from the tower of Hananeel unto the king's wine-presses.

11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no [l] more utter destruction; but Jerusalem [10] shall be safely inhabited.

12 ¶ And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that [m] a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

14 And [11] Judah also shall fight [12] at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.

15 And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.

16 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even [n] go up from year to year to worship [o] the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep [2] the feast of tabernacles.

17 And [q] it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, even upon them shall be no rain.

18 And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, [13] that have no rain, there shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

19 This shall be the [14] punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

20 ¶ In that day shall there be upon the [15] bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD; and the pots in the LORD's house shall be like the bowls before the altar.

21 Yea, [r] every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holiness unto the LORD of hosts; and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and seethe therein: and in that day there shall be no more [s] the Canaanite in the [t] house of the LORD of hosts.

MALACHI.

CHAPTER I.

1 God by Malachi complains of Israel's ingratitude. 6 irreligiousness, 12 and profaneness.

THE burden of the word of the LORD to Israel [1] by Malachi.

2 I have loved you, saith the LORD: yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith the LORD: yet I loved [a] Jacob,

3 And I hated Esau, and [b] laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness.

4 Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever.

5 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, [c] The LORD will be magnified [2] from the border of Israel.

6 ¶ A son [d] honoureth his father, and a servant his master: [e] if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

8 And if ye offer the blind [4] for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or accept [g] thy person? saith the LORD of hosts.

9 And now, I pray you, beseech [5] God that he will be gracious unto us: [h] this hath been [6] by your means: will he regard your persons? saith the LORD of hosts.

10 Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? [i] neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, [j] neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

11 For [k] from the rising of the sun, even unto the going down of the same, my name shall be great among the Gentiles; [l] and in every place [m] incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for [n] my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 ¶ But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, The table of the LORD is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible.

13 Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness is it! [7] and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts: and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should [o] I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD.

14 But [p] cursed be the deceiver, [8] which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.

CHAPTER II.

1 The priests are sharply reproved for profaning the covenant given them: 11 and the people for strange marriages, 13 treachery, 17 and impiety.

AND now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you.

2 If [a] ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings; yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

3 Behold, I will [1] corrupt your seed, and [2] spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and [3] one shall take you away with it.

4 And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 My [b] covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him [c] for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name.

6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did [d] turn many away from iniquity.

7 For [e] the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: [f] for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

8 But ye are departed out of the way; ye have [g] caused many to [4] stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but [5] have been partial in the law.

10 Have [h] we not all one father? hath [i] not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

11 ¶ Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he [6] loved, and [j] hath married the daughter of a strange god.

12 The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, [7] the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

14 Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

15 And [k] did not he make one? Yet had he the [8] residue of the Spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek [9] a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal [10] treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 For [l] the LORD, the God of Israel, saith [11] that he hateth [12] putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

17 ¶ Ye have wearied the LORD with your words: yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

CHAPTER III.

1 Messenger, majesty, and grace of Christ. 7 Rebellion, 8 sacrilege, 13 and infidelity of the people. 16 Promise of blessing to them that fear God.

BEHOLD, [a] I will send my messenger, and he shall [b] prepare the way before me: and [c] the Lord whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, [d] even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, [e] he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.

3 And [h] he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer [i] unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.

4 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in [1] former years.

5 And I [j] will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and [k] against false swearers, and against those that [2] oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts.

6 For I am the LORD, [l] I change not; therefore [m] ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

7 ¶ Even from the days of [n] your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. [o] Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye said, Wherein shall we return?

8 ¶ Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee, In [p] tithes and offerings.

9 Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

10 Bring [q] ye all the tithes [r] into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows [s] of heaven, and [3] pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

11 And I will rebuke [t] the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not [4] destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be [u] a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hosts.

13 ¶ Your words have been stout against me, saith the LORD: yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee?

14 Ye [v] have said, It is vain to serve God; and what profit is it that we have kept [5] his ordinance, and that we have walked [6] mourn fully before the LORD of hosts?

15 And now [w] we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness [7] are set up; yea, they that tempt [x] God are even delivered.

16 Then they [y] that feared the LORD spake [z] often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.

17 And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my [8] jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

18 Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not.

CHAPTER IV.

1 God's judgment on the wicked. 2 and his blessing on the the good: he tells of Elijah's coming and office.

FOR, behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

2 ¶ But unto you that fear my name shall the [a] Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

3 And [b] ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 ¶ Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him [c] in Horeb for all Israel, with the statutes and judgments.

5 Behold, I will send you [d] Elijah the prophet [e] before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD:

6 And he shall [f] turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with [g] a curse.

OFFICES AND SECTS MENTIONED IN THE SCRIPTURES.

APOSTLES, missionaries, or persons sent; they who were sent by our Saviour, from their number called The Twelve.

BISHOPS, spiritual overseers in the Church. Acts, xx, 28; 1 Tim. iii, 1; Titus, i, 5-9.

CENTURION, a captain over a hundred soldiers in the Roman army. Luke, xxiii, 47; Acts, xxvii, 1.

DEACONS, officers appointed to take care of the poor. Acts, vi; 1 Tim. iii, 8.

ELDERS, rulers, administrators of the laws. The first institution of courts of judicature was in the wilderness, when Jethro brought back Zipporah to Moses, who was then encamped at the foot of mount Sinai. The commission given to these judges is recorded in Deut. i, 16, 17. Afterwards, we have the particular appointment of God concerning this, Num. xi, 11. These elders, who composed the Senate belonging to all the tribes in general, sat with the Leader, Judge, or King, who presided in this court. Elder, in the New Testament, is a general name, comprehending under it all such as have any ecclesiastical function, as apostles, pastors, teachers, or other church officers, 1 Tim. v, 17; Titus, i, 5; 1 Peter, v, 1.

EPICUREANS, disciples of Epicurus, an Athenian philosopher, who flourished B. C. 300. They ascribed all things to chance, and considered pleasure as the chief good. Acts, xvii, 18.

HERODIANS, a political party, who complied with many heathen practices to ingratiate themselves with Herod and the Romans. Mat. xxii, 16; Mark, viii, 15.

JUDGES, temporary supreme governors, immediately appointed by God over the children of Israel.

LIBERTINES, Jews or proselytes, free citizens of Rome. They had a separate synagogue in Jerusalem. Acts, vi, 9.

NAZARITES, persons devoted to the service of God, either for a certain time, (Num. vi,) or during life, as Samson, Samuel, and John the Baptist. Judges, xvi, 17; 1 Sam. i, 11; Luke, i, 15; Acts, xviii, 18, and xxi, 23.

NETHINIMS, inferior servants to the priests and Levites, (not of their tribe,) appointed to draw water and cleave wood.

NICOLAITANES, a sect of immoral professors of Christianity, who participated in the sacrifices of the idolaters, indulged in the vilest impurities, and imputed their wickedness to God as the cause. They held a multitude of fables concerning the generation of angels, and the creation of the world by subordinate powers. Rev. ii, 22.

PATRIARCHS, fathers of families, such as Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and his sons. Acts, ii, 29; vii, 8; Heb. vii, 4.

PHARISEES, or Separatists, a large and popular sect among the Jews, which included the greater portion of the scribes and doctors of the law. They distinguished themselves above all others in pretensions to sanctity, and in their scrupulous observance of the ceremonial law and the rabbinical traditions.

PRIESTS, under the Law, were persons appointed by God to teach his will to the people, and to offer up sacrifices and intercessions for the guilty. The Priesthood was not annexed to a certain family, till after the promulgation of the law of Moses. Before that time, the first-born of every family, the fathers, the princes, and the kings, were priests. Cain and Abel, Noah, Abraham and Job, Abimelech and Laban, Isaac and Jacob, offered their own sacrifices. In the solemnity of the covenant that the Lord made with his people at the foot of mount Sinai, Moses performed the office of mediator, and young men were chosen from among the children of Israel to perform the office of Priests. (Exod. xxiv, 5.) But after that the Lord had chosen the tribe of Levi to serve him in his tabernacle, and that the priesthood was annexed to the family of Aaron, then the right of offering sacrifices to God was reserved to the priests alone of his family, Numbers, xvi, 40. The high priest only had the privilege of entering into the sanctuary once a year, which was the day of solemn expiation, to make atonement for the sins of the whole people, Lev. xvi, 2–4, etc. God had also appropriated to his person the oracle of his truth; so that when he was habited with the proper ornaments of his dignity, and with the Urim and Thummim, he gave answers to the questions made to him, and God discovered to him secret and future things, Exod. xxviii, 30. The term Priest, is most properly given to Christ, of whom the high priests under the law were types and figures, he being the High Priest, especially ordained of God, who by the sacrifice of himself, once offered by himself, and also by his intercession, might reconcile all true believers unto God, and keep them for ever in his favour, Heb. vii, 17; ix, 11, 12, 24. The word is also applied to every true believer, who is enabled to offer up spiritual sacrifices of prayer and praise to God through Jesus Christ, 1 Pet. ii, 5; Rev. i, 6.

PROPHETS, persons who were inspired by God to declare his will, and foretell events to come.

PROSELYTES, were of two kinds, Proselytes of the Gate, and Proselytes of Justice. The first are those who dwelt in the land of Israel, or even out of that country, and who, without obliging themselves to circumcision, or to any other ceremony of the law, feared and worshipped the true God, observing the rules that were imposed upon the children of Noah. Of this number were Naaman the Syrian, Cornelius the centurion, the eunuch of Queen Candace, and others. The Proselytes of Justice are those who were converted to Judaism, who had engaged themselves to receive circumcision, and to observe the whole law of Moses. Thus they were admitted to all the prerogatives of the people of God.

PUBLICANS, collectors of the Roman tribute.

RABBI, a Doctor or Master.

SADDUCEES, followers of Sadoc, who lived B. C. 260. Sadoc was a disciple of Antigonus Socchœus, who imbibed those notions which were entertained by the Sadducees from Simon the Just, a high priest of the Jews. The Sadducees were strict observers of the law, but denied the immortality of the soul, and pretended that the angels mentioned in Scripture were merely illusions.

SAMARITANS, descendants of the Babylonians, Cuthites, Avites, Hamathites, and Sepharvites, brought by Shalmaneser to possess the cities of the ten tribes of Israel, whom he had carried away captive. Here they continued their idolatrous practices, somewhat blended with the Jewish religion, 2 Kings, xvii. Afterwards they became partially reformed, and worshipped only the God of Israel. A keen contention always existed between them and the Jews, who regarded the Samaritans as the worst of men, and possessed by the devil, John, iv, 9; viii, 48. At present, the Samaritans are few in number; they pretend to great strictness in their observance of the law of Moses, and account the Jews intolerably lax.

SCRIBES. There are three orders of Scribes mentioned in Scripture. 1. The Secretaries, who were employed in the court of the kings to register the affairs of the State. 2. The Commissaries, who enrolled and reviewed the army. 3. Doctors of the Law, and transcribers of the Sacred Books. These scribes were a most wicked class in the time of our Saviour. Matt. xxiii.

STOICS, followers of Zeno, a Cyprian philosopher, who flourished B. C. 350. From his teaching his scholars in the Stoa or Porch at Athens, they were named Stoics, or porchers. They held that a wise man ought to be free from all passions, and ought never to be moved with joy or grief; that wisdom alone renders men happy, and that all things are ordered by fate. Acts, xvii, 18.

TETRARCHS, who had kingly power in four provinces.

TIRSHATHA, or Governor, appointed by the kings of Assyria or Persia

CHAPTER I.

1 The genealogy of Jesus Christ: 18 Mary's miraculous conception; Jesus is born: 21, 23 his names, with their interpretation.

THE book of the [a] generation of Jesus Christ, [b] the son of David, [c] the son of Abraham.

2 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;

3 And Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar; and [d] Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram;

4 And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat [e] Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon;

5 And Salmon begat Booz [f] of Rachab; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse;

6 And [g] Jesse begat David the king; and David [h] the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias;

7 And [i] Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa;

8 And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias;

9 And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias;

10 And [j] Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias;

11 And [1] Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were [k] carried away to Babylon:

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat [l] Zorobabel;

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor;

14 And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud;

15 And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob;

16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born [m] Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

18 ¶ Now the [n] birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, [o] and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife; [p] for that which is [2] conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name [3] JESUS; for [q] he shall save his people from their sins.

22 (Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, [r] a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and [4] they shall call his name Emmanuel, which, being interpreted, is, [s] God with us.)

24 Then Joseph, being raised from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife;

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her first-born son: and he called his name JESUS.

CHAPTER II.

1 Wise men enquire after Christ: 11 they worship him, and offer presents. 13 Joseph fleeth into Egypt with Jesus and Mary. 16 Herod slayeth the children at Bethlehem: 19 Christ brought out of Egypt.

NOW when [a] Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men [b] from the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, [c] Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the [e] chief priests and [f] scribes of the people together, [g] he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judea: for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 And [h] thou, Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that [i] shall [1] rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶ And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down and [j] worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they [2] presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And being warned of God [k] in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13 ¶ And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt;

15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, [l] Out of Egypt have I called my son.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by [m] Jeremy the prophet, saying,

18 In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 ¶ But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life.

23 And he came and dwelt in a city [o] called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled [p] which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a [3] Nazarene.

CHAPTER III.

1 John preacheth; his office, 5 and baptism: 7 he rebuketh the Pharisees. 13 Christ baptized by John in Jordan.

IN those days came [a] John the Baptist, preaching [b] in the wilderness of Judea,

2 And saying, Repent ye: [c] for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The [d] voice of one crying in the wilderness, [e] Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 And [f] the same John [g] had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was [h] locusts and wild [i] honey.

5 ¶ Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region round about Jordan,

6 And [j] were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from [k] the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits [l] meet for repentance:

9 And think not to say within yourselves, [l] We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

10 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: [m] therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

11 I [n] indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: [o] he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire:

12 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly [p] purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will [q] burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

13 ¶ Then cometh Jesus [r] from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him.

14 But John forbade him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

15 And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to [s] fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.

16 And [t] Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw [u] the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:

17 And [v] lo a voice from heaven, saying, [w] This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Christ fasteth, is tempted, and overcometh: 17 he beginneth to preach: 18 he calleth Peter and Andrew: 23 he teacheth in the synagogue, and healeth the diseased.

THEN was [a] Jesus led up of [b] the Spirit into the wilderness to be [c] tempted of the devil.

2 And when he had [d] fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungered.

3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answered and said, [e] It is written, [f] Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 Then the devil taketh him up into [g] the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,

6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, [h] He shall give his angels charge concerning thee; and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jesus said unto him, It is written again, [i] Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and showeth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;

9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, [j] Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

11 Then the devil [k] leaveth him; and, behold, [l] angels came and ministered unto him.

12 ¶ Now [m] when Jesus had heard that John was [n] cast into prison, he departed into Galilee;

13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim:

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

15 The [o] land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephthalim, by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles;

16 The [o] people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up.

17 From [p] that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, [q] Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 ¶ And [r] Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon [s] called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I [t] will make you fishers of men.

20 And [u] they straightway left their nets, and followed him.

21 And [v] going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 ¶ And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching [w] in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his [x] fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatic, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judea, and from beyond Jordan.

CHAPTER V.

3 Who are blessed. 13 The disciples called the salt of the earth, and light of the world; Christ urgeth on them a good example, etc.

AND seeing the multitudes, [a] he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 Blessed [b] are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed [c] are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed [d] are the meek: for [e] they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: [f] for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: [g] for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed [h] are the pure in heart: for [i] they shall see God.

9 Blessed are [j] the peacemakers:

for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Blessed [k] are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you [l] falsely, for my sake.

12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad; for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 ¶ Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 Ye [t] are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a [2] bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, that [m] they may see your good works, and glorify [n] your Father which is in heaven.

17 ¶ Think [o] not that I am come to destroy the Law, or the Prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, Till [p] heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 Whosoever [q] therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed [r] the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said [3] by them of old time, Thou shalt [s] not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:

22 But I say unto you, That whosoever [t] is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, [4] Raca! shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou [5] fool! shall be in danger of hell fire.

23 Therefore, if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee;

24 Leave [u] there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 Agree [v] with thine adversary quickly, whiles [w] thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verily I say unto thee, [x] Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou. hast paid the uttermost farthing.

27 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery:

28 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh [y] on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

29 And [z] if thy right eye [6] offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

30 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

31 ¶ It hath been said, [a] Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement:

32 But I say unto you, That [b] whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery.

33 ¶ Again, ye have heard that it hath been said [7] by them of old time, [c] Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but [d] shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths:

34 But I say unto you, [e] Swear not at all: neither by heaven; for it is [f] God's throne:

35 Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King.

36 Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black.

37 But [g] let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil.

38 ¶ Ye have heard that it hath been said, [h] An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth:

39 But I say unto you, [i] That ye resist not evil; [j] but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

40 And if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloak also.

41 And whosoever [k] shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain.

42 Give to him that asketh thee, and from [l] him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.

43 ¶ Ye have heard that it hath been said, [m] Thou shalt love thy neighbour, [n] and hate thine enemy:

44 But I say unto you, [o] Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray [p] for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;

45 That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

46 For [q] if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?

47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so?

48 Be [r] ye therefore perfect, even as [s] your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Of alms, 5 prayer, 14 forgiveness. 19 Our treasure. 24 Of God and mammon.

TAKE heed that ye do not your [1] alms before men, to be seen of them; otherwise ye have no reward [2] of your Father which is in heaven.

2 Therefore, [a] when thou doest thine alms, [3] do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth;

4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter [b] into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father [c] which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, [d] use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: [e] for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your [f] Father knoweth what things ye have need of before ye ask him.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye: [g] Our Father which art in heaven, [h] Hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, [i] as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our [j] daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 And [k] lead us not into temptation, but deliver [l] us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

14 For [m] if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 But [n] if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 ¶ Moreover, [o] when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face;

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

19 ¶ Lay [p] not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

20 But [q] lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 The [r] light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, [s] how great is that darkness!

24 No [t] man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. [u] Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

25 Therefore I say unto you, [4] Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

26 Behold [v] the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

27 Which of you, by taking thought, can add one cubit unto his stature?

28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for [w] your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33 But [x] seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

34 Take therefore no [5] thought for the morrow: for the morrow

CHAPTER VII.

1 Christ, ending his sermon on the mount, reproveth rash judgment. 6 forbiddeth to cast holy things to dogs. 7 exhorteth to prayer, 13 to enter in at the strait gate.

JUDGE [a] not, that ye be not judged.

2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: [b] and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

3 And [c] why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

5 Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

6 ¶ Give [d] not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

7 ¶ Ask, [e] and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

8 For [f] every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much [g] more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him!

12 Therefore all things [h] whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this [i] is the Law and the Prophets.

13 ¶ Enter [j] ye in at the strait gate: [k] for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

14 [l] Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

15 ¶ Beware [l] of false prophets, which [m] come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they [n] are ravening wolves.

16 Ye shall know them by their fruits. [o] Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

17 Even so [p] every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 ¶ Not every one that saith unto me, [q] Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we [r] not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: [s] depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

24 ¶ Therefore, [t] whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:

25 And [u] the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and [v] it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:

27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: [w] and great was the fall of it.

28 ¶ And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, [x] the people were astonished at his doctrine:

29 For [y] he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

[y] Isaiah 50, 4. John 7, 46.

2 And, [a] behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jesus saith unto him, [b] See thou tell no man; but go thy way, show thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that [c] Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

5 ¶ And [d] when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, I [e] am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but [f] speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

11 And I say unto you, [g] That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven:

12 But [h] the children of the kingdom [i] shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the self-same hour.

14 ¶ And [j] when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw [k] his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever.

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them.

16 ¶ When [l] the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself [m] took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 ¶ Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

19 And [n] a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but [o] the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

21 And [p] another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, [q] suffer me first to go and bury my father.

22 But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let [r] the dead bury their dead.

23 ¶ And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

24 And, [s] behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

26 And he saith unto them, Why [t] are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then [u] he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

28 ¶ And [v] when he was come to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

29 And, behold, they cried out, saying, What [w] have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time?

30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many [x] swine feeding.

31 So the devils [y] besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.

32 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.

33 And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils.

34 And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they [z] besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Christ cureth the palsy, 9 calleth Matthew, 10 justifieth himself for eating with publicans and sinners: 20 he healeth the bloody issue; 23 raiseth to life the ruler's daughter; 27 giveth sight to two blind men, etc.

AND he entered into a ship, and passed over, [a] and came into his own city.

2 And, [b] behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: [c] and Jesus, seeing their faith, said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, be of good cheer; [d] thy sins be forgiven thee.

3 And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.

4 And Jesus, [e] knowing their thoughts, said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

5 For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk?

6 But that ye may know that the [f] Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

9 ¶ And [g] as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 ¶ And [h] it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master [i] with publicans and [j] sinners?

12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I [k] will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, [l] but sinners to repentance.

14 ¶ Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, [m] Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus said unto them, Can [n] the children of the bride-chamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and [o] then shall they fast.

16 No man putteth a piece of [1] new cloth unto an old garment; for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles; else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

18 ¶ While [p] he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 ¶ And, [q] behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment:

21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jesus turned him about; and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; [r] thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

23 And [s] when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw [t] the minstrels and the people making a noise,

24 He said unto them, [u] Give place; for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

26 And [2] the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

27 ¶ And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you.

30 And [w] their eyes were opened: and Jesus straitly charged them, saying, See [x] that no man know it.

31 But [y] they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

32 ¶ As [z] they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil.

33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.

34 But the Pharisees said, He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils.

35 ¶ And [a] Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease, among the people.

36 But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they [3] fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.

37 Then saith he unto his disciples, [b] The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few;

4 Simon [c] the Canaanite, and Judas [d] Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of [e] the Samaritans enter ye not:

6 But [f] go rather to the [g] lost sheep of the house of Israel.

7 And [h] as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand.

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give.

9 [3] Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses,

10 Nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet [4] staves; [i] for the workman is worthy of his meat.

11 And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence.

12 And when ye come into an house, salute it.

13 And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.

14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, [j] shake off the dust of your feet.

15 Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city.

16 ¶ Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: [k] be ye therefore wise as serpents, and [5] harmless as doves.

17 But beware of men; for they will deliver you up to the councils, and [l] they will scourge you in their synagogues:

18 And [m] ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles.

19 But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for [n] it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.

20 For [o] it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

21 And [p] the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

22 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: [g] but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.

23 But [f] when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not [6] have gone over the cities of Israel, till [h] the Son of man be come.

24 The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.

25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house [7] Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household?

26 Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.

27 What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the house-tops.

28 And [i] fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

29 Are not two sparrows sold for a [8] farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father.

30 But [k] the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

31 Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.

32 Whosoever [l] therefore shall confess me before men, [m] him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.

33 But [n] whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

34 Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword.

35 For I am come to set a man at variance [9] against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

36 And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.

37 He that loveth father or mother more than me, is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me, is not worthy of me.

CHAPTER XI.

2 John sendeth his disciples to Christ. 7 The testimony of Christ concerning John. 20 Christ upbraideth the unthankfulness and impenitence of Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum, etc.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence, to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 ¶ Now [a] when John had heard in [b] the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said unto him, Art thou he [c] that should come, or do we look for another?

4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and show John again those things which ye do hear and see:

5 The [d] blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the [e] poor have the Gospel preached to them.

6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be [f] offended in me.

7 ¶ And [g] as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, [h] and more than a prophet.

10 For this is he, of whom it is written, [i] Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist; notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

12 And [j] from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven [l] suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 For [k] all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John.

14 And if ye will receive it, this is [i] Elias, which was for to come.

15 He [m] that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

16 But [n] whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.

19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, [o] a friend of publicans and sinners. [p] But Wisdom is justified of her children.

20 ¶ Then [q] began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

21 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago [r] in sackcloth and ashes.

22 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you.

23 And thou, Capernaum, [s] which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.

25 ¶ At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou [t] hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.

26 Even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

CHAPTER XII.

Christ reproveth the blindness of the Pharisees concerning the sabbath.

AT that time [a] Jesus went on the sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungered, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read [b] what David did, when he was an hungered, and they that were with him;

4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat [c] the showbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, [d] but only for the priests?

5 Or have ye not read in the [e] Law, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

6 But I say unto you, That in this place is one [f] greater than the temple.

7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, I [g] will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the [h] Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day.

9 ¶ And [i] when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue:

10 And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, [j] Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you that shall have one sheep, and [k] if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

14 ¶ Then [l] the Pharisees went out, and [1] held a council against him, how they might destroy him.

15 But when Jesus [m] knew it, [n] he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all;

16 And charged them that they should not make him known:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

18 Behold [o] my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my [p] Spirit upon him, and he shall show judgment to the Gentiles.

19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

20 A [q] bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.

21 And in his name shall the Gentiles trust.

22 ¶ Then [r] was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this [s] the son of David?

24 But [t] when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by [2] Beelzebub the prince of the devils.

25 And Jesus [u] knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every [v] kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:

26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?

27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then [w] the kingdom of God is come unto you.

29 Or [x] else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

31 Wherefore I say unto you, [y] All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: [z] but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.

32 And whosoever [a] speaketh a word against the Son of man, [b] it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.

33 Either make the tree good, and his [c] fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.

34 O [d] generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? [e] for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

35 A good man, out of the good treasure of the heart, bringeth forth good things: and an evil man, out of the evil treasure, bringeth forth evil things.

36 But I say unto you, That every [f] idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 ¶ Then [g] certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee.

39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and [h] adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas:

40 For [i] as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly, so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

41 The [j] men of Nineve shall rise in judgment with this generation, and [k] shall condemn it: [l] because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, [m] a greater than Jonas is here.

42 The [n] queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a [o] greater than Solomon is here.

43 When [p] the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, [q] he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.

44 Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished.

45 Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and [r] the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

46 ¶ While he yet talked to the people, behold, [s] his mother and his [t] brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.

47 Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.

48 But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?

49 And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!

50 For [u] whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

CHAPTER XIII.

3 Of the sower and the seed. 10 Why Christ spake in parables. 18 The exposition of the parable of the sower. 24 Divers other parables, etc.

THE same day went Jesus out of the house, [a] and sat by the sea-side.

2 And [b] great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that [c] he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow:

4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way-side, and the fowls came and devoured them up:

5 Some fell upon [d] stony places, where they had not much earth; and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:

6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no [e] root, they withered away:

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up and choked them:

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some [f] an hundred-fold, some sixty-fold, some thirty-fold.

9 Who [g] hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 ¶ And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

11 He answered and said unto them, Because [h] it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 For [i] whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance; but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.

13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing, see not; and hearing, they hear not; neither do they understand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By [j] hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears [k] are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

16 But [l] blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear.

17 For verily I say unto you, That many [m] prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

18 ¶ Hear [n] ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh [o] the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way-side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with [p] joy receiveth it:

21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while; for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by [q] he is offended.

22 He [r] also that received seed among [s] the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, [t] his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay; lest, while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them; but [u] gather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, [v] The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds; but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 ¶ Another [w] parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took and hid in three [1] measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, [x] I will open my mouth in parables; [y] I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 ¶ Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them, He that [z] soweth the good seed is the Son of man;

38 The [a] field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are [b] the children of the wicked one;

39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; [c] the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, [d] and they shall gather out of his kingdom all [2] things that offend, and them which do iniquity, 42 And [e] shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 Then [f] shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

44 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and [g] selleth all that he hath, and [h] buyeth that field.

45 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchantman seeking goodly pearls:

46 Who, when he had found [i] one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered [j] of every kind:

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just,

50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he unto them,

3 ¶ For [b] Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife.

4 For John said unto him, [c] It is not lawful for thee to have her.

5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, [d] because they counted him as a prophet.

6 But when Herod's [e] birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced [2] before them, and pleased Herod.

7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.

8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger.

9 And the king was sorry: [f] nevertheless, for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.

11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

13 ¶ When [g] Jesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and [h] was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

15 ¶ And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart; [i] give ye them to eat.

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 He said, Bring them hither to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and, looking up to heaven, he [j] blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

22 ¶ And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

23 And [k] when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: [l] and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples [m] saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit and they cried out for fear.

27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.

28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

30 But when he saw the wind [3] boisterous, he was afraid; and, beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me!

31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore [n] didst thou doubt?

32 And when they were come into the ship, the [o] wind ceased.

33 Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou [p] art the Son of God.

34 ¶ And [q] when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased;

36 And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

CHAPTER XV.

1 Of God's commandments, and men's traditions. 10 Christ showeth what defileth a man: 29 he healeth great multitudes, etc.

THEN [a] came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying,

2 Why [b] do thy disciples transgress [c] the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, Honour [d] thy father and mother: and, [e] He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, [f] It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me;

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 Ye [g] hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying,

8 This [h] people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching [i] for doctrines the commandments of men.

10 ¶ And [j] he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand:

11 Not [k] that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered and said, Every [l] plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 Let [m] them alone: [n] they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 Then [o] answered Peter and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jesus said, [p] Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever [q] entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But [r] those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.

19 For [s] out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

21 ¶ Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon.

22 And, behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.

24 But he answered and said, [t] I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

25 Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me!

26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to [u] dogs.

27 And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.

28 Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

29 ¶ And [v] Jesus departed from thence, and came nigh [w] unto the sea of Galilee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.

30 And [x] great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet; and he healed them:

31 Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Israel.

32 ¶ Then [y] Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said, I [z] have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 And [a] his disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness as to fill so great a multitude?

34 And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

36 And [b] he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and [c] gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

37 And they did all eat, [d] and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full.

38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, besides women and children.

39 And [e] he sent away the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of Magdala.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 The Pharisees require a sign. 5 Of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees, etc.

THE [a] Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and tempting desired him that he would show them a sign from heaven.

2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather; for the sky is red:

3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to-day; for the sky is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the [b] signs of the times?

4 A [c] wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed.

5 ¶ And [d] when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, Take [e] heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

8 Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread?

9 Do [f] ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

10 Neither [g] the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees?

12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

13 ¶ When Jesus came into the coasts of Cesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, [h] Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?

14 And they said, [i] Some say that thou art John the Baptist; [j] some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets.

15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?
16 And Simon Peter answered and said, [k] Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.
17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: [l] for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but [m] my Father which is in heaven.
18 And I say also unto thee, That [n] thou art Peter, and [o] upon this rock I will build my church; and [p] the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.
19 And [q] I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.
20 Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.
21 ¶ From that time forth began Jesus to show unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.
22 Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, [r] Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.
23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou [s] art an offence unto me; for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.
24 Then [t] said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.
25 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.
26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or [u] what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?
27 For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father [w] with his angels; [x] and then he shall reward every man according to his works.
28 Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his [y] kingdom.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 The transfiguration of Christ: 14 he healeth the lunatic: 24 he payeth tribute.

AND [a] after six days Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart,
2 And was transfigured before them; and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.
3 And, behold, there appeared unto them [b] Moses and Elias talking with him.
4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.
5 While [c] he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, [d] This is my beloved Son, [e] in whom I am well pleased; [f] hear ye him.
6 And [g] when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.
7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.
8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.
9 ¶ And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.
10 And his disciples asked him, saying, [h] Why then say the scribes that Elias must first come?
11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and restore [i] all things.
12 But [j] I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have [k] done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.
13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.
14 ¶ And [l] when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying,
15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatic, and sore vexed: for ofttimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.
16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you! how long shall I suffer you! Bring him hither to me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, [m] If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.

22 ¶ And [n] while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men;

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry.

24 ¶ And [o] when they were come to Capernaum, they that received [1] tribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute?

25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should [p] offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find [2] a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 Christ teacheth to be humble. 7 Touching offences, 21 and forgiving one another.

AT [a] the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

2 And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Verily I say unto you,

Except [b] ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

4 Whosoever [c] therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5 And [d] whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

6 But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 ¶ Woe unto the world because of offences! for [e] it must needs be that offences come; but [f] woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!

8 Wherefore [g] if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.

9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

10 ¶ Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their [h] angels do always [i] behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

11 For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

12 How [j] think ye? If a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, He rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15 ¶ Moreover, [k] if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou [l] hast gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that [m] in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto [n] the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an [o] heathen man and a publican.

18 Verily I say unto you, [p] Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

19 Again [q] I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, [r] it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there [s] am I in the midst of them.

21 ¶ Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? [t] till seven times?

22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times; but, [u] Until seventy times seven.

23 ¶ Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand [1] talents:

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to [v] be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and [2] worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him an hundred [3] pence; and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not; but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me:

33 Shouldest [w] not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow-servant, even as I had pity on thee?

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

35 So [x] likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 Christ healeth the sick; 3 he answereth the Pharisees touching divorcement; 16 he instructeth how to attain everlasting life, etc.

AND it came to pass, [a] that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judea beyond Jordan;

2 And [b] great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there.

3 ¶ The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, [c] that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female,

5 And said, [d] For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: [e] and they twain shall be one flesh?

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

7 They say unto him, [f] Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

8 He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but [g] from the beginning it was not so.

9 And [h] I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery; and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

11 But he said unto them, [j] All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb; and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men; and [k] there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 ¶ Then [l] were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me; for of [m] such is the kingdom of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 ¶ And, behold, one came and said unto him, [n] Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?

17 And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? [o] there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

18 He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, Thou [p] shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, 19 Honour [q] thy father and thy mother; and, [r] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?

21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, [s] go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come and follow me.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a [t] rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

26 But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with [u] God all things are possible.

27 ¶ Then [v] answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, [w] we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore?

28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in [x] the regeneration, when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye [y] also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

29 And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Of the labourers in the vineyard. 17 Christ foretelleth his passion: 20 Teacheth his disciples to be lowly. 29 and giveth sight to two blind men.

FOR the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a [1] penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the market-place,

4 And said unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So when [a] even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

CHAP. 20.

[1] The Roman penny is the eight part of an ounce, which after five shillings the ounce is sevenpence halfpenny.

[a] Acts 17, 31. 1 Thess. 4, 16.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.
10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.
11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the goodman of the house,
12 Saying, These last [2] have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.
13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny?
14 Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last even as unto thee.
15 Is [b] it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? [c] Is thine eye evil, because I am good?
16 So [d] the last shall be first, and the first last: [e] for many be called, but few chosen.
17 ¶ And [f] Jesus going up to Jerusalem took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,
18 Behold, [g] we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,
19 And [h] shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again.
20 ¶ Then [i] came to him [j] the mother of Zebedee's [k] children with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.
21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons [l] may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom.
22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the [m] cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with [n] the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.
23 And he saith unto them, [o] Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to [p] give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.

32 And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I shall do unto you?
33 They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.
34 So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes; and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Christ rideth into Jerusalem upon an ass: 12 driveth the buyers and sellers out of the temple: 18 curseth the fig tree. 28 Parable of the two sons: 33 of the husbandmen.

AND [a] when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto [b] the mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples,
2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me.
3 And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The [c] Lord hath need [d] of them; and straightway he will send them.
4 (All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, [e] saying,

5 Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Benold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.)

6 And [f] the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,

7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and put [g] on them their clothes, and they set him thereon.

8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others [h] cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, [i] Hosanna to the son of David! [j] Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

10 ¶ And [k] when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?

11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus the [l] prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.

12 ¶ And [m] Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the [n] money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves,

13 And said unto them, It is written, [o] My house shall be called the house of prayer; but [p] ye have made it a den of thieves.

14 And [q] the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.

15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to [r] the son of David; they were sore displeased,

16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, [s] Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 And he left them, and went out of the city into [t] Bethany; and he lodged there.

18 ¶ Now in the morning, as he returned into the city, he hungered.

19 And when he saw [1] a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away.

20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away!

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, [u] If ye have faith, and [v] doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, [w] but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

22 And [x] all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23 ¶ And [y] when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, [z] By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

24 And [a] Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

25 The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; [b] for all hold John as a prophet.

27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

28 ¶ But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to-day in my vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir; and went not.

31 Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, [c] Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

32 For [d] John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but [e] the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 The marriage of the king's son. 21 Tribute to be paid to Cesar. 23 Christ silenceth the Sadducees.

AND Jesus answered [a] and spake unto them again by parables, and said,

2 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son,

3 And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: [b] my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they [c] made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And [d] the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth [e] his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were [f] not worthy.

9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the highways, and [g] gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man [h] which had not on a wedding garment:

12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he [i] was speechless.

13 Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast [j] him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

14 For [k] many are called, but few are chosen.

15 ¶ Then [l] went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk.

16 And they sent out unto him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man; for thou regardest not the person of men.

17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cesar, or not?

21 They say unto him, Cesar's. Then saith he unto them, [m] Render therefore unto Cesar the things which are Cesar's; and unto God the things that are God's.

22 When they had heard these words, they [n] marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

23 ¶ The [o] same day came to him the Sadducees, [p] which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him,

24 Saying, Master, [q] Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother:

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the [3] seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, [r] not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but [s] are as the angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,

32 I [t] am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, they [u] were astonished at his doctrine.

34 ¶ But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them, which was [v] a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying,

36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law?

37 Jesus said unto him, [w] Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is like unto it, [x] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

40 On [y] these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

41 ¶ While [z] the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them,

42 Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David.

43 He saith unto them, How then doth David [a] in spirit call him Lord, saying, 44 The [b] LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

45 If David then call him Lord, how is he his son?

46 And [c] no man was able to answer him a word; neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

CHAPTER XXIII.

Of the scribes and Pharisees' good doctrine, but evil examples of life.

THEN spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples,

2 Saying, [a] The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat:

3 All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for [b] they say, and do not.

4 For [c] they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But [d] all their works they do for to be seen of men: [e] they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,

6 And [f] love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues,

7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi.

8 But [g] be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren.

9 And call no man your father upon the earth: [h] for one is your Father, which is in heaven.

10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Christ.

11 But [i] he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.

12 And [j] whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

13 ¶ But [k] woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

14 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [l] for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he is made, ye make him two-fold more the child of hell than yourselves.

16 Woe unto you, [m] ye blind guides, which say, [n] Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!

17 Ye fools, and blind! for whether is greater, the gold, [o] or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?

18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is [1] guilty.

19 Ye fools, and blind! for whether is greater, the gift, or [p] the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and [q] by him that dwelleth therein.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by [r] the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [s] for ye pay tithe of mint and [2] anise and cummin, and [t] have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

24 Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

25 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [u] for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.

26 Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which [v] is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [w] for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.

28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous,

30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that [x] ye are the children of them which killed the prophets.

32 Fill [y] ye up then the measure of your fathers.

33 Ye serpents, ye [z] generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

34 Wherefore, [a] behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some [b] of them ye shall kill and crucify; and [c] some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:

35 That [d] upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, [e] from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

36 Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I [f] have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

38 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.

39 For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, [g] Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

his disciples came to him, for to show him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, [b] There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 ¶ And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, [c] Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, [d] Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 For [e] many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

7 For [f] nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 Then [g] shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

10 And then shall many [h] be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And [i] many false prophets shall rise, and [j] shall deceive many.

12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

13 But [k] he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And this gospel of the kingdom [l] shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

15 When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by [m] Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, ([n] whoso readeth, let him understand,)

16 Then let them which be in Judea flee into the mountains:

17 Let him which is on the house-top not come down to take any thing out of his house:

18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

19 And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days!

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day:

21 For [o] then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: [p] but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

23 Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not.

24 For [q] there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders; insomuch that, [r] if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherefore, if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

28 For [s] wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 ¶ Immediately [t] after the tribulation of those days [u] shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

30 And [v] then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and [w] then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, [x] and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

31 And [y] he shall send his angels [1] with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

32 ¶ Now learn [z] a parable of the fig tree: When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that [2] it is near, even at the doors.

37 But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 For [e] as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark,

45 Who [g] then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

46 Blessed [h] is that servant whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

49 And shall begin to smite his fellow-servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;

50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,

CHAPTER XXV.

1 The parable of the ten virgins; 14 of the talents, and the reward to those who improved them. 31 Of the last judgment.

THEN shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the [a] bridegroom.

2 And [b] five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took [c] no oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they [d] all slumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight [e] there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their [f] lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are [1] gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the [g] door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, [h] Lord, Lord, open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, [i] I know you not.

13 Watch [j] therefore; for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

14 ¶ For [k] the kingdom of heaven is as [l] a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five [2] talents, to another two, and to another one; [m] to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and [n] traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid [o] his lord's money.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained besides them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, [p] I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into [q] the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents besides them.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed:

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed;

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

29 For [r] unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.

30 And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 ¶ When [s] the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:

32 And [t] before him shall be gathered all nations: and [u] he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats:

33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, [v] inherit the kingdom [w] prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

35 For [x] I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: [y] I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

36 Naked, [z] and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: [a] I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

40 And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, [b] Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

41 Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, [c] Depart from me, ye cursed, into [d] everlasting fire, prepared for [e] the devil and his angels:

42 For I was an hungered, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:

43 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

45 Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, [f] Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

46 And [g] these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life [h] eternal.

CHAPTER XXVI.

3 The rulers conspire against Christ: 14 Judas selleth him. 17 Christ eateth the passover.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,

2 Ye [a] know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

3 ¶ Then [b] assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

4 And consulted that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

6 ¶ Now [c] when Jesus was [d] in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper,

7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat.

8 But [e] when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

11 For [f] ye have the poor always with you; but [g] me ye have not always.

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial.

13 Verily I say unto you, [h] Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

14 ¶ Then [i] one of the twelve, called Judas [j] Iscariot, went unto the chief priests,

15 And said unto them, [k] What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 ¶ Now [l] the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

20 ¶ Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, That one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, He [m] that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth [n] as it is written of him: but [o] woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25 Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 ¶ And as they were eating, Jesus [p] took bread, and [1] blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is [q] my body.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

28 For [r] this is my blood [s] of the new testament, which is shed [t] for many for the remission of sins.

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, [u] until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 ¶ And [v] when they had sung an [2] hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

31 Then saith Jesus unto them, All [w] ye shall [x] be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I [y] will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I am risen again, [z] I will go before you into Galilee.

33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

34 Jesus said unto him, [a] Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 ¶ Then [b] cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took with him Peter and [c] the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.

38 Then saith he unto them, [d] My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch [e] with me.

39 And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and [f] prayed, saying, [g] O my Father, if it be possible, [h] let this cup pass from me: nevertheless [i] not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What! could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 Watch [j] and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, Master! [l] and kissed him.

50 And Jesus said unto him, [3] Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

51 And, behold, [m] one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest, and smote off his ear.

52 Then said Jesus unto him,

53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me [p] more than twelve legions of angels?

54 But how then shall [q] the Scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that the [r] scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then [s] all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

57 ¶ And [t] they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death;

60 But found none: yea, though many [u] false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two [v] false witnesses,

61 And said, This fellow said, [w] I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

63 But [x] Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, [y] I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God.

64 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless, I say unto you, [z] Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man [a] sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

65 Then the high priest rent [b] his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.

66 What think ye? They answered and said, [c] He is guilty of death.

67 Then [d] did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and [e] others smote him with [4] the palms of their hands,

68 Saying, [f] Prophesy unto us, thou Christ, Who is he that smote thee?

69 ¶ Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

75 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and [g] wept bitterly.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Christ delivered bound to Pilate. 3 Judas hangeth himself. 27 Christ is mocked, 33 crucified, 39 and reviled. 51 The astonishing events which attended his death, etc.

WHEN the morning was come, all [a] the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death:

2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and [b] delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

3 ¶ Then [c] Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, [d] and departed, and went and hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day.

9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, [e] And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, [1] whom they of the children of Israel did value,

10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

11 ¶ And Jesus stood before the governor: and [f] the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, [g] Thou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, [h] he answered nothing.

13 Then said Pilate unto him, Hearest [i] thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

15 ¶ Now [j] at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therefore, when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ?

18 For he knew that for [k] envy they had delivered him.

19 ¶ When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in [l] a dream because of him.

20 But [m] the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, [n] he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, [o] His blood be on us, and on our children.

26 Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when [p] he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 ¶ Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the [2] common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and [q] put on him a scarlet robe.

29 ¶ And [r] when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

30 And [s] they spit upon him, and took the reed, and [t] smote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, [u] and led him away to crucify him.

32 And [v] as they came out, [w] they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.

33 And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, A place of a skull, 34 They [x] gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, [y] They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.

36 And sitting down they watched him there;

37 And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then [z] were there two thieves crucified with him; one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 ¶ And [a] they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads,

40 And saying, [b] Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the chief priests, mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said,

42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

43 He [c] trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.

44 The [d] thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

45 ¶ Now [e] from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour Jesus [f] cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli! Eli! lama sabachthani? that is to say, [g] My God! my God! why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias.

48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, [h] and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him.

50 ¶ Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

51 And, behold, [i] the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and [j] the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;

52 And the graves were opened; and [k] many bodies of the saints which slept arose,

53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

54 Now [l] when the centurion, and they that were with him watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

55 And many women were there beholding afar off, [m] which followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him:

57 ¶ When [o] the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple:

58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,

60 And [p] laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 ¶ Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that [q] deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After [r] three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch: go your way, make it as sure as ye can.

66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, [s] sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 Christ's resurrection declared; 9 he appeareth to the women, 16 and to his disciples, 18 and sendeth them to teach and baptize.

IN the [a] end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene [b] and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

2 And, behold, there [1] was a great earthquake: for [c] the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 His [d] countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow:

4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, [e] Fear not ye; for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

6 He is not here; for he is risen, as [f] he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he [g] goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy, and did run to bring his disciples word.

9 ¶ And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, [h] Jesus met them, saying, All hail! And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell [i] my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

11 ¶ Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and showed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, 13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.

14 And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you.

15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

16 ¶ Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain [j] where Jesus had appointed them.

17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.

18 And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, [k] All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

19 Go ye therefore, and [2] teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost;

20 Teaching [l] them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

S. MARK.

CHAPTER I.

1 John Baptist's office. 9 Jesus baptized: 12 he is tempted, 14 preacheth, 16 calleth Peter and others, 32 and cureth many.

THE beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, [a] the Son of God;

2 As it is written in the Prophets, Behold, [b] I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3 The [c] voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance [1] for the remission of sins.

5 And there went out unto him all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins.

6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat [d] locusts and wild honey;

7 And preached, saying, [e] There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

8 I [f] indeed have baptized you with water; but he shall baptize you [g] with the Holy Ghost.

9 ¶ And [h] it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan.

10 And [i] straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens [2] opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him:

11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, [j] Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

12 ¶ And [k] immediately the Spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Satan; and was with the wild beasts; [l] and the angels ministered unto him.

14 ¶ Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching [m] the gospel of the kingdom of God,

15 And saying, [n] The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the Gospel.

16 ¶ Now [o] as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon, and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And straightway [p] they forsook their nets, and followed him.

19 And [q] when he had gone a little farther thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.

20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 And [r] they went into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

22 And [s] they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 And [t] there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out,

24 Saying, Let us alone; [u] what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the [v] Holy One of God.

25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit had [w] torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

29 ¶ And [x] forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; [y] and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 ¶ And [z] at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.

34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and [a] suffered not the devils [3] to speak, because they knew him.

35 ¶ And [b] in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and [c] there prayed.

36 And Simon and they that were with him followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

38 And he said unto them, [d] Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for [e] therefore came I forth.

39 And [f] he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and [g] cast out devils.

40 ¶ And [h] there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst [i] make me clean.

41 And Jesus, [j] moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean.

42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.

43 And he straitly charged him, and forthwith sent him away;

44 And saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but [k] go thy way, show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things [k] which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

45 But [l] he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: [m] and they came to him from every quarter.

CHAPTER II.

1 Christ followed by multitudes: 18 excuseth his disciples for not fasting, etc.

AND again [a] he entered into Capernaum after some days; and it was noised that he was in the house.

2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he [b] preached the word unto them.

3 And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four.

4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay.

5 When Jesus [c] saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, [d] Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.

6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? [e] who can forgive sins but God only?

8 And immediately [f] when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 Whether [g] is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?

10 But that ye may know that the [h] Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,)

11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

12 And [i] immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

13 ¶ And [j] he went forth again by the sea-side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

14 And [k] as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alpheus sitting [1] at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

15 And [l] it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when [m] the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?

17 When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, [n] They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

18 ¶ And [o] the disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast: and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not?

19 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of [p] the bridechamber fast while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the [q] bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

21 No man also seweth a piece of [2] new cloth on an old garment; else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.

22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles.

23 ¶ And [r] it came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, [s] to pluck the ears of corn.

24 And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful?

25 And he said unto them, Have ye never read [t] what David did, when he had need, and was an hungered, he, and they that were with him?

26 How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the shewbread, [u] which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him?

27 And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath:

28 Therefore [v] the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

CHAPTER III.

1 Christ healeth the withered hand: 13 he chooseth twelve apostles.

AND [a] he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had a withered hand.

2 And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him.

3 And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, [1] Stand forth.

4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace.

5 And when he had looked round about on them with [b] anger, being grieved for the [2] hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

6 And [c] the Pharisees went forth, and straightway took counsel with [d] the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

7 ¶ But Jesus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, [e] and from Judea,

8 And from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and from beyond Jordan; and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.

9 And he spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him:

10 For he had healed many; insomuch that they [3] pressed upon him for to touch him, as many as had plagues.

11 And [f] unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, [g] Thou art the Son of God.

12 And [h] he straightly charged them that they should not make him known.

13 ¶ And [i] he goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto him whom he would: and they came unto him.

14 And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach,

15 And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils.

16 And Simon [j] he surnamed Peter;

17 And James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James; (and he surnamed them

CHAPTER IV.

1 The parable of the sower: 14 the meaning thereof. 26 Of the seed growing secretly, etc.

AND [a] he began again to teach by the sea-side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, [b] and said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way-side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on good ground, and [c] did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 ¶ And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve [d] asked of him the parable.

11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the [e] mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto [f] them that are without, all these things are done in parables:

12 That [g] seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

14 ¶ The [h] sower soweth the word.

15 And these are they by the way-side, where the word is sown; but, when they have heard, [i] Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have [j] no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word,

19 And the cares of this world, and [k] the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are they which are sown on good [l] ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirty-fold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

21 ¶ And [m] he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under [1] a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?

22 For [n] there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 If [o] any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And he said unto them, [p] Take heed what ye hear: [q] with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you; and unto you that hear shall more be given.

25 For [r] he that hath, to him shall be given; and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26 ¶ And he said, [s] So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is [2] brought forth, immediately [t] he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 ¶ And he said, [u] Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:

33 And [w] with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

35 ¶ And [x] the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose, and [y] rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?

41 And they [z] feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

CHAPTER V.

1 Christ casteth out the legion of devils: 21 Jairus's suit for his daughter: 25 the bloody issue healed, etc.

AND [a] they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.

2 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and [b] worshipped him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 (For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.)

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there, nigh unto the mountains, a great herd of [c] swine feeding.

12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jesus [d] gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand,) and were choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and [e] in his right mind: and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.

17 And [f] they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, he [g] that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and [h] began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel.

21 ¶ And [i] when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea.

22 And, [j] behold, there cometh

one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet,

23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live.

24 And Jesus went with him; and much people followed him, and thronged him.

25 ¶ And a certain woman, which [k] had an issue of blood twelve years,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and [l] was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse,

27 When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, [m] and touched his garment.

28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And [n] straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that [o] virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

34 And he said unto her, Daughter, [p] thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

35 ¶ While [q] he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?

36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be [r] not afraid, only believe.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.

38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but [s] sleepeth.

40 And they laughed him to scorn. But [t] when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise.

42 And [u] straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.

43 And [v] he charged them straitly that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Christ is contemned by his own countrymen. 16 Of John Baptist's imprisonment and death. 34 The miracle of the loaves and fishes, etc.

AND [a] he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him.

2 And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, [b] From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

3 Is [c] not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, [d] the brother of James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they [e] were offended at him.

4 But Jesus said unto them, [f] A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

5 And [g] he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

6 And [h] he marvelled because of their unbelief. [i] And he went round about the villages, teaching.

7 ¶ And [j] he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits;

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no [1] money in their purse:

9 But [k] be shod with sandals; and not put on two coats.

10 And [l] he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place.

11 And [m] whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake [n] off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. [o] Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom [2] and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city.

12 And they went out, and preached that men should repent.

13 And they cast out many devils, [p] and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

14 ¶ And [q] king Herod heard of him; (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do show forth themselves in him.

15 Others [r] said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 But [s] when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife; for he had married her.

18 For John had said unto Herod, It [t] is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.

19 Therefore Herodias had [3] a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:

20 For Herod [u] feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and [4] observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

21 And [v] when a convenient day was come, that Herod, [w] on his birth day, made a supper to his

23 And he sware unto her, Whatsoever [y] thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, [z] The head of John the Baptist.

25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger the head of John the Baptist.

26 And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

27 And immediately the king sent [5] an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison,

32 And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

34 And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and [e] was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and [f] he began to teach them many things.

place, and now the time is far passed:

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, [h] Shall we go and buy two hundred [6] penny-worth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, [i] and two fishes.

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down [7] by companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and [j] blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, and were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.

45 ¶ And [k] straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before [8] unto Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.

46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

47 And [l] when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

48 And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and [m] would have passed by them.

49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out:

50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.

51 And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased:

and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.

52 For [n] they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for [o] their heart was hardened.

53 And [p] when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him,

55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they [q] might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched [9] him were made whole.

CHAPTER VII.

14 Meat defileth not a man. 24 Christ healeth the Syrophenician woman's daughter, 31 and one that was deaf, and stammered in his speech.

THEN [a] came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, which came from Jerusalem.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with [1] defiled (that is to say, with unwashen) hands, they found fault.

3 (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands [2] oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and [3] pots, brazen vessels, and of [4] tables.)

5 Then [b] the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?

6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This [c] people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For, laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, Full well ye [5] reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

10 For Moses said, [d] Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso [e] curseth father or mother, let him die the death:

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is [f] Corban, (that is to say, a gift,) by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free.

12 And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother;

13 Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

14 ¶ And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand:

15 There is [g] nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 If [h] any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And [i] when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him;

19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21 For [j] from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, [6] covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24 ¶ And [k] from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean

30 And when she was come to her house, she found [m] the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 ¶ And [n] again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis.

32 And [o] they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

33 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he [p] spit, and touched his tongue;

34 And, [q] looking up to heaven, he [r] sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

35 And [s] straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And [t] he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it;

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Christ feedeth the people miraculously; 22 giveth a blind man his sight; 27 acknowledgeth that he is Christ who should suffer and rise again, etc.

IN those days [a] the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have [b] compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.

4 And his disciples answered him, From whence [c] can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And [d] he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and [e] gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and he [f] blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

10 ¶ And [g] straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And [h] the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? Verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

13 And he left them, and, entering into the ship again, departed to the other side.

14 ¶ Now [i] the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 And [j] he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is [k] because we have no bread.

17 And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye because ye have no bread? [l] perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou [t] art the Christ.

30 And [u] he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 ¶ And [v] he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about, and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: [w] for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 ¶ And when he had called the people unto him, with his disciples also, he said unto them, [x] Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 For [y] whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the Gospel's, the same shall save it.

36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

38 Whosoever [z] therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

CHAPTER IX.

2 Jesus transfigured: 11 he instructeth his disciples concerning Elias; 14 casteth forth a dumb and deaf spirit; 30 foretelleth his death, etc.

AND he said unto them, [a] Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen [b] the kingdom of God come with power.

2 ¶ And [c] after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding [d] white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them.

4 And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was [e] a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: [f] hear him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9 And [g] as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

11 ¶ And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes [h] that Elias must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and [i] how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and [j] be set at nought.

13 But I say unto you, [k] That Elias is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 ¶ And [l] when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye [1] with them?

17 And [m] one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit:

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he [2] teareth him; and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.

19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? Bring him unto me.

20 And they brought him unto him: and when [n] he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child.

22 And ofttimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 Jesus said unto him, [o] If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; [p] help thou mine unbelief.

25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked [q] the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.

28 And [r] when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing but by prayer and fasting.

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it.

31 For [s] he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33 ¶ And [t] he came to Capernaum: and, being in the house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?

34 But they held their peace: [u] for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.

35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If [v] any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

36 And [w] he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them,

37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and [x] whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ And [y] John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbade him, because he followeth not us.

39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not: [z] for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.

CHAPTER X.

2 Of divorcement. 13 Christ blesseth children; 23 telleth the danger of riches; 46 Blind Bartimeus receiveth sight.

AND [a] he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Judea by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again: and, as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 ¶ And [b] the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him.

3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you?

4 And they said, [c] Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

5 And Jesus answered and said unto them, For [d] the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept:

6 But from the beginning of the creation God [e] made them male and female.

7 For [f] this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;

8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.

11 And he saith unto them, Whosoever [g] shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

13 ¶ And [h] they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for [i] of such is the kingdom of God.

15 Verily I say unto you, [j] Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

16 And [k] he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

17 ¶ And [l] when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?

18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God.

19 Thou knowest the commandments, [m] Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.

20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then Jesus, beholding him, loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell [n] whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure [o] in heaven: and come, take up [p] the cross, and follow me.

42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, [d] Ye know that they which [1]are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 But [e] so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister;

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For even [f] the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to [g] give his life a ransom for many.

46 ¶ And [h] they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimeus, the son of Timeus, sat by the highway-side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou [i] son of David, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal. Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.

50 And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath [2] made thee whole. And immediately [j] he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Christ rideth into Jerusalem; 12 curseth a fruitless fig tree: 27 silenceth the priests who questioned his authority.

AND [a] when they came nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of [b] Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that [c] the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?

6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; [d] and he sat upon him.

8 And [e] many spread their garments in the way; and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, [f] saying, Hosanna! Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord!

10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord! [g] Hosanna in the highest!

11 And [h] Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

12 ¶ And [i] on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry:

13 And [j] seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 ¶ And [k] they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves;

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.

17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, [l] My house shall be called [1] of all nations the house of prayer? but [m] ye have made it a den of thieves.

18 And [n] the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all [o] the people was astonished at his doctrine.

19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.

20 ¶ And [p] in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.

21 And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.

22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, [2] Have faith in God.

23 For [q] verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

24 Therefore I say unto you, What [r] things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

25 And when ye stand praying, forgive, [s] if ye have ought against any; that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

26 But [t] if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

27 ¶ And they come again to Jerusalem: and [u] as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders,

CHAPTER XII.

1 The parable of the vineyard. 13 Touching the paying of tribute. 18 The Sadducees confuted. 35 A difficulty proposed to the scribes, etc.

AND he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted [a] a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the winefat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and [b] killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one son, his [c] well-beloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.

7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is [d] the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 And they took him, and [e] killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will [f] give the vineyard unto others.

10 And have ye not read this scripture; The [g] stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:

11 This was the Lord's doing, and [h] it is marvellous in our eyes?

12 And [i] they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people; for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶ And [j] they send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man; for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cesar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me [1] a penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cesar's.

17 And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Cesar the things that are Cesar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

18 ¶ Then [k] come unto him the Sadducees, which [l] say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,

19 Master, [m] Moses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not [n] the Scriptures, neither [o] the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but [p] are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise; have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I [q] am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

28 ¶ And [r] one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, [s] Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord:

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength. This is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, namely this, Thou [t] shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; [u] and there is none other but he:

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, [v] is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. [w] And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 ¶ And [x] Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the son of David?

36 For David himself said [y] by the Holy Ghost, [z] The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord; and [a] whence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly.

38 ¶ And [b] he said unto them in his doctrine, [c] Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and [d] love salutations in the market-places,

39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts;

40 Which [e] devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation.

41 ¶ And [f] Jesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast [2] money into the [g] treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two [3] mites, which make a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That [h] this poor widow hath cast more in than all they which have cast into the treasury:

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, [i] even all her living.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Christ foretelleth the destruction of the temple: 3 he showeth what signs should go before, 24 and what should happen at the time of his coming: 32 no man knoweth the day or hour; therefore we must watch and pray, lest found unprepared.

AND [a] as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!

2 And Jesus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? [b] there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, over against the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately,

4 Tell [c] us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And Jesus answering them began to say, [d] Take heed lest any man deceive you:

7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the [e]end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles. These are the beginnings of [l]sorrows.

9 ¶ But [f]take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

10 And [g]the Gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 But [h]when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate; but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, [i]but the Holy Ghost.

16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 A conspiracy against Christ: 3 a woman poureth ointment on his head: 10 Judas covenanteth to betray him: 12 he eateth the passover: 22 he instituteth his supper: 66 Peter thrice denieth him, etc.

AFTER [a] two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 ¶ And [b] being in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of [1] spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred [c] pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For [d] ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 ¶ And [e] Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him [f] money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 ¶ And [g] the first day of unleavened bread, when they [2] killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat [h] the passover with my disciples?

15 And he will show you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

17 And [i] in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 The [j] Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 ¶ And [k] as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This is [l] my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.

25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 ¶ And [m] when they had sung an [3] hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

27 And [n] Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, [o] I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 But [p] after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee.

29 But [q] Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.

30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 ¶ And [r] they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while [s] I shall pray.

33 And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

34 And saith unto them, [t] My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

36 And he said, [u] Abba, Father, all [v] things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: [w] nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?

38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. [x] The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, [y] the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise [z] up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 ¶ And [a] immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, [d] Master, master; and [b] kissed him.

46 And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 And [c] Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but the [d] Scriptures must be fulfilled.

50 And [e] they all forsook him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him:

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 ¶ And [f] they led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.

54 And Peter followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

55 And [g] the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jesus to put him to death; and [h] found none:

56 For many bare [i] false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,

58 We heard him say, [j] I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.

59 But neither so did their witness agree together.

60 And [k] the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

61 But [l] he held his peace, and answered nothing. [m] Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?

62 And Jesus said, I am: [n] and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses?

64 Ye have heard the [o] blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

65 And some began to [p] spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophesy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

66 ¶ And [q] as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest:

67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth.

68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew.

69 And [r] a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 And he denied it again. [s] And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: [t] for thou art a Galilean, and thy speech agreeth thereto.

71 But [u] he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.

72 And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And [5] when he thought thereon, he wept.

CHAPTER XV.

1 Jesus is brought bound and accused before Pilate: 6 Pilate, prevailed on by the people, giveth up Jesus to be crucified: 17 he is crowned with thorns, 27 crucified between two thieves: 43 he is honourably buried.

AND [a] straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

2 And [b] Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, [c] Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but [d] he answered nothing.

4 And [e] Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 But [f] Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled.

6 ¶ Now [g] at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude, crying aloud, began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him [h] for envy.

11 But [i] the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.

12 And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call [j] the King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 And so Pilate, [k] willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16 ¶ And the soldiers led him away into the hall called Prætorium; and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head,

18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 And [l] they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander [m] and Rufus, to bear his cross.

22 And [n] they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.

23 And they gave him [o] to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they [p] parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 And [q] it was the third hour, and they crucified him.

26 And [r] the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, [s] And he was numbered with the transgressors.

29 ¶ And [t] they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah! thou [u] that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days,

30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross.

31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. [v] And they that were crucified with him reviled him.

33 ¶ And [w] when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, [x] Eloi! Eloi! lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God! my God! why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elias.

36 And [y] one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and [z] gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether Elias will come to take him down.

37 And [a] Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.

38 And [b] the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

39 ¶ And [c] when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.

40 There [d] were also women looking on afar [e] off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary 43 Joseph of Arimathea, an honourable counsellor, which [h] also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus.

44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and, calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.

46 And [i] he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 An angel declareth the resurrection of Christ to three women; 9 he appeareth to Mary Magdalene, 12 to two of his disciples going into the country, 14 and to the eleven, whom he commissioneth to preach the Gospel to all the world: 19 his ascension into heaven; the Gospel is preached.

AND [a] when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, [b] had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 And [c] very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

5 And [d] entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.

6 And [e] he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is [f] risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, [g] as he said unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: neither [h] said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

9 ¶ Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, [i] he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out [j] of whom he had cast seven devils.

10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And [k] they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.

12 ¶ After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them.

2 Even [b] as they delivered them unto us, which [c] from the beginning were eye-witnesses, and ministers of the word;

3 It [d] seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee [e] in order, [f] most excellent Theophilus,

4 That [g] thou mightest know the certainty of those things, wherein thou hast been instructed.

5 ¶ THERE was, [h] in the days of Herod the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, [i] of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.

6 And they were both [j] righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

7 And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren; and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to pass, that, while he executed the priest's office before God [k] in the order of his course,

9 According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was [l] to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 And [m] the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he [n] was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for [o] thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth.

15 For he shall be [p] great in the sight of the Lord, and [q] shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, [r] even from his mother's womb.

16 And [s] many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 And [t] he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient [1] to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the [u] Lord.

18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, [v] Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am [w] Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to show thee these glad tidings.

20 And, behold, [x] thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people [y] waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple; for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as the [z] days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to [a] take away my reproach among men.

26 ¶ And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth,

27 To a [b] virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail! thou that art [2] highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women!

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.

31 And, [c] behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.

32 He shall be [d] great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and [e] the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:

33 And [f] he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the [g] Son of God.

36 And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37 For [h] with God nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39 ¶ And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, [i] into a city of Juda;

40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.

41 And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled [j] with the Holy Ghost;

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, [k] Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that

CHAPTER II.

1 Augustus taxeth the Roman empire. 6 Christ's nativity: 21 his circumcision: 46 he questioneth the doctors, etc.

AND it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Cesar Augustus, that all the world should be [1] taxed.

2 (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto [a] the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, (because [b] he was of the house and lineage of David,)

5 To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And [c] she brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a [d] manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 ¶ And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping [2] watch over their flock by night.

9 And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not; for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, [e] which shall be to all people.

11 For [f] unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ [g] the Lord.

12 And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 And [h] suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth [i] peace, [j] good will toward men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, [3] the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 ¶ And [k] when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called [l] JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when [m] the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord;

23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every [n] male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)

24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtle doves, or two young pigeons.

25 And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, [o] waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Ghost was upon him.

26 And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not [p] see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27 And he came by [q] the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law,

28 Then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,

29 Lord, [r] now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word:

30 For mine eyes [s] have seen thy salvation,

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

32 A [t] light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

34 And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the [u] fall and rising again of many in Israel: and for [v] a sign which shall be spoken against;

35 (Yea, [w] a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that the [x] thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

36 And there was one Anna, [y] a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity;

37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers [z] night and day.

38 And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that [a] looked for redemption in [4] Jerusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.

40 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon him.

41 ¶ Now his parents went to Jerusalem every [b] year at the feast of the passover.

42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast.

43 And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it.

44 But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.

46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, [c] both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And [d] all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

CHAPTER III.

1 John's preaching and baptism: 15 his testimony of Christ. 21 Christ is baptized: 23 his genealogy.

NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene,

2 Annas [a] and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.

3 And [b] he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance [c] for the remission of sins;

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, saying, [d] The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

6 And [e] all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, [f] O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring [g] forth therefore fruits [1] worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

9 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: [h] every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, What [i] shall we do then?

11 He answereth and saith unto them, He [j] that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then [k] came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

13 And he said unto them, [l] Exact no more than that which is appointed you.

14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, [2] Do violence to no man, neither [m] accuse any falsely; and be content with your [3] wages.

15 ¶ And as the people were [4] in expectation, and all men [5] mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ, or not;

16 John answered, saying unto them all, I [n] indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with [o] the Holy Ghost and with fire:

17 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and [p] will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

18 And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people.

19 ¶ But [q] Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, 20 Added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison.

21 ¶ Now when all the people were baptized, [r] it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened,

22 And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came [s] from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

23 ¶ And Jesus himself began to be [t] about thirty years of age, being (as was supposed) the [u] son of Joseph, which was the [6] son of Heli,

24 Which was the son of Matthat,

CHAPTER IV.

1 Christ's temptation and fasting: 13 he, overcoming the devil, 14 beginneth to preach: 16 the people at Nazareth admire him; 33 he cureth one possessed of a devil, etc.

AND [a] Jesus, being full of the Holy Ghost, returned from Jordan, and [b] was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,

2 Being forty days [c] tempted of the devil. And [d] in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.

3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 And Jesus answered him, saying, [e] It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

5 And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, showed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for [f] that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it.

7 If thou therefore wilt [1] worship me, all shall be thine.

8 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: [g] for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 And [h] he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, [i] cast thyself down from hence:

10 For [j] it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee;

11 And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jesus answering said unto him, [k] It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he [l] departed from him [m] for a season.

14 ¶ And [n] Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into [o] Galilee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being [p] glorified of all.

16 ¶ And he came to [q] Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, [r] he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 The [s] Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised,

19 To preach the [t] acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, and [u] wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, [v] Is not this Joseph's son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in [w] Capernaum, do also here in thy [x] country.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet [y] is accepted in his own country.

25 But I tell you of a truth, many [z] widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;

26 But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 And [a] many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.

28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath,

29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the [2] brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.

30 But he [b] passing through the midst of them went his way,

31 And [c] came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath days.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: [d] for his word was with power.

33 ¶ And [e] in the synagogue there was a man which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice,

34 Saying, [3] Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; [f] the Holy One of God.

35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 And [g] the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 ¶ And [h] he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, [i] and rebuked the fever; and it left her. And immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

40 ¶ Now [j] when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 And [k] devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ, the Son of God. And [l] he, rebuking them, suffered them not [4] to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

42 And [m] when it was day, he departed and went into a desert place; and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed

CHAPTER V.

1 Christ teacheth out of Peter's ship. 4 A miraculous draught of fishes. 12 A leper cleansed. 18 The palsy healed. 27 Levi called from the receipt of custom.

AND [a] it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret,

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, [b] Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Simon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart [c] from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also James and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from [d] henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, [e] they forsook all, and followed him.

12 ¶ And [f] it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy; who, seeing Jesus, fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst [g] make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 And [h] he charged him to tell no man: but go, and show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, [i] according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great [j] multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 And [k] he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 ¶ And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 ¶ And, [l] behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the house-top, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jesus.

20 And when he saw their [m] faith, he said unto him, Man, [n] thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 And [o] the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? [p] Who can forgive sins but God alone?

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the [q] Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go unto thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, [r] glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to-day.

27 ¶ And [s] after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 And [t] Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and [u] there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.

32 I [v] came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ And they said unto him, Why [w] do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bride-chamber fast while the [x] bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall [y] be taken away from them, and then shall they [z] fast in those days.

36 ¶ And [a] he spake also a parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old: if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new; for he saith, The old is better.

fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, [b] Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days?

3 And Jesus answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, [c] what David did, when himself was an hungered, and they which were with him;

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the showbread, and gave also to them that were him; [d] which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

6 ¶ And [e] it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But he [f] knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; [g] Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12 ¶ And [h] it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

13 And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: [i] and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named Apostles;

14 Simon, (j whom he also named Peter,) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew,

16 And Judas [k] the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor.

17 And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, [l] and a great multitude of people out of all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought [m] to touch him: for [n] there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, [o] Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God.

21 Blessed [p] are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. [q] Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

22 Blessed [r] are ye when men shall hate you, and when they [s] shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

23 Rejoice [t] ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for [u] in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

24 But [v] woe unto you that are rich! for ye [w] have received your consolation.

25 Woe [x] unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. [y] Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.

26 Woe [z] unto you when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 ¶ But [a] I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you,

28 Bless them that curse you, and pray [b] for them which despitefully use you.

29 And [c] unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; [d] and him that taketh away thy cloak forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 Give [e] to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

31 And [f] as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32 For [g] if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

34 And [h] if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and [i] lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and [j] ye shall be the children of the Highest: for [k] he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

36 Be [l] ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

37 Judge [m] not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:

38 Give, [n] and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your [o] bosom. For [p] with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.

39 And he spake a parable unto them: Can [q] the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

40 The [r] disciple is not above his master: but every one [1] that is perfect shall be as his master.

41 And [s] why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, [t] cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

43 For [u] a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

44 For every [v] tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they [2] grapes.

45 A [w] good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 ¶ And [x] why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

47 Whosoever [y] cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will show you to whom he is like:

48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when [z] the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it; for it was founded upon [a] a rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and [b] the ruin of that house was great.

[1] this man.

CHAPTER VII.

1 The centurion's faith; 10 Christ healeth his servant, being absent; 11 raiseth the widow's son. 24 Christ's testimony of John. 36 Mary Magdalene anointeth Christ's feet.

NOW when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

2 And [a] a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself; for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof:

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers; and I say unto [1] one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jesus heard these things he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in [b] Israel.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he [c] had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the [2] bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, [d] Arise.

15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

16 And [e] there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, That [f] a great prophet is risen up among us; and, [g] That God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judea, and throughout all the region round about.

18 ¶ And [h] the disciples of John showed him of all these things.

19 And John calling unto him two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou [i] he that should come? or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

21 And in the same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

22 Then [j] Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; [k] how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, [l] to the poor the Gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 ¶ And [m] when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he of whom it is written, [n] Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, [o] being baptized with the baptism of John.

30 But the Pharisees and lawyers [3] rejected [p] the counsel of God [4] against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, [q] Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the market-place, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For [r] John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

35 But [s] Wisdom is justified of all her children.

36 ¶ And [t] one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat.

37 And, behold, a [u] woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment,

38 And stood at his feet behind him [v] weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, [w] This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him; for she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred [x] pence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly [y] forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no [z] water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no [a] kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 My [b] head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore [c] I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

48 And he said unto her, [d] Thy sins are forgiven.

49 And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves, [e] Who is this that forgiveth sins also?

50 And he said to the woman, Thy [f] faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him,

2 And [a] certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, [b] out of whom went seven devils,

3 And Joanna the wife of Chuza Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.

4 ¶ And [c] when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way-side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundred-fold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 ¶ And [d] his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; [e] that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 Now [f] the parable is this: The [g] seed is the word of God.

12 Those by [h] the way-side are they that hear; then cometh [i] the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares [j] and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and [k] bring forth fruit with patience.

16 ¶ No [k] man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 For [m] nothing is secret that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid that shall not be known and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: [n] for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he [l] seemeth to have.

19 ¶ Then [o] came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certain, which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 ¶ Now [p] it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish! Then he [q] arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they being [r] afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶ And [s] they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jesus, he [t] cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out [u] into the deep.

32 And there was there an [v] herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And [w] he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, [x] and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

37 ¶ Then [y] the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about besought [z] him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear. And he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now [a] the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying,

39 Return to thine own house, and show how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that, when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶ And, [b] behold there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a-dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

43 ¶ And [c] a woman, having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and [d] touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanched.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that [e] virtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace.

49 ¶ While [f] he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe [g] only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter and James and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, [h] but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, [i] arise.

55 And [j] her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished: but he [k] charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Christ sendeth out his apostles: 7 Herod is desirous to see him. 12 Christ feedeth five thousand: 28 his transfiguration: 37 he healeth a lunatic, etc.

THEN [a] he called his twelve disciples together, and [b] gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And [c] he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And [d] he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

4 And [e] whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And [f] whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake [g] off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

6 And [h] they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the Gospel, and healing every where.

7 ¶ Now [i] Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead;

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this of whom I hear such things? And [j] he desired to see him.

10 ¶ And [k] the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And [l] he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

12 ¶ And [m] when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said unto them, [n] Give ye them to eat. And they said, We [o] have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 (For they were about five thousand men.) And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they [p] did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

18 ¶ And [q] it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answering said, [r] John the Baptist; but some say, Elias; and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? [s] Peter answering said, The Christ of God.

21 And [t] he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing;

22 Saying, [u] The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23 ¶ And [v] he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 For [w] what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

26 For [x] whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 But [y] I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 ¶ And [z] it came to pass, about an eight days after these [1] sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, [a] the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and [b] Elias;

31 Who appeared in [c] glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter and they that were with him were [d] heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, [e] This is my beloved Son: hear [f] him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. [g] And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 ¶ And [h] it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son; for he is mine only child:

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and, bruising him, hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.

41 And Jesus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation! how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a-coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 ¶ And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But, while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples, 46 ¶ Then [k] there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him,

48 And said unto them, [l] Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me; and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: [m] for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 And [n] John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: [o] for he that is not against us is for us.

51 ¶ And it came to pass, when the time was come that [p] he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem,

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, I [w] will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell which are at home at my house.

62 And Jesus said unto him, [x] No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

CHAPTER X.

1 Christ sendeth out seventy disciples. 13 Woes against Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum. 38 Mary commended, etc.

AFTER these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and [a] sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

2 Therefore said he unto them, The [b] harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: [c] pray ye therefore the [d] Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 Go your ways: [e] behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

4 Carry [f] neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and [g] salute no man by the way.

5 And [h] into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 And [i] in the same house remain, eating [j] and drinking such things as they give: for the [k] labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not [l] from house to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:

9 And [m] heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, [n] The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,

11 Even [o] the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

12 But I say unto you, That [p] it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.

13 Woe [q] unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! [r] for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which have been done in you, they had a great while ago [s] repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, than for you.

15 And [t] thou, Capernaum, which art exalted [u] to heaven, [v] shalt be thrust down to hell.

16 He [w] that heareth you heareth me; and he [x] that despiseth you despiseth me; [y] and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me.

17 ¶ And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.

18 And he said unto them. [z] I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.

19 Behold, [a] I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your [b] names are written in heaven.

21 ¶ In [c] that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from [d] the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 [1] All things [e] are delivered to me of my Father: and [f] no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

23 ¶ And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed [g] are the eyes which see the things that ye see:

24 For I tell you, [h] that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

25 ¶ And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, [i] Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

26 He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?

27 And he answering said, [j] Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and [k] thy neighbour as thyself.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, [l] and thou shalt live.

29 But he, willing to [m] justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, [n] he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain [o] Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow, when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him: and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

37 And he said, He that showed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

38 ¶ Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word.

40 But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to

CHAPTER XI.

1 Christ teacheth to pray: 14 he casteth out a dumb devil: 27 he showeth who are truly blessed: 29 he preacheth to the people, 37 and reproveth the Pharisees' outward show of holiness, etc.

AND it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, [a] teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, [b] Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. [c] Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

3 Give us [1] day by day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us our sins: for [d] we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And [e] lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine [2] in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, [f] Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 And [g] I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

11 If [h] a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he [3] offer him a scorpion?

13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy [i] Spirit to them that ask him?

14 ¶ And [j] he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered.

15 But [some of them said, [k] He casteth out devils through [4] Beelzebub the chief of the devils.

16 And others, tempting him, sought [l] of him a sign from heaven.

17 But [m] he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth.

18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub.

19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do [n] your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 But if I [o] with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 When [p] a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:

22 But [q] when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

23 He [r] that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth.

24 When [s] the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and [t] the last state of that man is worse than the first.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, [u] Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

28 But he said, Yea [v] rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

29 ¶ And [w] when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas the prophet.

30 For as [x] Jonas was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.

31 The [y] queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a [z] greater than Solomon is here.

32 The men of Nineve shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for [a] they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here.

33 No [b] man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a [c] bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

34 The [d] light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when [5] the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

37 ¶ And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat.

38 And [e] when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.

39 And [f] the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but [g] your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also?

41 But [h] rather give alms [6] of such things as ye have; and, behold, all things are clean unto you.

42 But [i] woe unto you, Pharisees! for [j] ye tithe mint and rue, and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

43 Woe [k] unto you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 Woe [l] unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [m] for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

45 Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.

46 And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! [n] for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Woe [o] unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for [p] they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said the [q] wisdom of God, [r] I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute:

50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;

51 From [s] the blood of Abel, unto the blood of Zacharias, which perished between the altar and the temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.

52 Woe [t] unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye enter not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye [7] hindered.

53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things;

54 Laying wait for him, [u] and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

CHAPTER XII.

1 To avoid hypocrisy. 13 To beware of covetousness. 41 The faithful and wise steward. 49 Of divisions on account of the Gospel.

IN [a] the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, [b] Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

2 For [c] there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the house-tops.

4 And [d] I say unto you, my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath [e] power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two [f] farthings? and [g] not one of them is forgotten before God:

7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

8 Also [h] I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God:

9 But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.

10 And [i] whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven.

11 And [j] when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:

12 For [k] the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

13 ¶ And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

14 And he said unto him, [l] Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?

15 And he said unto them, [m] Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, [n] thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night [1] thy soul shall be required of thee: then [o] whose shall those things be which thou hast provided?

21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, [p] and is not rich toward God.

22 ¶ And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take [q] no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24 Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and [r] God feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls?

25 And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to-day in the field, and to-morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, [2] neither be ye of doubtful mind.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after:

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Christ preacheth repentance by the calamity upon the Galileans and others. 6 The fruitless fig tree cursed. 11 He healeth the crooked woman. 18 Parable of the grain of mustard seed, and of the leaven. 24 The strait gate.

THERE were present at that season some that told him [a] of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose [b] ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were [1] sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem?

5 I tell you, Nay: but, except [c] ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable; [d] A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three [e] years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let [f] it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well; and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 ¶ And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

11 And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.

12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 And [g] he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered [h] with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, [i] There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and [j] not on the sabbath day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, [k] doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman, being [l] a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 ¶ Then [m] said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20 ¶ And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in [n] three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 And [o] he went through the cities and villages, teaching and journeying toward Jerusalem.

23 ¶ Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them,

24 [2] Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for [p] many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When [q] once the Master of the house is risen up, and [r] hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, [s] Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, [t] I know you not whence ye are:

26 Then shall ye begin to say, We [u] have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 But [v] he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are: depart [w] from me, all ye workers of iniquity.

28 There [x] shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, [y] when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and

AND it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath day, that they watched him.

2 And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy.

3 And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, [a] Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go:

5 And answered them, saying, Which [b] of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day?

6 And they could not answer him again to these things.

7 ¶ And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,

8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

9 And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10 But [c] when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11 For [d] whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 ¶ Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call [e] the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:

14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed [f] at the resurrection of the just.

15 ¶ And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, [g] Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

16 Then [h] said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:

17 And [i] sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.

18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, [j] I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant came, and showed his lord these things. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, Go [k] out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, [l] and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

24 For I say unto you, [m] That none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

25 ¶ And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them,

26 If [n] any man come to me, [o] and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, [p] yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.

27 And [q] whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

28 For [r] which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it?

29 Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him,

30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.

31 Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?

32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth [s] an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoever [t] he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

CHAPTER XV.

1 The parable of the lost sheep: 8 of the piece of silver: 11 of the prodigal son.

THEN [a] drew near unto him all the publicans and [b] sinners for to hear him.

2 And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and [c] eateth with them.

3 ¶ And he spake this parable unto them, saying,

4 What [d] man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he [e] lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep [f] which was lost.

7 I say unto you, That likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, [g] more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

8 ¶ Either what woman, having ten [1] pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise, I say unto you, There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

11 ¶ And he said, A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them [h] his living.

13 And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into [i] a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough, and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will [j] arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, [k] I have sinned against Heaven, and before thee,

19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But [l] when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against Heaven, [m] and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth [n] the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry:

24 For [o] this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they [p] began to be merry.

25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing.

26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

28 And [q] he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and entreated him.

29 And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment; and [r] yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:

30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 The parable of the unjust steward. 14 Christ reproveth the hypocrisy of the covetous Pharisees. 19 The rich glutton, and Lazarus the beggar.

AND he said also unto his disciples, There was a [a] certain rich man which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an [b] account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred [1] measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred [2] measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than [c] the children of light.

9 And I say unto you, [d] Make to yourselves friends of the [3] mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 He [e] that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much; and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous [4] mammon, who will commit to your trust the [f] true riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 No [g] servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

14 ¶ And the Pharisees also, who [h] were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which [i] justify yourselves before men; but God [j] knoweth your hearts: for [k] that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

16 The [l] Law and the Prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

17 And [m] it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the Law to fail.

18 Whosoever [n] putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery.

19 ¶ There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:

20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, [o] full of sores,

21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and [p] was carried by the angels into Abraham's [q] bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;

23 And in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

24 And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and [r] cool my tongue; for I [s] am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, Son, [t] remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham saith unto him, They have [v] Moses and the Prophets; let them hear them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the Prophets, [w] neither will they be persuaded though one rose from the dead.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Christ teacheth to avoid occasions of offence, 3 to forgive one another. 6 The power of faith. 11 He healeth ten lepers. 22 Of the kingdom of God, and the coming of the Son of man, etc.

THEN said he unto the disciples, [a] It is impossible but that offences will come: but [b] woe unto him through whom they come!

2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

3 ¶ Take heed to yourselves: [c] If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke [d] him; and if he repent, forgive [e] him.

4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 ¶ And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 And [f] the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

7 But which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, [g] and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?

9 Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are [h] unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, [i] as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which [j] stood afar off.

13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, [k] Go show yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice [l] glorified God,

16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was [m] a Samaritan.

17 And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?

18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.

19 And [n] he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 ¶ And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not [1] with observation:

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the [o] kingdom of God is [2] within you.

22 ¶ And he said unto the disciples, [p] The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 And [q] they shall say to you, See here! or, see there! go [r] not after them, nor follow them.

24 For as the lightning, that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also [s] the Son of man be in his day.

25 But [t] first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation.

26 And [u] as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 Likewise [v] also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

29 But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man [w] is revealed.

31 In that day, he [x] which shall be upon the house-top, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 Remember [y] Lot's wife.

33 Whosoever [z] shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it.

34 I [a] tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 [3] Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

37 And they answered and said unto him, [b] Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 The importunate widow. 9 The Pharisee and publican. 15 Children brought to Christ. 28 All to be left for the Gospel's sake. 31 He foreshoweth his death.

AND he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought [a] always to pray, and not to faint;

2 Saying, There was [1] in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man:

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

5 Yet [b] because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And [c] shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you [d] that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9 ¶ And he spake this parable unto certain [e] which trusted in themselves [2] that they were righteous, and despised others:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

11 The Pharisee [f] stood and prayed thus with himself, [g] God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the publican, [h] standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: [i] for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 ¶ And [j] they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, [k] Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for [l] of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein.

18 ¶ And [m] a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jesus said unto him,

Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God.

20 Thou knowest the commandments, [n] Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, [o] Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell [p] all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, [q] How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, [r] The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.

28 ¶ Then [s] Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, [t] There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake,

30 Who [u] shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and [v] in the world to come life everlasting.

31 ¶ Then [w] he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things [x] that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

32 For [y] he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on:

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again.

34 And [z] they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

35 ¶ And [a] it came to pass, that, as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way-side begging:

36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.
37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by.
38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me!
39 And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Thou son of David, have mercy on me!
40 And Jesus [b] stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him,
41 Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.
42 And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: [c] thy faith hath saved thee.
43 And immediately [d] he received his sight, and followed him, [e] glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 Of Zaccheus the publican. 11 The ten pieces of money. 28 Christ rideth into Jerusalem: 41 weepeth over it: 45 driveth the buyers and sellers out of the temple, etc.

AND Jesus entered and passed through [a] Jericho.
2 And, behold, there was a man named Zaccheus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.
3 And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.
4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.
5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him; and said unto him, Zaccheus, make haste, and come down; for to-day I must abide at thy house.
6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.
7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, [b] That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.
8 And Zaccheus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by [c] false accusation, I [d] restore him fourfold.
9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house,

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten [1] pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.
14 But [i] his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.
15 And it came to pass, that, when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the [2] money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.
16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.
17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been [j] faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.
18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.
19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.
20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:
21 For [k] I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.
22 And he saith unto him, [l] Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. [m] Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow:
23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?
24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say unto you, [n] That unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 And when he had thus spoken, he [o] went before, ascending up to Jerusalem.

29 ¶ And [p] it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,

30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because [q] the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jesus: [r] and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

36 And [s] as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen,

38 Saying, [t] Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: [u] peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, [v] the stones would immediately cry out.

42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall [x] cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side,

45 And [b] he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;

46 Saying unto them, [c] It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but [d] ye have made it a den of thieves.

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the [e] chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him,

48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people [3] were very attentive to hear him.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Christ silenceth those who questioned his authority. 9 The parable of the vineyard. 27 The Sadducees confuted.

AND [a] it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the Gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders,

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, by what [b] authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:

4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: [c] for they be persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, That [d] they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jesus said unto them,

Neither [e] tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable: [f] A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season [g] he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And [h] again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send [i] my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is [j] the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and [k] killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, The [l] stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

18 Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; [m] but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 ¶ And [n] they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, [o] Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God [1] truly:

22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cesar, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Show me a [p] penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cesar's.

25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cesar the things which be Cesar's, and unto God the things which be God's.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ Then [q] came to him certain of the Sadducees, [r] which deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him,

28 Saying, Master, [s] Moses wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But they which shall be [t] accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 Neither can they die any more: for they [u] are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, [v] being the children of the resurrection.

37 Now, that the dead are raised, even [w] Moses showed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

38 For [x] he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for [y] all live unto him.

39 Then certain of the scribes answering said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that they durst not ask him any question at all.

42 And David himself saith in the book of Psalms, [a] The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 44 David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?

45 ¶ Then, [b] in the audience of all the people, he said unto his disciples,

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Christ commendeth the poor widow. 5 He foretelleth the destruction of the temple, and of the city of Jerusalem: 25 the signs also which shall be before the last day, etc.

4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

5 ¶ And [c] as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said,

7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?

8 And he said, [e] Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; [1] and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.

9 But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by.

10 Then [f] said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:

11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven.

12 But [g] before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into [h] prisons, being [i] brought before kings and rulers [j] for my name's sake.

13 And [k] it shall turn to you for a testimony.

14 Settle [l] it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer:

15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, [m] which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.

16 And [n] ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; [o] and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

17 And [p] ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake.

18 But there shall not an hair of your head perish.

19 In your patience possess ye your souls.

20 And [q] when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21 Then let them which are in Judea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.

22 For these be the days of vengeance, that [r] all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, [s] until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

25 ¶ And [t] there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;

26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: [u] for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Son of man coming [v] in a cloud, with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.

29 And [w] he spake to them a parable; Behold the fig tree, and all the trees;

30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand.

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away till all be fulfilled.

33 Heaven and earth shall pass away; but my words shall not pass away.

34 ¶ And [z] take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

35 For [y] as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 Watch [z] ye therefore, [a] and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and [b] to stand before the Son of man.

37 And [c] in the day-time he was teaching in the temple; and [d] at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives.

38 And all the people came early in the morning to him [e] in the temple, for to hear him.

2 And [b] the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

3 ¶ Then [c] entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and [d] covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them [1] in the absence of the multitude.

7 ¶ Then [e] came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

12 And he shall show you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

14 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, [2] With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, [f] until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:

18 For [g] I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

19 ¶ And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body, which is given for you: this [h] do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, [i] This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 ¶ But, [j] behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

22 And truly the Son of man goeth, as [k] it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

23 And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 ¶ And [l] there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 And [m] he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.

26 But [n] ye shall not be so: [o] but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but [p] I am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they which have continued with me in [q] my temptations.

29 And [r] I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;

30 That [s] ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, [t] and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, [u] Satan hath desired to have you, that he may [v] sift you as wheat:

32 But [w] I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: [x] and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.

34 And [y] he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 ¶ And [z] he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And [a] he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 ¶ And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him.

40 And [b] when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed,

42 Saying, Father, if thou be [3] willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless [c] not my will, but thine, be done.

43 And there appeared [d] an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 And [e] being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow,

46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus [f] to kiss him.

48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

50 ¶ And [g] one of them smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: [h] but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 ¶ Then [i] took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. [j] And Peter followed afar off.

55 And [k] when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And, [l] after a little while, another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after, another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him; for he is a Galilean.

60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. [m] And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the [n] cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Peter went out, and wept [o] bitterly.

63 ¶ And [p] the men that held Jesus mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophesy, who is it that smote thee?

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 ¶ And [q] as soon as it was day, the [r] elders of the people, and the chief priests, and the scribes, came together, and led him into their council,

67 Saying, Art [s] thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe:

68 And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 Hereafter [t] shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.

71 And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 Jesus is accused before Pilate, 7 and sent to Herod: 11 he is mocked, and sent back to Pilate: 25 he is delivered to be crucified, 34 prayeth for his enemies, etc.

AND [a] the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow [b] perverting the nation, and [c] forbidding to give tribute to Cesar, saying [d] that he himself is Christ a king.

3 And [e] Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, [f] I find no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto [g] Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time.

8 ¶ And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for [h] he was desirous to see him of a long season, because [i] he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 And [j] Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

12 ¶ And the same day [k] Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 ¶ And [l] Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have [m] found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

16 I [n] will therefore chastise him, and release him.

17 (For [o] of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.)

18 And [p] they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas:

19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.)

20 Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified: and the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed.

24 And Pilate [1] gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And [q] he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

26 ¶ And [r] as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.

27 And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jesus, turning unto them, said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

29 For, [s] behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 Then [t] shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

31 For [u] if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 ¶ And [v] there were also two others, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

33 And [w] when they were come to the place which is called [2] Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 Then said Jesus, Father, [x] forgive them; for [y] they know not what they do. And [z] they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And [a] the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God.

36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, 37 And saying, If thou be the King of the Jews, save thyself.

38 And [b] a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 ¶ And [c] one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.

40 But the other answering [d] rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

42 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into [e] thy kingdom.

43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in [f] paradise.

44 ¶ And [g] it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the [3] earth until the ninth hour.

45 And the sun was darkened, and [h] the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, [i] Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: [j] and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

47 ¶ Now [k] when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And [l] all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.

49 And [l] all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

50 ¶ And, [m] behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a just:

51 (The same [n] had not consented to the counsel and deed of them:) he was of Arimathea, a city of the Jews: [o] who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.

52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

53 And [p] he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in [q] a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55 ¶ And the women also, [r] which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld [s] the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and [t] prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day, [u] according to the commandment.

CHAPTER XXIV.

Christ's resurrection and ascension.

NOW [a] upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the [b] spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And [c] they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, [d] two men stood by them in shining garments:

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye [1] the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember [e] how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And [f] they remembered his words,

9 And [g] returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, and [h] Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

12 Then [i] arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

13 ¶ And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.

14 And they [j] talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, [k] Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.

16 But [l] their eyes were holden that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

18 And the one of them, [m] whose name was Cleopas, answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which [n] was a prophet [o] mighty in deed and word before God and all the people:

20 And [p] how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted [q] that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and besides all this, to-day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre;

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken!

26 Ought [r] not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And beginning at [s] Moses and all the [t] Prophets, he expounded unto them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village whither they went: and [u] he made as though he would have gone farther.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us; for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he [2] vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the Scriptures?

33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath [v] appeared to Simon.

35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he showed them his hands and his feet.

41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honey-comb.

43 And [w] he took it, and did eat before them.

44 And he said unto them, [x] These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the law of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalms, concerning me.

45 Then [y] opened he their understanding, that they might understand the Scriptures,

46 And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day:

47 And that repentance and [z] remission of sins should be preached in his name among [a] all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

48 And ye are witnesses of these things.

49 ¶ And, [b] behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.

50 ¶ And he led them out as far as to Bethany; and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.

51 And [c] it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.

52 And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy:

53 And were continually [c] in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

S. JOHN.

CHAPTER I.

The divinity and incarnation of Christ.

IN the beginning was [a] the Word, and the Word was [b] with God, and [c] the Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

5 And [d] the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

[c] Isaiah 9, 6. chap. 10, 30. Phil. 2, 6. Titus 2, 13.
[d] ch. 3, 19.

6 ¶ There [e] was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He [f] was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9 That [g] was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and [h] the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 He [i] came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But [j] as many as received him, to them gave he [1] power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, [k] but of God.

14 And [l] the Word [m] was made [n] flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we [o] beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full [p] of grace and truth.

15 ¶ John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for [q] he was before me.

16 And of his [r] fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For the [s] Law was given by Moses, [t] but grace and [u] truth came by Jesus Christ.

18 No [v] man hath seen God at any time; the [w] only begotten Son, which is in [x] the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou [y] Elias? And he saith, [z] I am not. Art thou [2] that prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said [a] the prophet Esaias.

24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

[5] That was two hours before night.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?

26 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: [b] but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

27 He it is, who coming after me, is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 ¶ The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold [c] the Lamb of God, [d] which [3] taketh away the sin of the world!

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the [e] same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

35 ¶ Again, the next day after, John stood, and two of his disciples;

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where [4] dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was [5] about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother [f] Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, [6] the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is, by interpretation, [7] A stone.

43 ¶ The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now [g] Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth [h] Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him of whom Moses [i] in the Law, and the [j] Prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth the son of Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!

48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the [k] King of Israel.

50 Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [l] Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon [m] the Son of man.

CHAPTER II.

1 Christ turneth water into wine, 12 goeth into Capernaum, and to Jerusalem, 14 purgeth the temple, 19 foretelleth his death and resurrection, etc.

AND the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there:

2 And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jesus saith unto her, [a] Woman, what [b] have I to do with thee? mine [c] hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there were set there six water-pots of stone, [d] after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the [e] water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was, (but the servants which drew the water knew,) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Jesus in [f] Cana of Galilee, [g] and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

12 ¶ After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and [h] his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

13 ¶ And [i] the Jews' passover was at hand; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,

14 And [j] found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:

15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make [k] not my Father's house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, [l] The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 ¶ Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign showest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy [m] this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, [o] his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the Scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 ¶ Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

CHAPTER III.

1 Christ teacheth Nicodemus the necessity of regeneration. 23 The baptism and witness of John concerning Christ.

THERE was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for [a] no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except [b] God be with him.

3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, [c] Except a man be born [1] again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, [d] Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born [2] again.

8 The [e] wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, [f] How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen: and ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And [g] no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

14 And [h] as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up;

15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

16 For [i] God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 For [j] God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

18 He that believeth on him [k] is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that [l] light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be [3] reproved.

21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 ¶ After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea; and there he tarried with them, [m] and baptized.

23 And John also was baptizing in Ænon near to [n] Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 For [o] John was not yet cast into prison.

25 ¶ Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying.

26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, [p] to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 John answered and said, [q] A man can [4] receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but [r] that I am sent before him.

29 He [s] that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but [t] the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. This my joy therefore is fulfilled.

30 He [u] must increase, but [v] I must decrease.

31 He [w] that cometh from above is [x] above all: [y] he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: [z] he that cometh from heaven is above all.

32 And [a] what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony.

33 He that hath received his testimony hath [b] set to his seal that God is true.

34 For [c] he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit [d] by measure unto him.

35 The [e] Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand.

36 He [f] that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but [g] the wrath of God abideth on him.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Christ revealeth himself to a woman of Samaria: 31 his zeal for God's glory. 39 Many Samaritans believe on him. 43 He healeth the ruler's son.

WHEN therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John,

2 (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

3 He left Judea, and departed again into Galilee.

4 And he must needs go through Samaria.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground [a] that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)

9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for [b] the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest [c] the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee [d] living water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

14 But [e] whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him [f] shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

15 The [g] woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, [h] I perceive that thou art a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped [i] in this mountain; and ye say, that in [j] Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when [k] ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

22 Ye worship [l] ye know not what: we know what we worship: for [m] salvation is of the Jews.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in [n] spirit and in [o] truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 God [p] is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that [q] Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 Jesus saith unto her, [r] I that speak unto thee am he.

27 ¶ And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water-pot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men,

29 Come, see a man which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 ¶ In the meanwhile his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?

34 Jesus saith unto them, [s] My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for [t] they are white already to harvest.

36 And he that reapeth [u] receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal; that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

37 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: [v] other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 ¶ And [w] many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So [x] when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

41 And [y] many more believed because of his own word;

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying; for [z] we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, [a] the Saviour of the world.

43 ¶ Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee.

44 For [b] Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then, when he was come into Galilee, the Galileans received him, [c] having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: [d] for they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, [e] where he made the water wine. And there was a certain [1] nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jesus unto him, Except [f] ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

50 Jesus saith unto him, [g] Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth; and [h] himself believed, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judea into Galilee.

CHAPTER V.

1 Jesus, on the sabbath day, cureth an impotent man at the pool of Bethesda: 16 The Jews persecute him for it: 17 he justifieth himself.

AFTER [a] this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem, [b] by the sheep [1] market, a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue [2] Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, [c] and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, [d] Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, [e] Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on [f] the same day was the sabbath.

10 ¶ The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: [g] it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 And he that was healed wist not who it was; for Jesus had conveyed himself away, [3] a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in [h] the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: [i] sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

17 ¶ But Jesus answered them, My [j] Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews [k] sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, [l] making himself equal with God.

19 ¶ Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [m] The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For [n] the Father loveth the Son, and showeth him all things that himself doeth: and he will show him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even [o] so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath [p] committed all judgment unto the Son;

23 That all men should [q] honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; [r] but is passed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when [s] the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath [t] life in himself, so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, [u] because he is the Son of man.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

29 And [v] shall come forth; [w] they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30 I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because [x] I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31 If [y] I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 Ye sent unto John, [z] and he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning and [a] a shining light: and [b] ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 But [c] I have greater witness than that of John: for [d] the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, [e] hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor [f] seen his shape.

38 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: [k] there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust.

46 For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: [l] for he wrote of me.

47 But if [m] ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

CHAPTER VI.

1 Christ feedeth five thousand with five loaves and two fishes: 19 he walketh on the sea: 22 the multitude flocking unto him, he reproveth their carnal views, etc.

AFTER [a] these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 And [b] the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

5 When [c] Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?

6 (And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.)

7 Philip answered him, [d] Two hundred penny-worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him,

9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: [e] but what are they among so many?

10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had [f] given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

14 ¶ Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth [g] that prophet that should come into the world.

15 When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

16 ¶ And [h] when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea,

17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose, by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone;

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias, nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)

24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 [1] Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but [i] for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: [j] for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This [k] is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, What [l] sign showest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 Our [m] fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, [n] He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: [o] he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 All that the Father giveth me shall come to me: and [p] him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came down from heaven, [q] not to do mine own will, but [r] the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, [s] that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that [t] every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 It [u] is written in the Prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 Not [v] that any man hath seen the Father, save [w] he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He [x] that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 I am that bread of life.

49 Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and [y] the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore [z] strove among themselves, saying, [a] How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except [b] ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, [c] dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father; so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many [d] therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?

61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 What [e] and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?

63 It [f] is the Spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they [g] are spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For [h] Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 ¶ From that time many of his disciples went [i] back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.

69 And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

70 Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?

71 He spake of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Jesus, exhorted by his unbelieving brethren to show himself, 10 goeth secretly to the feast: 14 he teacheth in the temple. 45 The Pharisees are angry at their officers for not taking Christ.

AFTER these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, [a] because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 ¶ Now [b] the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 His [c] brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, show thyself to the world.

5 For [d] neither did his brethren believe in him.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, [e] My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.

7 The [f] world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, [g] because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; [h] for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 ¶ But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then [i] the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And [j] there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some [k] said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

14 ¶ Now about the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

17 If [n] any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

20 The people answered and said, Thou [r] hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he whom they seek to kill?

miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 ¶ The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jesus unto them, Yet [b] a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 Ye [c] shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto [d] the dispersed among the [3] Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 ¶ In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, [e] If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

38 He [f] that believeth on me, as the Scripture hath said, [g] out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

39 (But [h] this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet [i] glorified.)

40 Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is [j] the Prophet.

41 Others said, [k] This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee?

42 Hath [l] not the Scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, [m] where David was?

43 So there was a division among the people because of him.

44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 ¶ Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?

48 Have [n] any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him?

49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.

50 Nicodemus saith unto them, (he [o] that came [4] to Jesus by night, being one of them,)

51 Doth [p] our law judge any man before it hear him and know what he doeth?

52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and look: for out [q] of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

53 And every man went unto his own house.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Christ releaseth a woman taken in adultery: 12 he preacheth himself the light of the world, and justifieth his doctrine; 33 answereth the Jews.

JESUS went unto the mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now [a] Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, [b] He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, [c] being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, [d] Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

12 ¶ Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, [e] Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but [f] ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye [g] judge after the flesh; [h] I judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true; for [i] I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 It [j] is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and [k] the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, [l] Ye neither know me, nor my Father: [m] if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jesus in the [n] treasury, as he taught in the temple: and [o] no man laid hands on him; for [p] his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and [q] ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, [r] Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye [s] are of this world; I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: [t] for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but [u] he that sent me is true; and [v] I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have [w] lifted up the Son of man, [z] then shall ye know that I am he, and [y] that I do nothing of myself; but [z] as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And [a] he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; [b] for I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words many believed on him.

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;

32 And ye shall know the truth, and [c] the truth shall make you free.

33 They answered him, [d] We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [e] Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.

35 And [f] the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.

36 If [g] the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye [h] seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father; and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

39 They answered and said unto him, Abraham [i] is our father. Jesus saith unto them, [j] If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham.

40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; [k] we have one Father, even God.

42 Jesus said unto them, [l] If God were your Father, ye would love me: [m] for I proceeded forth and came from God; [n] neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

43 Why [o] do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

44 Ye [p] are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and [q] abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 He [r] that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil?

49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 And [s] I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, If [t] a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. [u] Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

53 Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself?

54 Jesus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: [v] it is my Father that honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God:

55 Yet [w] ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying.

56 Your father Abraham [x] rejoiced to see my day; [y] and he saw it, and was glad.

57 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?

58 Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, [z] I am.

59 Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did [a] sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but [b] that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 I [c] must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, I [d] am the light of the world.

6 When he had thus spoken, [e] he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he [1] anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

7 And said unto him, Go, [f] wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is, by interpretation, Sent.) [g] He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

8 ¶ The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he; others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 ¶ They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.

14 And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, [h] How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And [i] there was a division among them.

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, [j] He is a prophet.

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them, and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, because they [k] feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, [l] he should be put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, [m] Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.

29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, [n] we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered and said unto them, [o] Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that [p] God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they [2] cast him out.

38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.

39 ¶ And Jesus said, [s] For judgment I am come into this world, that [t] they which see not might see, and that they which see might be made blind.

40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, [u] and said unto him, Are we blind also?

41 Jesus said unto them, [v] If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

CHAPTER X.

1 Christ is the door, and the good shepherd. 19 Divers opinions of him. 22 He proveth by his works that he is Christ, and asserteth his unity with the Father.

VERILY, verily, I say unto you, He [a] that entereth not by the door into the sheep-fold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entereth in by the [b] door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him [c] the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And [d] a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am [e] the door of the sheep.

8 All [f] that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

9 I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

10 The [g] thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

11 I [h] am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and [i] leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd, [j] and know my sheep, and [k] am known of mine.

15 As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And [l] other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; [m] and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

17 Therefore doth my Father love me, [n] because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment [o] have I received of my Father.

19 ¶ There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. Can [p] a devil open the eyes of the blind?

22 ¶ And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jesus walked in the temple, [q] in Solomon's porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou [1] make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.

25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.

26 But [r] ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

27 My sheep hear my voice, and

I know them, and they follow me:

28 And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any pluck them out of my hand.

29 My [e] Father, [t] which gave them me, is greater than all; and none is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.

30 I [u] and my Father are one.

31 ¶ Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him.

32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I showed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest [v] thyself God.

34 Jesus answered them, [w] Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?

35 If he called them gods [x] unto whom the word of God came, and the Scripture cannot be broken;

36 Say ye of him, [y] whom the Father hath sanctified, and [z] sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am [a] the Son of God?

37 If [b] I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.

38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works; that ye may know and believe [c] that the Father is in me, and I in him.

39 ¶ Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand,

40 And went away again beyond Jordan, into the place [d] where John at first baptized; and there he abode.

41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: but [e] all things that John spake of this man were true.

42 And [f] many believed on him there.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Christ raiseth Lazarus to life. 45 Many Jews believe. 49 Caiaphas prophesieth. 54 Jesus hid himself.

NOW a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of [a] Mary and her sister Martha.

2 (It [b] was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but [c] for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, [d] he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judea again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, [e] the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? [f] If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But [g] if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus [h] sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.

18 Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, [1] about fifteen furlongs off.

19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.

21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

[1] That is, about two miles.

22 But I know, that even now, whatsoever [i] thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall [j] rise again.

24 Martha saith unto him, [k] I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jesus said unto her, I am [l] the resurrection, and the [m] life: he [n] that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: [o] I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and [2] was troubled,

34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 Jesus [p] wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, [q] which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore, again groaning in himself, cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but [r] because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, [s] come forth.

44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave-clothes; and [t] his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, [u] and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 ¶ Then [v] gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, [w] What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and [x] the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, named [y] Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 Nor [z] consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation;

52 And [a] not for that nation only, [b] but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus [c] therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called [d] Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And [e] the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, to [f]purify themselves.

56 Then [g]sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, [h] What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should show it, that they might take him.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Jesus excuseth Mary anointing his feet. 10 The chief priests consult to kill Lazarus. 12 Christ rideth into Jerusalem with triumph. 23 He foretelleth his death.

THEN Jesus, six days before the passover, came to Bethany, where [a]Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There [b]they made him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took [c]Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and [d]had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For [e]the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 ¶ Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 But [f]the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death;

11 Because [g]that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 ¶ On [h]the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,

13 Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, [i]Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written,

15 Fear [j] not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things [k]understood not his disciples at the first: [l]but when Jesus was glorified, [m]then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ¶ And there [n]were certain Greeks among them [o]that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

23 ¶ And Jesus answered them, saying, The [p]hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except [q]a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 He [r]that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and [s]where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 Now [t]is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: [u]but for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. Then [v]came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered and said, [w] This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall [x] the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw [y] all men unto me.

33 (This he said, signifying what death he should die.)

34 The people answered him, We [z] have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while [a] is the light with you. [b] Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for [c] he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the [d] children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:

38 That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, [e] Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again,

40 He [f] hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things said Esaias, when he [g] saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 ¶ Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 For [h] they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Jesus washeth his disciples' feet, 14 and exhorteth them to humility and charity; 18 foretelleth his betrayal; 36 forewarneth Peter of his denial.

NOW before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

2 And supper being ended, ([a] the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him,)

3 Jesus knowing [b] that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God;

4 He [c] riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself.

5 After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and [1] Peter saith unto him, Lord, [d] dost thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, [e] If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

10 Jesus saith to him, [f] He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and [g] ye are clean, but not all.

11 For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

13 Ye [h] call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

14 If [i] I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet, [j] ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For [k] I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 Verily, [l] verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

17 If [m] ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

18 ¶ I speak not of you all: [n] I know whom I have chosen: but, that the scripture may be fulfilled, He [o] that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.

19 [2] Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.

20 Verily, [p] verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

21 When [q] Jesus had thus said, he [r] was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, That [s] one of you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now [t] there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He it is to whom I shall give a [3] sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

27 And [u] after the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, [v] because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.

31 ¶ Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and [w] God is glorified in him.

32 If [x] God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.

34 A [y] new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love [z] one to another.

36 ¶ Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; [a] but thou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will [b] lay down my life for thy sake.

38 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Christ comforteth his disciples; 5 professeth himself the way, the truth, and the life, 9 and that he is one with the Father: 27 he leaveth his peace with them.

LET not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In [a] my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. [b] I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, [c] I will come again, and receive you unto myself; [d] that where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 ¶ Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am [e] the way, and [f] the truth, and [g] the life: [h] no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

7 If [i] ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 ¶ Philip saith unto him, Lord, show us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he [j] that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Show us the Father?

10 Believest thou not that [k] I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you [l] I speak not of myself: but the Father, that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

13 And whatsoever ye shall ask in [m] my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

15 ¶ If [n] ye love me, keep my commandments.

16 And I will pray the Father, and [o] he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

17 Even [p] the Spirit of truth; whom [q] the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, [r] and shall be in you.

18 I will not leave you [1] comfortless: I will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but [s] ye see me: [t] because I live, ye shall live also.

20 At that day ye shall know that [u] I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

21 He [v] that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

22 Judas saith unto him, (not Iscariot,) Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, [w] and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and [x] the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

26 But [y] the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, [z] he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

27 Peace [a] I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for [b] my Father is greater than I.

29 And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: [c] for the prince of this world cometh, and [d] hath nothing in me.

31 But that the world may know that I love the Father; and [e] as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

CHAPTER XV.

1 The union between Christ and his church, under the parable of a vine. 26 The office of the Holy Ghost, etc.

I AM the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

2 Every [a] branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now [b] ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4 Abide [c] in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much [d] fruit: for [1] without me ye can do nothing.

6 If a [e] man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 Herein [f] is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and [g] that your joy might be full.

12 This [h] is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater [i] love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; [j] for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

16 Ye [k] have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and [l] ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.

18 ¶ If [m] the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

19 If [n] ye were of the world, the world would love his own: [o] but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; [p] if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.

21 But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.

22 If [q] I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but [r] now they have no [2] cloak for their sin.

23 He [s] that hateth me hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, [t] They hated me without a cause.

26 But [u] when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, [v] he shall testify of me:

27 And [w] ye also shall bear witness, because [x] ye have been with me from the beginning.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 Christ warneth his disciples of their sufferings: 7 office of the Comforter. 29 They profess their faith in Christ. 33 Peace in Christ, and in the world affliction.

THESE things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that [a] whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

3 And [b] these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4 But these things have I told you, that, when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but [c] if I depart, I will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, he will [1] reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

9 Of [d] sin, because they believe not on me;

10 Of [e] righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 Of [f] judgment, because [g] the prince of this world is judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.

13 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, [h] he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will [i] show you things to come.

14 He shall glorify me; for he shall receive of mine, and shall show it unto you.

15 All [j] things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall show it unto you.

16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me; because I go to the Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and [k] your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. [l] Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in [2] proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in [3] proverbs, but I shall show you plainly of the Father.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you;

27 For [m] the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and [n] have believed that I came out from God.

28 I [o] came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 ¶ His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no [4] proverb.

30 Now are we sure that [p] thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this [q] we believe that thou camest forth from God.

31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to [5] his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that [r] in me ye might have peace. [s] In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Christ prayeth to his Father to glorify him, 6 to preserve his apostles, 20 and all other believers.

THESE words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

2 As [a] thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many [b] as thou hast given him.

3 And [c] this is life eternal, that they might know thee [d] the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

4 I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory [e] which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I [f] have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

8 For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them: [g] I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And [h] all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, [i] keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, [j] as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, [k] I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and [l] none of them is lost, [m] but the son of perdition; that [n] the Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word; and [o] the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that [p] thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And [q] for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be [1] sanctified through the truth.

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

21 That they all may be one; as [r] thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that [s] they may be one, even as we are one:

23 I in them, and thou in me, that [t] they may be made [u] perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

24 Father, [v] I will that they also whom thou hast given me be with me where I am; that they may behold [w] my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

26 And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it; that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and [x] I in them.

WHEN Jesus had spoken these words, he [a] went forth with his disciples over the [b] brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

him, knew the place; [c] for Jesus ofttimes resorted thither with his disciples.

3 Judas [d] then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he. If therefore ye seek me, [e] let these go their way:

9 That the saying might be fulfilled which he spake, [f] Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

10 Then [g] Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the [h] cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him,

13 And [i] led him away to [j] Annas first: for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year.[1]

14 Now [k] Caiaphas was he which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ¶ And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. That disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

16 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 ¶ The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, [l] I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by [m] struck Jesus [2] with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jesus answered him, [n] If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil; but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

25 ¶ And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. [o] They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied again: and immediately the [p] cock crew.

28 ¶ Then [q] led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto [3] the hall of judgment: and it was early; and [r] they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled, but that they might eat [s] the passover.

29 Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, [t] It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 That [u] the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

36 Jesus [v] answered, [w] My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should [x] bear witness unto the truth. Every one that [y] is of the truth heareth my voice.

38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I [z] find in him no fault at all.

39 But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

40 Then [a] cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. [b] Now Barabbas was a robber.

CHAPTER XIX.

THEN [a] Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him.

2 And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,

3 And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that [b] ye may know that I find no fault in him.

5 Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man!

fore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, [d] We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he [e] made himself the Son of God.

8 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;

9 And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But [f] Jesus gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jesus answered, [g] Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, [h] If thou let this man go, thou art not Cesar's friend: whosoever [i] maketh himself a king speaketh against Cesar.

13 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, [l] Gabbatha.

14 And [j] it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!

15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, [k] We have no king but Cesar.

16 Then [l] delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.

17 And he bearing his cross [m] went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha:

18 Where [n] they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

19 ¶ And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews; for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

23 ¶ Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, [2] woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, [o] They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

25 ¶ Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of [3] Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and [p] the disciple standing by whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, [q] behold thy son!

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto [r] his own home.

28 ¶ After this, Jesus knowing that [s] all things were now accomplished, [t] that the Scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, [u] It is finished: and he bowed his head, and [v] gave up the ghost.

31 ¶ The Jews therefore, [w] because it was the preparation, [x] that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was [y] an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith [z] came thereout blood and water.

35 And [a] he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, that [b] the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again another scripture saith, They [c] shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 ¶ And [d] after this, Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly [e] for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus.

39 And there came also [f] Nicodemus, (which at the first came to Jesus by night,) and brought [g] a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound [h] it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a [i] new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 There [j] laid they Jesus therefore, because of the Jews' preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Mary Magdalene cometh to the sepulchre: 11 she seeth two angels: Jesus himself appeareth to her, 19 and to his disciples.

THE [a] first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the [b] other disciple whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 Peter [c] therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

7 And [e] the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other disciple which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not [f] the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 ¶ But [g] Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre,

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 And [h] when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and [i] knew not that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary! She turned herself, and saith unto him, [j] Rabboni! which is to say, Master!

17 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to [k] my brethren, and say unto them, [l] I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to [m] my God, and your God.

18 Mary [n] Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 ¶ Then [o] the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he [p] showed unto them his hands and his side. [q] Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: [r] as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost:

23 Whose [s] soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 ¶ But Thomas, one of the twelve, [t] called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 ¶ And after eight days, again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace [u] be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; [v] and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.

28 And Thomas answered and said unto him, [w] My Lord and my God.

29 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed [x] are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

30 ¶ And [y] many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:

31 But [z] these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and [a] that believing ye might have life through his name.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Christ appeareth to his disciples, and is discovered unto them by a miraculous draught of fishes. 12 He dineth with them: 15 his charge to Peter, 18 foretelleth his death.

AFTER these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias: and on this wise showed he himself.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and [a] Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and [b] the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew [c] not that it was Jesus.

5 Then [d] Jesus saith unto them, [1] Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, [e] Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore; and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore [f] that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and [g] did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they [h] saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jesus saith unto them, [i] Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now [j] the third time that Jesus showed himself to his disciples after that he was risen from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me [k] more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; [l] thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed [m] my lambs.

16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He [n] saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

17 He saith unto him [o] the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, [p] thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

18 Verily, [q] verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 This spake he, signifying [r] by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

20 Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple [s] whom Jesus loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 Peter seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, and [t] what shall this man do?

22 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry [u] till I come, what is [v] that to thee? Follow thou me.

23 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

24 This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things: [w] and we know that his testimony is true.

25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, [x] I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

CHAPTER I.

1 A relation of part of Christ's history after his passion: 9 his ascension. 26 Matthias ordained in place of Judas Iscariot.

THE former treatise have I made, [a] O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

2 Until [b] the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:

3 To [c] whom also he showed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

4 And, [1] being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, [d] which, saith he, ye have heard of me.

5 For [e] John truly baptized with water; but [f] ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore [g] again the kingdom to Israel?

7 And he said unto them, [h] It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

8 But ye shall receive [2] power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 And [i] when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And, while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in [j] white apparel;

11 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, [k] shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 ¶ Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount [l] called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a [m] sabbath day's journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up [n] into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alpheus, and [o] Simon Zelotes, and [p] Judas the brother of James.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with [q] the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with [r] his brethren.

15 ¶ And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number [s] of the names together were about an hundred and twenty,)

16 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, [t] which the Holy Ghost, by the mouth of David, spake before concerning Judas, [u] which was guide to them that took Jesus.

17 For [v] he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of [w] this ministry.

18 Now [x] this man purchased a field with the [y] reward of iniquity; and [z] falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, [a] Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and, His [3] bishopric let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,

22 Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained [b] to be a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, and said,

Thou, Lord, which [c] knowest the hearts of all men, show whether of these two thou hast chosen,

25 That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And they gave forth their [d] lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER II.

1 The apostles, filled with the Holy Ghost, speak divers languages. 14 Peter's sermon, etc.

AND when [a] the day of Pentecost was fully come, [b] they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it [c] filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And [d] they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and [e] began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling [f] at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now [1] when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were [2] confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed, and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galileans?

8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judea, [g] and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia,

10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and [h] proselytes, 11 Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

13 Others [i] mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

14 ¶ But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;

17 And [j] it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, [k] I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your [l] daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; [m] and they shall prophesy:

19 And [n] I will show wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

20 The [o] sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:

21 And it shall come to pass, [p] that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you [q] by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

23 Him, [r] being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

24 Whom [s] God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David speaketh concerning him, [t] I foresaw the Lord always before my face; for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope:

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine [u] Holy One to see corruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, [3] let me freely speak unto you [v] of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.

30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of [w] the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne;

31 He, seeing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christ, [z] that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.

32 This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof [y] we all are witnesses.

33 Therefore [z] being by the right hand of God exalted, and [a] having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath [b] shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

34 For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, The [c] LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath [d] made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

37 ¶ Now when they heard this, they [e] were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

38 Then Peter said unto them, Repent, [f] and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

39 For the [g] promise is unto you, and [h] to your children, and [i] to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.

41 ¶ Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

42 And [j] they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul: [k] and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

44 And all that believed were together, and had [l] all things common;

45 And sold their possessions and goods, and [m] parted them to all men, as every man had need.

46 And they, continuing daily with one accord [n] in the temple, and [o] breaking bread [q] from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 Praising God, and [p] having favour with all the people. And the [q] Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

CHAPTER III.

Peter and John cure a lame man, etc.

NOW Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.

2 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, [a] to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;

3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms.

4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Peter said, [b] Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: [c] In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up; and immediately his feet and ancle bones received strength.

8 And he [d] leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And [e] all the people saw him walking and praising God:

10 And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 ¶ And as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch [f] that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

12 And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own [g] power or 13 The [h] God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, [i] hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.

14 But ye denied [j] the Holy One and [k] the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you;

15 And killed the [l] Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof we are witnesses.

16 And [l] his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know; yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

18 But those things, which God before had showed [n] by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;

21 Whom [o] the heaven must receive until the times of [p] restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

22 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A [q] Prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, [r] like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

23 And it shall come to pass, that every [s] soul, which will not hear that Prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

24 Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

25 Ye [t] are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, [u] And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Peter and John imprisoned: 8 their boldness: 18 they are threatened by the rulers of the Jews.

AND as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the [1] captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, came upon them,

2 Being [a] grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.

4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,

6 And [b] Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, [c] By what power, or by what name, have ye done this?

8 Then [d] Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, [e] that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

11 This [f] is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 Neither [g] is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved.

13 ¶ Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, [h] and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But, when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves,

16 Saying, [i] What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest [j] to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, [k] Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20 For [l] we cannot but speak the things which [m] we have seen and heard.

21 So, when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because [n] of the people: for all men glorified God for that [o] which was done.

22 For the man was above forty years old on whom this miracle of healing was showed.

23 ¶ And being let go, [p] they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they [q] lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou [r] art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is:

25 Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, [s] Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?

26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For of a truth against [t] thy holy child Jesus, [u] whom thou hast anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together,

28 For [v] to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.

29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, [w] that with all boldness they may speak thy word,

30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and [x] that signs and wonders may be done by [y] the name of thy holy child Jesus.

31 And when they had prayed, the [z] place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 ¶ And the multitude of them that believed [a] were of one heart and of one soul: neither [b] said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.

33 And with [c] great power gave the apostles [d] witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great [e] grace was upon them all.

34 Neither [f] was there any among them that lacked: [g] for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

35 And laid them down at the apostles' feet: [h] and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

36 And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, 37 Having land, [i] sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

CHAPTER V.

1 Ananias and Sapphira at Peter's rebuke fall down dead. 17 The apostles imprisoned, but delivered by an angel.

BUT a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,

2 And [a] kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 But [b] Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan [c] filled thine heart [1] to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ananias hearing these words [d] fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, wound [e] him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to [f] tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 ¶ And [g] by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and [h] they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.

13 And [i] of the rest durst no man join himself to them: [j] but the people magnified them.

14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women;)

15 Insomuch that they brought forth the sick [2] into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that [k] at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing [l] sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 ¶ Then [m] the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with [3] indignation,

18 And [n] laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But [o] the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said,

20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people [p] all the words of this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. [q] But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest [r] and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: [s] for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them,

28 Saying, [t] Did not we straitly command you, that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and [u] intend to bring this man's blood [v] upon us.

29 Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, [w] We ought to obey God rather than men.

30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged [x] on a tree.

31 Him [y] hath God exalted with his right hand to be [z] a Prince and a [a] Saviour, [b] for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

32 And [c] we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ¶ When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named [d] Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as [4]obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days [e] of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for [f] if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

39 But [g] if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even [h] to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and [i] beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 And they departed from the presence of the council, [j] rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The apostles' care for the poor, and preaching of the word. 5 Seven deacons chosen.

AND in those days, [a] when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the [b] Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected [c] in the daily ministration.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, [d] It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, [e] look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we [f] will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a [g] man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, [h] and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch:

6 Whom they set before the apostles: and when [i] they had prayed, [j] they laid their hands on them.

7 And [k] the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company [l] of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 ¶ And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.

10 And [m] they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 Then [n] they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

13 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

14 For [o] we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth [p] shall destroy this place, and shall change the [1] customs which Moses delivered us.

15 And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of [q] an angel.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Stephen being called, answereth to his accusation of blasphemy: 54 they stone him to death.

THEN said the high priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran,

3 And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which [a] I shall show thee.

4 Then [b] came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he [c] promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.

6 And God spake on this wise, That [d] his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them [e] evil four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and [f] serve me in this place.

8 And [g] he gave him the covenant of circumcision: [h] and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; [i] and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob [j] begat the twelve patriarchs.

9 And [k] the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but [l] God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, [m] and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house.

11 Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh.

14 Then [n] sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, [o] threescore and fifteen souls.

15 So Jacob went down into Egypt, [p] and died, he, and our fathers,

16 And [q] were carried over into Sychem, and laid in [r] the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem.

17 But when [s] the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt,

18 Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil-entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

20 In [t] which time Moses was born, and was [1]exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:

21 And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was [u] mighty in words and in deeds.

23 And [v] when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian:

25 [2] For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

26 And the next day he showed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who [w] made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then [x] fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he [y] begat two sons.

30 And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina [z] an Angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.

31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, 32 Saying, [a] I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

33 Then [b] said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer [c] by the hand of the Angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He [d] brought them out, after that he had showed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, [e] and in the wilderness forty years.

37 This is that Moses which said unto the children of Israel, [f] A Prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, [3] like unto me; him [g] shall ye hear.

38 This [h] is he that was in the church in the wilderness with [i] the Angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: who [j] received the [k] lively oracles to give unto us:

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt,

40 Saying [l] unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then [m] God turned, and gave them up to worship [n] the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the Prophets, [o] O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness?

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, [4] speaking unto Moses, that [p] he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen:

46 Who [r] found favour before God, and desired [s] to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob.

47 But Solomon built him an house.

48 Howbeit [t] the Most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet,

49 Heaven [u] is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord; or what is the place of my rest?

50 Hath not my hand made all these things?

51 ¶ Ye [v] stiff-necked and [w] uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.

52 Which [x] of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which showed before of the coming of [y] the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers:

54 ¶ When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.

58 And [c] cast him out of the city, and [d] stoned him: and [e] the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul.

59 And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive [f] my spirit.

60 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, [g] Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he [h] fell asleep.

CHAPTER VIII.

5 Philip planteth the church in Samaria: 26 he baptizeth an Ethiopian eunuch.

AND [a] Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem: and they [b] were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and [c] made great lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, [d] he made havoc of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women, committed them to prison.

4 Therefore [e] they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.

5 ¶ Then [f] Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For [g] unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man called Simon, which beforetime in the same city used [h] sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving [i] out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom [j] they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But when they believed Philip preaching the things [k] concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Simon himself [l] believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the [1] miracles and signs which were done.

14 ¶ Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John:

15 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, [m] that they might receive the Holy Ghost:

16 (For [n] as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only [o] they were baptized in [p] the name of the Lord Jesus.)

17 Then [q] laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money,

19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost.

20 But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou [r] hast thought that [s] the gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy [t] heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, [u] if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall [v] of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye [w] to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the Gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

26 ¶ And [x] the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south, unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and, behold, a [y] man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and [z] had come to Jerusalem for to worship,

28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me?

And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.

32 The place of the Scripture which he read was this, [a] He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began [b] at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what [c] doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Philip said, [d] If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I [e] believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, [f] the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Philip was found [g] at Azotus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Cesarea.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Saul, going towards Damascus, is called by Christ: 10 Ananias is sent to him, and he is baptized, 20 and preacheth Christ. 32 Miracles wrought by Peter.

AND [a] Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any [1] of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

3 And [b] as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest [c] thou me?

5 And he said, [d] Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. [e] It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he, trembling and astonished, said, Lord, [f] what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And [g] the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 ¶ And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of [h] Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth,

12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that [i] call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for [j] he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before [k] the Gentiles, and [l] kings, and the children of Israel:

16 For [m] I will show him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

17 And [n] Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him, said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and [o] be filled with the Holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. [p] Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, [q] that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said, [r] Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and [s] confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

23 ¶ And after that many days were fulfilled, [t] the Jews took counsel to kill him:

24 But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and [u] let him down by the wall in a basket.

26 And [v] when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 But [w] Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.

29 And he spake [x] boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the [y] Grecians: [z] but they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then [a] had the churches rest throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

32 ¶ And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout [b] all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certain man named Eneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

34 And Peter said unto him, Eneas, [c] Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt in Lydda and [d] Saron saw him, and [e] turned to the Lord.

36 ¶ Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called [2] Dorcas: this woman was full [f] of good works and alms-deeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in [g] an upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not [3] delay to come to them.

39 Then Peter arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made while she was with them.

40 But Peter [h] put them all forth, and kneeled [i] down, and prayed; and turning him to the body [j] said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up; and when he had called the saints and widows, he presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Joppa; [k] and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in [l] Joppa with one Simon [m] a tanner.

CHAPTER X.

1 Cornelius sendeth for Peter. 34 Peter preacheth. 44 The Holy Ghost falleth on the hearers: 48 they are baptized.

2 A [a] devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway.

3 He [b] saw in a vision evidently, about the ninth hour of the day, an [c] angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for [d] a memorial before God.

5 And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter.

6 He lodgeth with one [e] Simon a tanner, whose house is by the seaside: he [f] shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 ¶ On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the house-top to pray about [g] the sixth hour:

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,

11 And [h] saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:

12 Wherein were all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for [i] I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, [j] What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

17 Now, while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had made enquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate,

18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit [k] said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 Arise [l] therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius, and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of [m] good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into Cesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Peter took him up, saying, Stand [n] up; I myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that [o] it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but [p] God hath showed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as [q] soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, [r] a man stood before [s] me in bright clothing,

31 And said, Cornelius, [t] thy prayer is heard, [u] and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the seaside: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 ¶ Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, [v] Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

35 But [w] in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

36 The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching [x] peace by Jesus Christ: ([y] he is Lord of all:)

37 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached;

38 How [z] God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil: for [a] God was with him.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree:

40 Him God raised up the third day, and showed him openly;

41 Not [b] to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who [c] did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

42 And [d] he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify [e] that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of [f] quick and dead.

43 To [g] him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

44 ¶ While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we?

48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

CHAPTER XI

1 Peter accused for going to the Gentiles.
19 The Gospel preached in many places.
27 Great dearth foretold.

AND the apostles and brethren that were in Judea heard that the Gentiles [a] had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, [b] they that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, [c] Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it [d] by order unto them, saying,

5 I [e] was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; slay, and eat.

8 But I said, [f] Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea unto me.

12 And [g] the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover these [h] six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:

13 And [i] he showed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, [j] as on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John [k] indeed baptized with water; but [l] ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

17 Forasmuch [m] then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, what [n] was I, that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then [o] hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.

19 ¶ Now [p] they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they were come to Antioch, spake [q] unto the Grecians, preaching [r] the Lord Jesus.

21 And [s] the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned [t] unto the Lord.

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth [u] Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch.

23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and [v] exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto [w] the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: [x] and much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, [y] for to seek Saul:

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves [1] with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

27 ¶ And in these days [z] came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch.

28 And there stood up one of them named Agabus, [a] and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send [b] relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea:

30 Which also they did, and sent it to the [c] elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

CHAPTER XII.

1 King Herod persecuteth the Christians, killeth James, and imprisoneth Peter; whom an angel delivereth upon the prayers of the church. 20 Miserable death of Herod.

NOW about that time Herod the king [1] stretched forth his hands [a] to vex certain of the church.

2 And he killed James [b] the brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were [c] the days of unleavened bread.)

4 And [d] when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but [2] prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And, behold, [e] the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him; and [f] wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he [g] saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which [h] opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that [i] the Lord hath sent his angel, and [j] hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered the thing, he [k] came to the house of Mary the mother of [l] John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came [3] to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It [m] is his angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go show these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 ¶ And Herod [4] was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus [5] the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because their [n] country was nourished by the king's country.

21 And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, [o] It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the Lord [p] smote him, because [2] he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 ¶ But [r] the word of God grew and multiplied.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Paul and Barnabas sent to the Gentiles. 42 The Gentiles believe. 44 The Jews blaspheme, 50 and raise a persecution.

NOW there were [a] in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as [b] Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius [c] of Cyrene, and Manaen, [1] which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate [d] me Barnabas and Saul for the work [e] whereunto I have called them.

3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 ¶ So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to [f] Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also [g] John to their minister.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-jesus:

7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But [h] Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then [2] Saul, (who also is called [3] Paul,) filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, [i] thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now, behold, [j] the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 ¶ Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John [k] departing from them returned to Jerusalem.

14 ¶ But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.

15 And [l] after the reading of the Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye [m] have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand, said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And about the time of forty years [4] suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, he divided their land to them by lot.

20 And after that he gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet.

21 And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.

22 And [n] when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

23 Of [o] this man's seed hath God, according to [p] his promise, raised unto Israel [q] a Saviour, Jesus:

24 When John had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.

26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, [r] because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the Prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain.

29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

30 But [s] God raised him from the dead:

31 And [t] he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people.

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the [u] promise which was made unto the fathers,

33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou [v] art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure [5] mercies of David.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, [w] Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

36 For David, [6] after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:

37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

38 ¶ Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, [x] that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins:

39 And [y] by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken of in the [z] Prophets;

41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 ¶ And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the [7] next sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in [a] the grace of God.

44 ¶ And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and [b] spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, [c] It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but [d] seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, [e] I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: [f] and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised [g] persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 But [h] they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium.

52 And the disciples [i] were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Paul and Barnabas are persecuted. 8 Paul healing a cripple at Lystra, they are reputed as gods by the people. 19 Paul is stoned, etc.

AND it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great [a] multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which [b] gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, to [c] use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and [d] fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the Gospel.

8 ¶ And [e] there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

9 The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving [f] that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, [g] Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, [h] The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and [i] would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, [j] they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? [k] We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from [l] these vanities [m] unto the living God, [n] which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

16 Who [o] in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 Nevertheless [p] he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and [q] gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ And [r] there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, [s] and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he [t] had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And when they had preached the Gospel to that city, and [1] had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch,

22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must [u] through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had [v] ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia;

26 And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence [w] they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had [x] opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that [d] Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question.

3 And [e] being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring [f] the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 ¶ But there [1] rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

6 And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the Gospel, and believe.

8 And God, [g] which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, [h] giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us;

9 And [i] put no difference between us and them, [j] purifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, to [k] put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But [l] we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.

12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, James [m] answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me:

14 Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this agree the [n] words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 After [o] this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up;

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them which from among the Gentiles [p] are turned to God:

20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain [q] from pollutions of idols, and from [r] fornication, and from things strangled, [s] and from blood.

21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being [t] read in the synagogues every sabbath day.

22 ¶ Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed [u] Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren:

23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia:

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain [v] which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law; to whom we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

26 Men [w] that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by [2] mouth.

28 For it seemed good to [x] the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 That [y] ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and [z] from blood, and from things strangled, and

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the [3] consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas, being [a] prophets also themselves, [b] exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let [c] go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.

34 Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still.

35 Paul [d] also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some days after, Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren [e] in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them [f] John, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, [g] who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus;

40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 Paul circumciseth Timothy, 14 converteth Lydia, 16 casteth out a spirit of divination. 19 He and Silas imprisoned, etc.

THEN came he to [a] Derbe and Lystra: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, [b] named Timotheus, (the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a Greek:)

2 Which [c] was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium.

3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and [d] took and circumcised him because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

4 And as they went through the cities they delivered them the decrees for to keep, that [e] were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem.

5 And [f] so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia,

7 After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mysia came down to [g] Troas.

9 ¶ And a [h] vision appeared to Paul in the night: There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to [i] go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the Gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis;

12 And from thence to [j] Philippi, which is [1] the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the [2] sabbath we went out of the city by a river-side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 ¶ And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of [k] Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart [l] the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful [m] to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she [n] constrained us.

16 ¶ And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain [o] damsel possessed with a spirit [3] of divination met us, which brought her masters [p] much gain by soothsaying:

17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which show unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days. But Paul, being [q] grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. [r] And he came out the same hour.

19 ¶ And [s] when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, [t] they caught Paul and Silas, and [u] drew them into the [4] market place unto the rulers,

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do [v] exceedingly trouble our city,

21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and [w] commanded to beat them.

23 And [x] when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely:

24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the [y] stocks.

25 ¶ And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and [z] sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And [a] suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately [b] all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, [c] Do thyself no harm; for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what [d] must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, [e] Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, [h] being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; [i] but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, [j] and desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they [k] comforted them, and departed.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Paul preacheth at Thessalonica, 10 and at Berea; 16 disputeth with the Athenians; 32 some mock, others believe.

NOW when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went [a] in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the Scriptures;

3 Opening and alleging [b] that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, [1] whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 And [c] some of them believed, and consorted with Paul [d] and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 ¶ But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house [e] of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These [f] that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all [g] do contrary to the decrees of Cesar, saying [h] that there is another king, one Jesus.

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

10 ¶ And [i] the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched [j] the Scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, [k] they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 And [l] then immediately the brethren sent away Paul, to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and receiving [m] a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, [n] his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city [2] wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoics, encountered him. And some said, What will this [3] babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto [4]Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

22 ¶ Then Paul stood in the midst of [5]Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are [o]too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your [6]devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, [p]TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 God [q]that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is [r]Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth [s]not in temples made with hands;

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, [t]as though he needed any thing, seeing [u]he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;

26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and [v]hath determined the times before appointed, and [w]the bounds of their habitation;

27 That [x]they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, [y]though he be not far from every one of us:

28 For [z]in him we live, and move, and have our being; [a]as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, [b]we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And [c]the times of this ignorance God winked at; but [d]now commandeth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which [e]he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath [7]given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32 ¶ And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit [f]certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

CHAPTER XVIII.

3 Paul labouring with his hands, and preaching at Corinth, 9 is encouraged in a vision, etc.

AFTER these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth;

2 And found a certain [a]Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and [b]wrought: for by their occupation they were tent-makers.

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

5 And [c]when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in [d]the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was [1]Christ.

6 And [e]when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, [f]he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your [g]blood be upon your own heads; I [h]am clean: [i]from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

7 And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 And [j]Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house: and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized.

9 Then [k]spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 For [l]I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: [m]for I have much people in this city.

11 And he [2]continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 ¶ And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat,

17 Then all the Greeks [o] took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gallio cared for none of those things.

18 ¶ And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having shorn [p] his head in [q] Cenchrea: for he had a vow.

19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not;

21 But bade them farewell, saying, [r] I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, [s] if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he had landed at Cesarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of [t] Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening [u] all the disciples.

24 ¶ And [v] a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the Scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent [w] in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing [x] only the baptism of John.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the [y] way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, [y] helped them much which had believed through grace:

28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, [z] showing by the Scriptures that Jesus [3] was Christ.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 The Holy Ghost given by the laying on of Paul's hands. 17 Many believe the Gospel.

AND it came to pass, that, while Apollos was [a] at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, [b] We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto [c] John's baptism.

4 Then said Paul, [d] John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized [e] in the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had [f] laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they [g] spake with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And [h] he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things [i] concerning the kingdom of God.

9 But [j] when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil [k] of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.

10 And [l] this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And [m] God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul:

12 So [n] that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ Then [o] certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, [p] took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus [q] I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear [r] fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and [s] confessed, and showed their deeds.

19 Many of them also which [t] used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 So [u] mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.

21 ¶ After [v] these things were ended, Paul purposed [w] in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, [x] I must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them [y] that ministered unto him, Timotheus and [z] Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 ¶ And [a] the same time there arose no small stir about [b] that way.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no [c] small gain unto the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft [d] we have our wealth.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they [e] be no gods which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, [f] Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having [g] caught Gaius [h] and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief [i] of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And [j] Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the town-clerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is [1] a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the [2] law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Paul goeth to Macedonia: 7 he celebrateth the Lord's supper, and preacheth. 9 Eutychus, falling down dead, 10 is raised to life. 28 Paul committeth the flock to the elders: 36 he prayeth with them, and departeth.

AND after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, [a] and departed for to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,

3 And there abode three months. And when [b] the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, [c] Aristarchus and Secundus; [d] and Gaius of Derbe, and [e] Timotheus; and of Asia, Tychicus [f] and [g] Trophimus.

5 These going before tarried for us at Troas.

6 And we sailed away from Philippi after the days [h] of unleavened bread, and came unto them [i] to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days.

7 ¶ And upon [j] the first day of the week, when the disciples came together [k] to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights [l] in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, [m] and fell on him, and embracing him said, [n] Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: [o] for he hasted, if it were possible for him, [p] to be at Jerusalem [q] the day of Pentecost.

17 ¶ And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called [r] the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from [s] the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews:

20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have showed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house,

21 Testifying [t] both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, [u] repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now, behold, [v] I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Save that [w] the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions [1] abide me.

24 But [x] none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so [y] that I might finish my course with joy, and [z] the ministry which [a] I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, [b] I know

27 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all [d] the counsel of God.

28 Take [e] heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock over the which the [f] Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, [g] which he hath purchased [h] with his own blood.

30 Also [j] of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that by [k] the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and [l] to the word of his grace, which is able [m] to build you up, and to give you an [n] inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

33 I [o] have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, ye yourselves know, [p] that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I have showed you all things, how that [q] so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, [r] It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, [s] and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him,

38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: [a] who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we [b] kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home [c] again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Cesarea: and we entered into the house of Philip [d] the evangelist, which was [e] one of the seven; and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, [f] which did prophesy.

10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judea a certain prophet, named [g] Agabus.

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, [h] So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, [i] What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for [j] I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, [k] The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And [l] when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto [m] James; and all the elders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, he declared [n] particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by [o] his ministry.

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all [p] zealous of the law:

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou [q] teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;

24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may [r] shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and [s] keepest the law.

25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, we [t] have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into [u] the temple, [v] to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid [w] hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man [x] that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city [y] Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar:

32 Who [z] immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and [a] commanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, [b] Away with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 Art not thou that [1] Egyptian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Paul said, [c] I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, [d] suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

CHAPTER XXII.

1 Paul declareth how he was converted: 25 he escapeth scourging, being a Roman citizen.

MEN, [a] brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,)

3 I [b] am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at [c] the feet of [d] Gamaliel, and taught [e] according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and [f] was zealous toward God, [g] as ye all are this day.

4 And [h] I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and [i] all the estate of the elders: from [j] whom also I received letters unto [k] the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

6 And [l] it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 And [m] they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And [n] one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, [o] having a good report of all the [p] Jews which dwelt there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, [q] The God of our fathers hath [r] chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, [s] and see that [t] Just One, and [u] shouldest hear the voice of his mouth.

15 For [v] thou shalt be his witness unto all men of [w] what thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and [x] wash away thy sins, [y] calling on the name of the Lord.

17 And [z] it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;

18 And saw him saying unto me, Make haste, [a] and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, [b] they know that I imprisoned and [c] beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

20 And [d] when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and [e] consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: for [f] I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

22 ¶ And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, [g] Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that [h] he should live.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air,

24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, [i] Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free-born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have [1] examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and [j] commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 Paul pleadeth his cause: 7 dissension among his accusers: 10 he is again imprisoned: 12 the Jews conspire to kill him: 23 he is sent to Felix the governor.

AND Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, I [a] have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him [b] to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and [c] commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, [d] I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, [e] Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I [f] am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: [g] of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 For [h] the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, [i] We find no evil in this man: but [j] if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let [k] us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And [l] the night following, the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, [m] certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves [1] under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to-morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And [n] when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then [o] Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain; for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, [p] The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to-morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them; for there [q] lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast showed these things to me.

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting.

27 This [r] man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.

28 And [s] when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions [t] of their law, but [u] to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and [v] gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

33 Who, when they came [w] to Cesarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was [x] of Cilicia;

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Tertullus accuseth Paul: 10 who answereth for his life and doctrine: 24 Paul preacheth Christ to the governor and his wife: 27 he is left in prison by Felix.

AND after [a] five days [b] Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing [c] that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For [d] we have found this man [1] a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes:

6 Who [e] also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have [f] judged according to our law.

7 But [g] the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 Commanding [h] his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

10 ¶ Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years [2] a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for [i] to worship.

12 And [j] they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after the [k] way which they call heresy, so worship I the [l] God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in [m] the Law and in the Prophets:

15 And [n] have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that [o] there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And [p] herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many years [q] I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 Whereupon [r] certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

19 Who [s] ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council,

21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching [t] the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

22 ¶ And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and [u] that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that [v] money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, [w] willing to show the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 Paul accused before Festus, 8 appealeth unto Cesar, 23 and declared innocent by Festus.

NOW when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cesarea to Jerusalem.

2 Then [a] the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait [b] in the way to kill him.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, [c] if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them [1] more than ten days, he went down unto Cesarea; and the next day, sitting on the judgment seat, commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, [d] and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove.

8 While he answered for himself, Neither against [e] the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cesar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus, [f] willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For [g] if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. [h] I appeal unto Cesar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cesar? unto Cesar shalt thou go.

13 ¶ And after certain days king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, [e] There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But [f] had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because [2] I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the [3] hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then [g] Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To-morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with [h] great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not [m] to live any longer.

25 But when I found that [n] he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 Paul, before Agrippa, declareth his life, 12 and his wonderful conversion, etc.

THEN Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:

2 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially because I know thee to be [1] expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews;

5 Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that [a] after the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand and am judged for the hope of [b] the promise made of God unto our fathers:

7 Unto which promise [c] our twelve tribes, instantly serving God [2] day and night, hope [d] to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise [e] the dead?

9 I [f] verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 Which [g] thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority [h] from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And [i] I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and, being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 Whereupon, [j] as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests,

13 At mid-day, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus, whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to [k] make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, [l] unto whom now I send thee,

18 To [m] open their eyes, and [n] to turn them from darkness to light, and [o] from the power of Satan unto God, that [p] they may receive forgiveness of sins, and [q] inheritance among them which are [r] sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But [s] showed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do [t] works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes [u] the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which [v] the Prophets and [w] Moses did say should come;

23 That [x] Christ should suffer, and that he [y] should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should [z] show light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 ¶ And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, [a] thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, believest thou the Prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost [b] thou persuadest me to be a Christian.

29 And Paul said, [c] I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them.

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, [d] This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, [e] if he had not appealed unto Cesar.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Paul, shipping toward Rome, 9 foretelleth the danger of the voyage, but is not believed, etc.

AND when [a] it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band.

2 And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one [b] Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius [c] courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under [1] Crete, over against Salmone;

8 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called the Fair Havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 ¶ Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, [2] because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with [3] hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain [d] to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south-west and north-west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there [4] arose against it a tempestuous wind, called [5] Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat:

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day [e] we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 ¶ But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 For [f] there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom [g] I serve,

24 Saying, [h] Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought [i] before Cesar: and, lo, God hath given [j] thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I [k] believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit [l] we must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little farther, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest they should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship,

31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, [m] Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat; for this is for your health: for [n] there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and [o] gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen [p] souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and [q] cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had [6] taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder-bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, [r] they ran the ship aground: and the fore part stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel [s] was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, [t] willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped [u] all safe to land.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 Paul entertained by the barbarians: 5 The viper on his hand hurteth him not. 8 He healeth many diseases in the island.

AND when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called [a] Melita.

2 And the barbarous people showed [b] us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No [c] doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

7 ¶ In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and [f] prayed, and laid [g] his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

10 Who also honoured us with many [h] honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 ¶ And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii Forum, and the Three Taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but [i] Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I [j] have committed nothing against the people or customs of our fathers, yet was I [k] delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

18 Who, [l] when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews spake against it, I [m] was constrained to appeal unto Cesar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that [n] for the hope of Israel I am bound with this [o] chain.

21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came showed or spake any harm of thee.

22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where [p] it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; [q] to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, [r] both out of the law of Moses, and out of the Prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And [s] some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers,

26 Saying, [t] Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:

27 For [u] the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent [v] unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.

29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.

30 ¶ And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him,

31 Preaching [w] the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul commendeth to the Romans his calling, 16 showeth that the Gospel is for the justification of all men through faith. 21 The sins of the Gentiles.

PAUL, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to [a] be an apostle, [b] separated unto the gospel of God,

2 (Which [c] he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy Scriptures,)

3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh;

4 And [1] declared to be the Son of God with power, according [d] to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:

5 By whom [e] we have received grace and apostleship, [2] for obedience to the faith among all nations, [f] for his name:

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ:

7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, [g] I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that [h] your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

9 For God is my witness, whom I serve [3] with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;

10 Making request (if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey [i] by the will of God) to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that [j] I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;

12 That is, that I may be comforted together [4] with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that [k] oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was [l] let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit [5] among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

14 I [m] am debtor both to the Greeks and to the Barbarians, both to the wise and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For [n] I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for [o] it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For [p] therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, [q] The just shall live by faith.

18 For [r] the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, [s] who hold the truth in unrighteousness.

19 Because [t] that which may be known of God is manifest [6] in them; for [u] God hath showed it unto them.

20 For [v] the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so [7] that they are without excuse:

21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, [w] neither were thankful; but [x] became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 Professing [y] themselves to be wise, they became fools,

23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible [z] God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

24 Wherefore [a] God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, [b] to dishonour their own bodies between [c] themselves:

25 Who changed [d] the truth of God into a [e] lie, and worshipped and served the creature [8] more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile [f] affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like [9] to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to [10] a reprobate mind, to do those things which [g] are not convenient:

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenant-breakers, [11] without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:

32 Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but [12] have pleasure in them that do them.

CHAPTER II.

1 They who condemn sin in others, and do the like themselves, are inexcusable, whether Jews or Gentiles. 17 The Jews, sinning against boasted light, doubly guilty.

THEREFORE thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according [a] to truth against them which commit such things.

3 And [b] thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

4 Or despisest thou [c] the riches of his goodness and forbearance and [d] long-suffering; [e] not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But after thy hardness and impenitent heart [f] treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

6 Who [g] will render to every man according to his deeds:

7 To [h] them who by patient continuance in well-doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life;

8 But [i] unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the [j] Jew first, and also of the [1] Gentile;

10 But [k] glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the [2] Gentile.

11 For there is [l] no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law; and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law,

13 (For [m] not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:

15 Which show the work of the law written in their hearts, [3] their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts [4] the mean while accusing or else excusing one another,)

16 In [n] the day when God shall judge the secrets of men [o] by Jesus Christ according to my gospel.

17 Behold, [p] thou art called a Jew, and restest [q] in the law, [r] and makest thy boast of God,

18 And [s] knowest his will, and [5] approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law;

19 And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,

20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, [t] which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

21 Thou [u] therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, [v] dost thou commit sacrilege?

23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it [w] is written.

25 For [x] circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 Therefore [y] if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge [z] thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

28 For [a] he is not a Jew which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew [b] which is one inwardly; and [c] circumcision is that of the heart, [d] in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAPTER III.

1 The Jews' prerogative not made void by the unbelief of some. 20 None justified by the law, but all by God's grace.

WHAT advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way: chiefly, because that unto [a] them were committed the oracles of God.

3 For what if [b] some did not believe? shall their [c] unbelief make the faith of God without effect?

4 God [d] forbid: yea, let [e] God be true, but every [f] man a liar; as it is written, [g] That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? [h] (I speak as a man)

6 God forbid: for then [i] how shall God judge the world?

7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let [j] us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before [1] proved both Jews and Gentiles, that [k] they are all under sin;

10 As it is written, [l] There is none righteous, no, not one:

13 Their [m] throat is an open sepulchre: with their tongues they have used deceit: the [n] poison of asps is under their lips:
14 Whose [o] mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:
15 Their [p] feet are swift to shed blood:
16 Destruction and misery are in their ways;
17 And the way of peace have they not known:
18 There [q] is no fear of God before their eyes.
19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law; that [r] every mouth may be stopped, and [s] all the world may become [2] guilty before God.
20 Therefore [t] by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for [u] by the law is the knowledge of sin.
21 But now [v] the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the Law and [w] the Prophets;
22 Even the righteousness of God which is by [x] faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe; for [y] there is no difference:
23 For [z] all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;
24 Being justified freely [a] by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:
25 Whom God hath [3] set forth to [b] be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the [4] remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;
26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.
27 Where [c] is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay; but by the law of faith.
28 Therefore we conclude [d] that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.
29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:
30 Seeing it is one God which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.
31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Abraham justified by faith: 18 his faith recorded for those who believe.

WHAT shall we then say that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?
2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.
3 For what saith the Scripture? Abraham believed [a] God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.
4 Now to [b] him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.
5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the [c] ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.
6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God [d] imputeth righteousness without works,
7 Saying, [e] Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.
8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.
9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.
10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.
11 And [f] he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that [g] he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:
12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.
13 For the promise, that he should be the [h] heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.
14 For [i] if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be [j] by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; [k] who is the father of us all,

17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) [1] before him whom he believed, even God, who [l] quickeneth the dead, and calleth [m] those things which be not as though they were.

18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, [n] So shall thy seed be.

19 And being not weak in faith, he [o] considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sara's womb:

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;

21 And being fully persuaded that what he had promised he was able also to perform.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now [p] it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe [q] on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;

25 Who [r] was delivered for our offences, and was [s] raised again for our justification.

CHAPTER V.

1 Being justified by faith, we have peace with God. 12 Sin and death came by Adam, 17 righteousness and life by Jesus Christ.

THEREFORE being justified by faith, we have [a] peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:

2 By [b] whom also we have access by faith into this grace [c] wherein we stand, [d] and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but [e] we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope:

p John 12, 32. Heb. 2, 9.

5 And [f] hope maketh not ashamed; because [g] the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost, which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, [1] in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But [h] God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, being now justified by [i] his blood, we shall be saved [j] from wrath through him.

10 For if, when we were enemies, we [k] were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved [l] by his life.

11 And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the [2] atonement.

12 Wherefore, as [m] by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, [3] for that all have sinned:

13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but [n] sin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded [o] unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if [4] by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)

18 Therefore as [5] by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so [6] by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon [p] all men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners; so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover [q] the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did [r] much more abound:

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER VI.

1 We must not live in sin, 2 for we are dead unto it: 12 nor let sin reign in us.

WHAT shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid. How shall we, that are dead [a] to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that [b] so many of us as [1] were baptized into Jesus Christ [c] were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are [d] buried with him by baptism into death; that like [e] as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, [f] even so we also should walk in newness of life.

5 For [g] if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that [h] our old man is crucified with him, that the [i] body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For he that is dead is [2] freed from sin.

8 Now [j] if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

9 Knowing that [k] Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but [l] alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let [m] not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye your members as [3] instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For [n] sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin, [o] because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine [4] which was delivered you.

18 Being then [p] made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free [5] from righteousness.

21 What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

23 For [q] the wages of sin is death; but the [r] gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER VII.

1 No law hath power over a man longer than he liveth. 5 The law is holy.

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For [a] the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then [b] if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

CHAP. 7.

[a] Matth. 19, 6. 1 Cor. 7, 39.

[b] Matth. 5, 32. Mark 10, 12. Luke 16, 18. 1 Cor. 6, 9. Gal. 5, 19, 21. Heb. 13, 4.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become [c] dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be [d] married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the [1] motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members [e] to bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, [2] that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve [f] in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, [g] I had not known sin but by the law: for I had not known lust, [3] except the law had said, [h] Thou shalt not covet.

8 But [i] sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without [j] the law sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment, which [k] was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore [l] the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, [m] sold under sin.

15 For that which I do I [4] allow not: for what [n] I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that [o] in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For I [p] delight in the law of God after the [q] inward man:

23 But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from [5] the body of this death?

25 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God, but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Who are free from condemnation. 5, 13 What harm cometh of the flesh. 6, 14 what good of the Spirit. 17 and what of being God's children. 31 The Christian's hope.

THERE is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who [a] walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For [b] the law of [c] the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For [d] what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and [1] for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the [e] things of the Spirit.

6 For [2] to be carnally minded is death; but [3] to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

7 Because [4] the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that [f] the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the [g] Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, [h] he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies [5] by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For [i] if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For [j] ye have not received the spirit of bondage again [k] to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of [l] adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

16 The [m] Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

17 And if children, then heirs; heirs [n] of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that [o] the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For [p] the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation [q] of the sons of God.

20 For [r] the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope;

21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that [6] the whole creation groaneth [s] and travaileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have [t] the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting [u] for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved by hope: but hope that [v] is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for [w] we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but [x] the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And [y] he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, [7] because he maketh intercession for the saints [z] according to the will of God.

28 And we know that [a] all things work together for good to them that love God, to them [b] who are the called according to his purpose.

29 For whom [c] he did foreknow, he [d] also did predestinate [e] to be conformed to the image of his Son, that [f] he might be the first-born among many brethren.

30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he [g] also called; and whom he called, them he also justified; [h] and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? [i] It is God that justifieth;

34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who [j] also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 As it is written, [k] For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

37 Nay, [l] in all these things we are more than conquerors, through him that loved us.

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor [m] principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall [n] be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Paul's sorrow for the Jews. 7 All Abraham's seed were not the children of the promise. 25 The calling of the Gentiles, and rejection of the Jews, foretold.

I SAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost,
2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.
3 For [a] I could wish that myself were [1] accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:
4 Who [b] are Israelites; [c] to whom pertaineth the adoption, and [d] the glory, and the [2] covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and [e] the promises;
5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, [f] who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.
6 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For [g] they are not all Israel which are of Israel:
7 Neither, [h] because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In [i] Isaac shall thy seed be called.
8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.
9 For this is the word of promise, At [j] this time will I come, and Sara shall have a son.
10 And not only this; but when Rebecca [k] also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac,
11 (For the children being [l] not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth,) 12 It was said unto her, The [3] elder shall serve the [4] younger.
13 As it is written, [m] Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.
14 What shall we say then? [n] Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.
15 For he saith to Moses, [o] I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.
16 So [p] then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that showeth mercy.
17 For the Scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even [q] for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might show my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.
18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.
19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? [r] for who hath resisted his will?
20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that [5] repliest against God? [s] Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?
21 Hath not the [t] potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make [u] one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?
22 What if God, willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering the [v] vessels of wrath [6] fitted to destruction;
23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory,
24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?
25 As he saith also in Osee, [w] I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.
26 And [x] it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God.
27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though [y] the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:
28 For he will finish [7] the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because [z] a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.
29 And as Esaias said before, Except [a] the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we [b] had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha.
30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith;
31 But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath [c] not attained to the law of righteousness.
32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by

CHAPTER X.

1 Paul's prayer for Israel. 11 Salvation open to Jews and Gentiles.

BRETHREN, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record [a] that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of God's [b] righteousness, and going about to establish their own [c] righteousness, have not [d] submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For [e] Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, [f] That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, [g] Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring [h] Christ down from above;)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to [i] bring up Christ again from the dead.)

8 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the Scripture saith, [j] Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

12 For [k] there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the [l] same Lord over all [m] is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 For [n] whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without [o] a preacher?

17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, [s] their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, [t] I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a [u] foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Esaias is very bold, and saith, [v] I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

CHAPTER XI.

1 A remnant of Israel saved by grace. 17 The Gentiles may not boast against them.

I SAY then, [a] Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For [b] I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he [c] foreknew. Wot ye not what the Scripture saith [1] of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3 Lord, [d] they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

5 Even [e] so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And [f] if by grace, then is it no more of works; otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace; otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? [g] Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the [h] election hath obtained it, and the rest were [2] blinded

8 (According as it is written, God [h]hath given them the spirit of [3]slumber, [j] eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.

9 And David saith, [k] Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling-block, and a recompence unto them:

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they [l]should fall? God forbid: but rather through [m] their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the [4]diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their [n] fulness!

13 For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as [o] I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office;

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and [p] might save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For [q] if the first-fruit be holy, the lump is also holy; and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 And if [r] some of the branches be broken off, [s] and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert graffed in [t] among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree;

18 Boast [s] not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be graffed in.

20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be [u] not high-minded, but [v] fear:

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if [w] thou continue in his goodness: otherwise [x] thou also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, [y] if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree, which is wild by nature, and wert graffed contrary to nature into a good olive tree; how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be graffed into their own olive tree!

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits, that [6] blindness in part is happened to Israel, until [z] the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so [a] all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, [b] There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

27 For [c] this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

28 As concerning the Gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are [d] beloved for the fathers' sakes.

29 For the gifts and calling of God are without [e] repentance.

30 For as ye in times past have not [7] believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief;

31 Even so have these also now not [8] believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

32 For God hath [9] concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

34 For [f] who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

35 Or [g] who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

36 For [h] of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to [10] whom be glory for ever. Amen.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Holiness enjoined. 9 Sundry practical duties recommended.

I BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye [a] present your bodies [b] a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think [1] soberly, according as God hath dealt [f] to every man the measure of faith.

4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office;

5 So [g] we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Of subjection to magistrates. 8 Love containeth the whole law, etc.

LET every soul [a] be subject unto the higher powers. For [b] there is no power but of God: the powers that be are [1] ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For [c] rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? Do [d] that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore [e] ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience' sake.

6 For, for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 Render [f] therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; [g] fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: [h] for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou [i] shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time [j] to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and [k] let us put on the armour of light.

13 Let [l] us walk [2] honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not [m] in strife and envying:

14 But [n] put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and [o] make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

CHAPTER XIV.

How to treat a weak brother.

HIM that [a] is weak in the faith receive ye, but [1] not to doubtful disputations.

2 For one believeth that he [b] may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and [c] let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.

4 Who [d] art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up; for God is able to make him stand.

5 One [e] man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be [2] fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that [3] regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for [f] he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For [g] none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For [h] to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be [i] Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for [j] we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, [k] As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then [l] every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that [m] no man put a stumblingblock, or an occasion to fall, in his brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, [n] that there is nothing [4] unclean of itself: but [o] to him that esteemeth any thing to be [5] unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not [6] charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat for whom Christ died.

16 Let [p] not then your good be evil spoken of:

17 For [q] the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

18 For he that in these things serveth Christ [r] is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

19 Let [s] us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith [t] one may edify another.

20 For meat destroy not the work of God. All [u] things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 And he that [7] doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever [v] is not of faith is sin.

CHAPTER XV.

1 The strong ought to bear with the weak.
2 We may not please ourselves.

WE [a] then that are strong ought to bear the [b] infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 Let [c] every one of us please his neighbour for his good [d] to edification.

3 For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, [e] The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

4 For [f] whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning; that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope.

5 Now [g] the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like minded one toward another [1] according to Christ Jesus;

6 That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore receive ye one another, [h] as Christ also received us, to the glory of God.

8 Now I say that [i] Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, [j] to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:

9 And [k] that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, [l] For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith, [m] Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again, [n] Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.

12 And again, Esaias saith, [o] There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 And [p] I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, [q] filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because [r] of the grace that is given to me of God,

16 That [s] I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the [2] offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ in [t] those things which pertain to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things [u] which Christ hath not wrought by me, [v] to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed,

19 Through [w] mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was named, [x] lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

21 But as it is written, [y] To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also [z] I have been [3] much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now having no more place in these parts, and [a] having a great desire these many years to come unto you;

24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, [b] and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled [4] with your company.

25 But now [c] I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints.

26 For [d] it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their [e] duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them [f] this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

29 And [g] I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the [h] fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and [i] for the love of the Spirit, that [j] ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;

31 That [k] I may be delivered from them that [5] do not believe in Judea; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints;

32 That I may come unto you with joy by [l] the will of God, and may with you [m] be refreshed.

33 Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

CHAPTER XVI.

Paul sendeth salutations to many.

I COMMEND unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at [a] Cenchrea:

2 That [b] ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.

3 Greet [c] Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus:

4 Who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

5 Likewise greet [d] the church that is in their house. Salute my well beloved Epenetus, who is [e] the first-fruits of Achaia unto Christ.

6 Greet Mary, who [f] bestowed much labour on us.

7 Salute Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen, and my fellow-prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also [g] were in Christ before me.

8 Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord.

9 Salute Urbane our helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloved.

10 Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobulus' [1] household.

11 Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet them that be of the [2] household of Narcissus, which are in the Lord.

12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis, which laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute Rufus [h] chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

14 Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren which are with them.

15 Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints which are with them.

[e] Romans 3, 22.

2 Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that [b] are sanctified in Christ Jesus, [c] called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our [d] Lord, [e] both theirs and ours:

3 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;

5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, [f] in all utterance, and in all knowledge;

6 Even as [g] the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:

7 So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the [1] coming of our Lord Jesus Christ:

8 Who [h] shall also confirm you unto the end, [i] that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 God [j] is faithful, by whom ye were called unto [k] the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no [2] divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, [l] that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I [m] of Apollos; and I of [n] Cephas; and I of Christ.

13 Is [o] Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you but [p] Crispus [q] and Gaius;

15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household [r] of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For [s] Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the Gospel: not with wisdom of [3] words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to them [t] that perish [u] foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is [v] the power of God.

19 For it is written, [w] I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 Where [x] is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath [y] not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 For [z] after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For the [a] Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the [b] Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness;

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ [c] the power of God, and the [d] wisdom of God.

25 Because [e] the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that [f] not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:

27 But [g] God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and [h] things which are not, [i] to bring to nought things that are:

29 That no flesh should glory in his presence.

30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

31 That, according as it is written, [j] He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

CHAPTER II.

1 How Paul preached the Gospel: 6 which is God's wise counsel for men's salvation.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, came [a] not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.

2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, [b] save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And [c] I was with you [d] in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching [e] was not with [1] enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:

[1] Or, persuasible.

5 That your faith should not [2]stand in the wisdom of men, but in the [f] power of God.

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that [g] are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, [h] which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

8 Which [i] none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, [j] Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But [k] God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, [l] save the spirit of man which is in him? [m] even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but [n] the Spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 Which [o] things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 But [p] the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither [q] can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But [r] he that is spiritual [3]judgeth all things, yet he himself is [4]judged of no man.

16 For [s] who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he [5] may instruct him? But [t] we have the mind of Christ.

CHAPTER III.

How Paul dealt with weak believers, etc.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with [a] milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and [1]divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk [2]as men?

4 For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even [b] as the Lord gave to every man?

6 I [c] have planted, [d] Apollos watered; but God [e] gave the increase.

7 So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: [f] and every man shall receive his own reward, according to his own labour.

9 For [g] we are labourers together with God: ye are God's [3]husbandry, ye are God's [h] building.

10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise master-builder, I have laid [i] the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But [j] let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

11 For other foundation can no man lay than [k] that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day [l] shall declare it, because it [4]shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's work shall be burnt, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; [m] yet so as by fire.

16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man [5] defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the [n] temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, [o] He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

23 And [r] ye are Christ's; [s] and Christ is God's.

CHAPTER IV.

1 How to account of Christ's ministers. 8 To a self-sufficient vanity Paul opposeth his own afflicted state, etc.

LET a man so account of us as of the ministers of Christ, [a] and stewards of the mysteries of God.
2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.
3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's [1] judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.
4 For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.
5 Therefore [b] judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and [c] then shall every man have praise of God.
6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that [d] ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.
7 For who [2] maketh thee to differ from another? and [e] what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?
8 Now ye are full, [f] now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.
9 For I think that God hath set forth us [3] the apostles last, [g] as it were appointed to death: for [h] we are made a [4] spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.
10 We are [i] fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; [j] we are weak, but ye are strong: ye are honourable, but we are despised.

13 Being defamed, we entreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day.
14 I write not these things to shame you, but, as my beloved sons, I warn you.
15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for [n] in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the Gospel.
16 Wherefore I beseech you, [o] be ye followers of me.
17 For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, [p] who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church.
18 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.
19 But I [q] will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.
20 For [r] the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.
21 What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

CHAPTER V.

1 Of the incestuous person. 6 Of necessity the old leaven must be purged out, etc.

IT is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named [a] among the Gentiles, [b] that one should have his father's [c] wife.
2 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.
3 For [d] I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have [1] judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,
4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, [e] with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,
5 To deliver [f] such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

6 Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that [g] a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even [h] Christ our [i] passover [2] is sacrificed for us:

8 Therefore [j] let us keep [3] the feast, not with [k] old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle not [l] to company with fornicators:

10 Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out [m] of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, [n] if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no [o] not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge them also [p] that are without? do not ye judge them that are within?

13 But them that are without God [q] judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Of bringing controversies before heathen judges. 7 How law-suits may be avoided.

DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

2 Do ye not know that [a] the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall judge [b] angels? how much more things that pertain to this life!

4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. [c] Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that [d] your brethren.

9 Know ye not that [e] the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were some of you; but [f] ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 All [g] things are lawful unto me, but all things are not [1] expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for [h] the Lord, and [i] the Lord for the body.

14 And [j] God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by [k] his own power.

15 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.

16 What! know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? [l] for two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 But [m] he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body: but he that committeth fornication sinneth [n] against his own body.

19 What! [o] know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and [p] ye are not your own?

20 For [q] ye are bought with a price: therefore [r] glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

2 Nevertheless, [a] to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 Let [b] the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that [c] Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, and [d] not of commandment.

7 For [e] I would that all men were even as [f] I myself. But [g] every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, [h] it is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But [i] if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, [j] Let not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else [k] were your children unclean; but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us [1] to peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save [l] thy husband? Or [2] how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And [m] so ordain I in all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let [n] him not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision [o] is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but [p] the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let [q] every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art [r] thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be [s] made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's [3] freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is [t] Christ's servant.

23 Ye [u] are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins [v] I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one [w] that hath obtained mercy of the Lord [x] to be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present [4] distress; I say, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But [y] this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 And they that use this world, as [z] not abusing it: for [a] the fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you without carefulness. [b] He that is unmarried careth for the things [5] that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. [c] The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

38 So [d] then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

39 The [e] wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; [f] only in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Charity preferable to knowledge. 4 An idol is nothing to those who rightly know God.

NOW [a] as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have [b] knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2 And [c] if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, [d] the same is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that [e] an idol is nothing in the world, [f] and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that [g] are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)

6 But [h] to us there is but one God, the Father, [i] of whom are all things, and we [1] in him; and [j] one Lord Jesus Christ, [k] by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

8 But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, [2] are we the better; neither, if we eat not, [3] are we the worse.

9 But take heed, lest by any means this [4] liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be [5] emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

12 But [l] when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

13 Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Paul asserteth his apostolical character, 3 and right to a maintenance. 24 Life compared to a race. 26 He striveth to obtain an incorruptible crown.

AM [a] I not an apostle? am I not free? have [b] I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for [c] the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this;

4 Have [d] we not power to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a [1] wife, as well as other apostles, and as [e] the brethren of the Lord, and [f] Cephas?

6 Or I only and Barnabas, [g] have not we power to forbear working?

7 Who [h] goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who [i] planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth [j] a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

Moses, Thou [k] shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that [l] he that plougheth should plough in hope; and that he that thrasheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

11 If [m] we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless [n] we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 Do [o] ye not know that they which minister about holy things [2] live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

14 Even [p] so hath the Lord ordained that they [q] which preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel.

15 But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

16 For though I preach the Gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the Gospel!

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward; but if against my will, a [r] dispensation of the Gospel is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the Gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the Gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet have [s] I made myself servant unto all, [t] that I might gain the more.

20 And [u] unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;

21 To [v] them that are without law, as without law, ([w] being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

22 To [x] the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the Gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So [y] run, that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that [z] striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we an [a] incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, not as [b] uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

27 But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection; lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be [c] a cast-away.

CHAPTER X.

1 The Jews had sacraments typical of ours. 6 Christians must not lust after evil things: 7 they must avoid idolatry. 13 God will in affliction make a way for them to escape, etc.

MOREOVER, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the [a] cloud, and all passed through the [b] sea;

2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

3 And did all eat the same [c] spiritual meat;

4 And did all drink the same spiritual [d] drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that [1] followed them; and that Rock was Christ.

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things were [2] our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.

7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, [e] The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and [f] fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as some [g] of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for [3] ensamples: and they [h] are written for our admonition, [i] upon whom the ends of the world are come.

12 Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you but [k] such as is common to man: but God is faithful, [j] who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also [k] make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.

16 The [l] cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? [m] The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

17 For [n] we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

18 Behold [o] Israel after the flesh: are [p] not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles [q] sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21 Ye [r] cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and [s] the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

22 Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are [t] we stronger than he?

23 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.

24 Let [u] no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.

25 Whatsoever [v] is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience' sake:

26 For the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

27 If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go, [w] whatsoever is set before you eat, asking no question for conscience' sake.

28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not [z] for his sake that showed it, and for conscience' sake: for [y] the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for [z] why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience?

30 For if I by [5] grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks?

31 Whether [a] therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

32 Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the [6] Gentiles, nor to the church of God:

33 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

CHAPTER XI.

1 He exhorteth them, 3 and forbiddeth men to pray or prophesy with their heads covered, and women with their heads uncovered. 23 Of the Lord's supper.

BE [a] ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and [b] keep the [1] ordinances, as I delivered them to you.

3 But I would have you know, that [c] the head of every man is Christ; and the [d] head of the woman is the man; and [e] the head of Christ is God.

4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 But [f] every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered, dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were [g] shaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be [h] a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as [i] he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For [j] the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.

9 Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman [k] to have [2] power on her head [l] because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless [m] neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but [n] all things of God.

13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a [3] covering.

16 But [o] if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, [p] I hear that there be [4] divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For [q] there must be also [5] heresies among you, [r] that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, [6] this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and [s] another is drunken.

22 What! have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or [t] despise ye the church of God, and shame [7] them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For [u] I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do [8] in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is [v] the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, [9] ye do show the Lord's death [w] till he come.

28 But [y] let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh [10] damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31 For [z] if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, [a] we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto [11] condemnation. And the rest [b] will I set in order when [c] I come.

CHAPTER XII.

Spiritual gifts are diverse, yet all to profit withal, and to that end are diversely bestowed of God for the general good.

NOW [a] concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know [b] that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that [c] no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus [1] accursed; and [d] that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

4 Now [e] there are diversities of gifts, but the [f] same Spirit.

5 And there are differences of [2] administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which [g] worketh all in all.

7 But [h] the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word [i] of wisdom; to another [j] the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

9 To [k] another faith by the same Spirit; to another [l] the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;

10 To [m] another the working of miracles; to another [n] prophecy; to [o] another discerning of spirits; to another [p] divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:

11 But all these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit, [q] dividing to every man severally [r] as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body; [s] so also is Christ.

13 For [t] by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, [u] whether we be Jews or [3] Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and [v] have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? if the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we [4] bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no [5] schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now [w] ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And [x] God hath set some in the church, first [y] apostles, secondarily [z] prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, [a] helps, [b] governments, [6] diversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all [7] workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But [c] covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet show I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 All gifts, however excellent, are nothing without charity: 4 the praises thereof.

THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not [d] charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift [b] of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, [c] so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And [d] though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Charity [e] suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity [1] vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

5 Doth not behave itself [f] unseemly, seeketh [g] not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

6 Rejoiceth [h] not in iniquity, [i] but rejoiceth [2] in the truth;

7 Beareth [j] all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For [k] we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But [l] when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child,

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but [o] the greatest of these is charity.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Prophecy commended, 2, 3, 4 and preferred before speaking with tongues: 12 both must be referred to edification. 34 Women forbidden to speak in the church.

FOLLOW after [a] charity, [b] and desire spiritual gifts, [c] but rather that ye may prophesy.

2 For he that [d] speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man [1] understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh [e] mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth [f] speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether [g] pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the [2] sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words [3] easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into [h] the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous [4] of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that [i] he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also; [j] I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing [k] with the understanding also.

16 Else, when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say [l] Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, [m] be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be [n] ye children, but in understanding be [5] men.

21 In [o] the Law it is [p] written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, [q] will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest: and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report [r] that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, [s] hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let [t] all things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, [u] let the first hold his peace.

31 For [v] ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And [w] the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of [6] confusion, but of peace, [x] as in all churches of the saints.

34 Let [y] your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are [z] commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the [a] Law.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What! came the word of God [b] out from you? or came it unto you only?

37 If [c] any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, [d] covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

40 Let all things be done decently and in order.

CHAPTER XV.

1 By Christ's resurrection the apostle inferreth the necessity of our resurrection. 23 Christ the first-fruits. 35 The manner of the resurrection, 51 and of the change upon them that shall then be alive.

MOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and [a] wherein ye stand;

2 By [b] which also ye are saved, if ye [1] keep in memory [2] what I preached unto you, unless [c] ye have believed in vain.

3 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according [d] to the Scriptures;

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according [e] to the Scriptures:

5 And [f] that he was seen of Cephas, then of [g] the twelve:

6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that, he was seen of James; then of [h] all the apostles.

8 And [i] last of all he was seen of me also, as of [3] one born out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because [j] I persecuted the church of God.

10 But [k] by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but [l] I laboured more abundantly than they all: [m] yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that [n] there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, [o] then is Christ not risen:

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; [p] ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 If [q] in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now [r] is Christ risen from the dead, and become [s] the first-fruits of them that slept.

21 For [t] since by man came death, by [u] man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But [v] every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up [w] the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, [x] till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 The [y] last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For he [z] hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith, All things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted which did put all things under him.

28 And [a] when all things shall be subdued unto him, then [b] shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And [c] why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by [4] your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, [d] I die daily.

32 If [5] after the manner of men I [e] have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? [f] let us eat and drink; for to-morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 Awake [g] to righteousness, and sin not; for [h] some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, [i] How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, [j] that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die.

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But [k] God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 So [l] also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

43 It [m] is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Adam [n] was made a living soul; the [o] last Adam was made [p] a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 The [q] first man is of the [r] earth, earthy; the second man is the Lord from [s] heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy; [t] and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And [u] as we have borne the image of the earthy, [v] we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that [w] flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I show you a mystery; We [x] shall not all sleep, [y] but we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for [z] the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and [a] this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death [b] is swallowed up in victory.

11 Let [i] no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.
12 As touching our [j] brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.
13 Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.
14 Let all your things be done with charity.
15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first-fruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,)
16 That ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth.
17 I am glad of the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: for [k] that which was lacking on your part they have supplied.
18 For [l] they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.
19 The [m] churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, [n] with the church that is in their house.
20 All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with an holy kiss.
21 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand.
22 If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, [o] let him be Anathema [p] Maran-atha.
23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

The first epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi by Stephanas, and Fortunatus and Achaicus, and Timotheus.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER I.

3 The apostle encourageth against troubles, 12 showeth the sincerity of his preaching.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all [a] the saints which are in all Achaia:
2 Grace [b] be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 Blessed [c] be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, [d] the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

4 Who [e] comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For as [f] the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it [g] is for your consolation and salvation, which [1] is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that [h] as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of [i] our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:

9 But we had the [2] sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not [j] trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead:

10 Who [k] delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;

11 Ye also [l] helping together by prayer for us, that [m] for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity [n] and godly sincerity, not [o] with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

13 For we write none other things unto you than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;

14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, [p] that we are your rejoicing, even as ye [q] also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence [r] I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have [s] a second [3] benefit;

16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and [t] to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judea.

18 But as God is true, our [4] word toward you was not yea and nay.

19 For [v] the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and [w] Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.

20 For [x] all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and [y] hath anointed us, is God;

22 Who [z] hath also sealed us, and given [a] the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, [b] that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by [c] faith ye stand.

CHAPTER II.

1 The reasons of Paul's not coming unto them. 6 Of the excommunicated person.

BUT I determined this with myself, that I [a] would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; [b] having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not [c] that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But [d] if any have caused grief, he hath not [e] grieved me, but in part; that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this [1] punishment, which was inflicted of [f] many.

7 So [g] that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it [2]in the person of Christ;

11 Lest [h]Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, [i]when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord,

13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish:

16 To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, which [3]corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we [4]in Christ.

CHAPTER III.

He showeth that their gifts and graces were a sufficient commendation of his ministry.

DO [a]we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles [b]of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 Ye [c]are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by [d]us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not [e]in tables of stone, but [f]in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:

5 Not [g]that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our [h]sufficiency is of God;

6 Who also hath made us able ministers of [i]the new testament; not [j]of the letter, but of the spirit: for [k]the letter killeth, but [l]the spirit [1]giveth life.

7 But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away;

8 How shall not [m]the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of [n]righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great [2]plainness of speech:

13 And not as Moses, [o]which put a veil over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the [p]end of that which is abolished.

14 But [q]their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away in the reading of the Old Testament; which veil is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the veil is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless [r]when it shall turn to the Lord, [s]the veil shall be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all, with open face beholding as [t]in a glass the glory of the Lord, [u]are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as [3]by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Paul's unwearied diligence and zeal in preaching: 7 his troubles for the same.

THEREFORE, seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;

2 But have renounced the hidden things of [1]dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor [a]handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our Gospel be hid, [b]it is hid to them that are lost:

4 In whom [c] the god of this world hath [d] blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, [e] who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; [f] and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

6 For God, [g] who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, [2] hath shined [h] in our hearts, to give [i] the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure [j] in earthen vessels, [k] that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but [3] not in despair;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

10 Always [l] bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, [m] that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, [n] I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAPTER V.

Paul, in assured hope of immortal glory, laboureth to approve himself to Christ.

FOR we know that if [a] our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have [b] a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this [c] we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that [d] being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but [e] clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now [f] he that hath wrought us for the self-same thing is God, who [g] also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For [h] we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, [i] and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we [1] labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; [j] that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men: but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory [2] in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For [k] whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God; or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if [l] one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, [m] that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 Wherefore [n] henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet [c] now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore, if any man be in Christ, [3] he is a new creature: [p] old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that [q] God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath [4] committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are [r] ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For [s] he hath made him to be sin for us, who [t] knew no sin; that we might be made [u] the righteousness of God in him.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Paul's sufferings and patience in the ministry. 14 Exhortation to avoid idolaters, etc.

WE then, as [a] workers together with him, beseech you also that [b] ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, [c] I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

3 Giving [d] no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things [1] approving ourselves as [e] the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in imprisonments, [2] in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

7 By the word of truth, by [f] the power of God, by [g] the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;

9 As unknown, and [h] yet well known; [i] as dying, and, behold, we live; [j] as chastened, and not killed;

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but [k] ye are straitened in your own bowels.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

14 Be [l] ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: [m] for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for [n] ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, [o] I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore [p] come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,

18 And [q] will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAPTER VII.

1 He exhorteth to purity of life, 3 and showeth the source of his comfort in afflictions.

HAVING [a] therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great [b] is my glorying of you: [c] I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For, [d] when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we [e] were troubled on every side; without [f] were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless [g] God, that com-forteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus;

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though [h] I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry [1] after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For [i] godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: [j] but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold this self-same thing, that ye [k] sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed [l] by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his [2] inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth [m] the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice therefore that [n] I have confidence in you in all things.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 He stirreth them up to contribute to the saints: 16 he commendeth Titus and others, etc.

MOREOVER, brethren, [1] we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;

2 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy [a] and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their [2] liberality.

3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power, they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much entreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us [b] the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first [c] gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God:

6 Insomuch that [d] we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same [3] grace also:

7 Therefore, as [e] ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 I [g] speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, [h] that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein [i] I give my advice: for this is [j] expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be [4] forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 For [k] if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened;

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, [l] He that had gathered much had nothing over: and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

18 And we have sent with him the [m] brother, whose praise is in the Gospel throughout all the churches;

19 And not that only, but who was also chosen [n] of the churches to travel with us with this [5] grace, which is administered by us [o] to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

20 Avoiding [p] this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 Providing [q] for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which [6] I have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you; or our brethren be enquired of, they are [r] the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore show ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

CHAPTER IX.

1 He showeth why he sent the brethren, 6 and stirreth them up to give bountifully, as a likely means to increase their store.

FOR as touching [a] the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:

2 For I know [b] the forwardness of your mind, [c] for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, [d] that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 Yet [e] have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready:

4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your [1] bounty, [2] whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

6 But [f] this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; [g] not grudgingly, or of necessity: for [h] God loveth a cheerful giver.

8 And [i] God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

9 (As it is written, [j] He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.

10 Now he that [k] ministereth seed to the sower, both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of [l] your righteousness;)

11 Being enriched in every thing to all [3] bountifulness, [m] which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12 For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God;

13 Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they [n] glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution [o] unto them, and unto all men;

14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.

15 Thanks be unto God [p] for his unspeakable gift.

CHAPTER X.

He wisheth for no cause to exert his spiritual power and authority, etc.

NOW [a] I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who [1] in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you:

2 But I beseech you, [b] that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which [2] think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

4 (For [c] the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty [3] through God [d] to the pulling down of strong holds;)

6 And [f] having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your [g] obedience is fulfilled.

7 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? [h] If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we [i] Christ's.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed:

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters, [5] say they, are weighty and powerful; but [j] his bodily presence is weak, and his speech [k] contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 For [l] we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, [6] are not wise.

13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the [7] rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you; [m] for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:

15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, [n] of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be [8] enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly,

16 To preach the Gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's [9] line of things made ready to our hand.

17 But [o] he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Paul unwillingly entereth into a commendation of himself with the other apostles: 7 he declineth being chargeable: 23 he showeth his sufferings for the Gospel.

WOULD to God ye could bear with me a little in [a] my folly: and indeed [1] bear with me.

2 For I am [b] jealous over you with godly jealousy: for [c] I have espoused you to one husband, that [d] I may present you [e] as a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the [f] serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds [g] should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another [h] gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear [2] with him.

5 For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in [i] knowledge: but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence in abasing [j] myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, [k] I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me [l] the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself [m] from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 As [n] the truth of Christ is in me, [3] no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? [o] because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, that I [p] may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory they may be found even as we.

13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into [q] an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose [r] end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool: if otherwise, yet as a fool [t] receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak, [s] I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, [t] in this confidence of boasting.

18 Seeing [u] that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise.

20 For ye suffer, [v] if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, as [w] though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

22 Are they Hebrews? [x] so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.

23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool,) [y] I am more: in labours more abundant, [z] in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft.

24 Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes [a] save one,

25 Thrice was I [b] beaten with rods, once was [c] I stoned, thrice [d] I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, [e] in perils by mine own countrymen, [f] in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;

27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, [g] in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

28 Besides those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, [h] the care of all the churches.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, [i] which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 In [j] Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me;

CHAPTER XII.

1 He chooseth to commend his apostleship, not by revelations, 9 but by his infirmities, 11 blaming them for forcing this boasting.

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. [1] I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man [a] in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one [b] caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up into [c] paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not [2] lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory: [d] yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For [e] though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a [f] thorn in the flesh, the [g] messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 For [h] this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, [i] My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the [j] power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore [k] I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake: for [l] when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you; for [m] in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

12 Truly [n] the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 For [o] what is it wherein you were inferior to other churches, except it be that I [p] myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, [q] the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for [r] I seek not yours, but you: [s] for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And [t] I will very gladly spend and be spent for [3] you; though [u] the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, [v] I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 Did [w] I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 I [x] desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Again, [y] think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? [z] we speak before God in Christ: [a] but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that [b] I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

21 And lest, when I come again, my God will [c] humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness, and [d] fornication, and lasciviousness, which they have committed.

CHAPTER XIII.

Paul threateneth obstinate sinners, etc.

THIS is [a] the third time I am coming to you. [b] In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I [c] told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them [d] which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare:

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in [e] me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in [f] you.

4 For [g] though he was crucified through weakness, yet [h] he liveth by the power of God. For [i] we also are weak [1] in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 Examine [j] yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, [k] how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be [l] reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though [m] we be as reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad [n] when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even [o] your perfection.

10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present [p] I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, [q] be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love [r] and peace shall be with you.

12 Greet one another with an holy kiss.

13 All the saints salute you.

14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

The second epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi, a city of Macedonia, by Titus and Lucas.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE GALATIANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul's salutation: 6 he wondereth that they had so soon left the truth.

PAUL, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but [a] by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;)

A. D. 58.

CHAP. 1.

[a] Acts 9, 6.
[b] Phil. 2, 22.
[c] 1 Cor. 16, 1.
[d] 1 Cor. 1, 3.

2 And all the brethren [b] which are with me, [c] unto the churches of Galatia:

3 Grace [d] be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 Who [e] gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us [f] from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:

5 To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

7 Which [g] is not another; but there be some [h] that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But though [i] we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you [j] than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

10 For [k] do I now [l] persuade men, or God? or [m] do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

11 But [n] I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by [o] the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that [p] beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted [q] it:

14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my [1] equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

16 To [r] reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

18 Then after three years I [2] went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But [w] other of the apostles saw I none, save [x] James the Lord's brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.

21 Afterwards [y] I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;

23 But they had heard only, that he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAPTER II.

1 He showeth when and for what purpose he went up to Jerusalem. 14 Of justification by faith, and not by works.

THEN fourteen years after [a] I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

2 And I went up by [b] revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but [1] privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means [c] I should run, or had run, in vain.

3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our [d] liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, [e] that they might bring us into bondage:

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the Gospel might continue with you.

6 But of those [f] who seemed to be somewhat, whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: [g] God accepteth no man's person: for they who seemed to be somewhat in [h] conference added nothing to me:

7 But contrariwise, [i] when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was [j] committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, [k] the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)

9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be [l] pillars, perceived [m] the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; [n] the same which I also was forward to do.

11 But [o] when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James, [p] he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly [q] according to the truth of the Gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If [r] thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

15 We [s] who are Jews by nature, and not [t] sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Knowing [u] that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by [v] the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for [w] by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, [x] is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I [y] through the law [z] am dead to the law, that I might [a] live unto God.

20 I am [b] crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh [c] I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for [d] if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

CHAPTER III.

1 He asketh what moved them to depend on the law, having received the Spirit through faith. 6 Abraham being justified by faith, so they who are of faith inherit his blessing.

O FOOLISH Galatians, [a] who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, [b] before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye [c] the Spirit by the works of the law, [d] or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? [e] having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by [f] the flesh?

4 Have [g] ye suffered [1] so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore [h] that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was [2] accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore that [i] they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the Gospel unto Abraham, saying, [j] In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, [k] Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The [l] just shall live by faith.

12 And [m] the law is not of faith: but, The man [n] that doeth them shall live in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed [o] is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 That [p] the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the [q] promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; [r] Though it be but a man's [3] covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is [s] Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, [t] which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, [u] that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if [v] the inheritance be of the law, it [w] is no more of promise:

but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? It [z] was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was [y] ordained by angels in the hand of a [z] mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one; [a] but God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But the Scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore [b] the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that [c] we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

26 For ye [d] are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

28 There [e] is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all [f] one in Christ Jesus.

29 And [g] if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and [h] heirs according to the promise.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The Jews were for a while under the law, 4 but Christ came to redeem, and to give both to Jews and Gentiles the adoption of sons. 11 Paul's tender regard for them.

NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, were [a] in bondage under the [1] elements of the world:

4 But [b] when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of [c] a woman, [d] made under the law,

5 To [e] redeem them that were under the law, [f] that we might receive the adoption of sons.

6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; [g] and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit then, [h] when ye knew not God, ye [i] did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, [j] after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, [k] how turn ye [2] again to the weak [l] and beggarly [3] elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 Ye [m] observe days, and months, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as [n] I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how [o] through infirmity of the flesh I preached the Gospel unto you [p] at the first.

14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me [q] as an angel of God, even [r] as Christ Jesus.

15 [4] Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They [s] zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude [5] you, that ye might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 My [t] little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you,

20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for [6] I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons; [u] the one by a bond maid, [v] the other by a free woman.

23 But he who was of the bond woman was [w] born after the flesh; but [x] he of the free woman was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two [7] covenants; the one from the mount [8] Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.

25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and [9] answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But [y] Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, [z] Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the [a] children of promise.

29 But as then [b] he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless what saith [c] the Scripture? Cast out the bond woman and her son: for [d] the son of the bond woman shall not be heir with the son of the free woman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bond woman, but of the free.

CHAPTER V.

1 He moveth them to maintain their Christian liberty, 3 and not to observe circumcision, 13 but rather love one another. 19 The works of the flesh; 22 the fruits of the Spirit.

STAND fast therefore in [a] the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with [b] the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if [c] ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, [d] that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 Christ [e] is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye [f] are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit [g] wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

6 For [h] in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but [i] faith which worketh by love.

7 Ye [j] did run well; [1] who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?

8 This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you.

9 A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 I [k] have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but [l] he that troubleth you shall [m] bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

11 And [n] I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, [o] why do I yet suffer persecution? then is [p] the offence of the cross ceased.

12 I [q] would they were even [r] cut off which trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only [s] use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this, [t] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, [u] Walk in the Spirit, and [2] ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For [v] the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other; so [w] that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But [x] if ye be led by the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now [y] the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that [z] they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But [a] the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, [b] gentleness, goodness, [c] faith,

23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

24 And they that are Christ's have [d] crucified the flesh with the [3] affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 Let us not be desirous of vainglory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAPTER VI.

1 He willeth them to reform the faulty with gentleness, and to bear one another's burdens; 6 to be liberal to their teachers.

BRETHREN, [1] if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye [a] which are spiritual restore such an one in the [b] spirit of meekness; considering thyself, [c] lest thou also be tempted.

2 Bear [d] ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil [e] the law of Christ.

3 For [f] if a man think himself to be something, when he [g] is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But [h] let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in [i] another.

5 For [j] every man shall bear his own burden.

6 Let [k] him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

7 Be [l] not deceived; [m] God is not mocked: for [n] whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8 For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to [o] the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

9 And [p] let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, [q] if we faint not.

10 As [r] we have therefore opportunity, let [s] us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of [t] the household of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a fair show in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest [u] they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by [2] whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

15 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but [v] a new creature.

16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon [w] the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me: for [x] I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Unto the Galatians, written from Rome.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE EPHESIANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 He blesseth God for spiritual blessings, 7 and for redemption by his grace.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints which are at Ephesus, [a] and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:

2 Grace [b] be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed [c] be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly [1] places in Christ:

4 According as [d] he hath chosen us in him [e] before the foundation of the world, that we should [f] be holy and without blame before him in love:

5 Having [g] predestinated us unto the [h] adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, [i] according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 To [j] the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein [k] he hath made us accepted in the [l] Beloved:

7 In [m] whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to [n] the riches of his grace;

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;

9 Having [o] made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure [p] which he hath purposed in himself:

10 That in the dispensation [q] of the fulness of times [r] he might gather together in one [s] all things in Christ, both which are in [2] heaven, and which are on earth, even in him:

11 In [t] whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the our conversation in times past in the [e] lusts of our flesh, fulfilling [1] the desires of the flesh and of the mind; [f] and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, [g] who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 Even [h] when we were dead in sins, hath [i] quickened us together with Christ, ([2] by grace ye are saved;)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:

7 That in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.

8 For by grace are ye saved through [j] faith; and that not of yourselves; [k] it is the gift of God:

9 Not [l] of works, lest any man should boast.

10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, [m] which God hath before [3] ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called [n] the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;

12 That [o] at that time ye were without Christ, [p] being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from [q] the covenants of promise, having [r] no hope, [s] and without God in the world:

13 But now [t] in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

14 For [u] he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

15 Having abolished [v] in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain [w] one new man, so making peace;

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having [x] slain the enmity [4] thereby:

17 And [y] came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

18 For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God;

20 And are built [z] upon the foundation of the [a] apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the [b] chief corner stone;

21 In whom all the building, fitly framed together, groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:

22 In whom ye also are builded together for [c] an habitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAPTER III.

1 The hidden mystery of their calling had been revealed unto him: 14 he prayeth that their faith may be strengthened.

FOR this cause I Paul, [a] the prisoner of Jesus Christ [b] for you Gentiles,

2 (If ye have heard of [c] the dispensation of the grace of God which [d] is given me to you-ward:

3 How that by revelation [e] he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote [1] afore in few words,

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge [f] in the mystery of Christ;)

5 Which [g] in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

6 That the Gentiles should be fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and [h] partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospel:

7 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by [i] the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles [j] the unsearchable riches of Christ;

9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which [k] from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who [l] created all things by Jesus Christ:

10 To [m] the intent that now unto [n] the principalities and powers in heavenly places [o] might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God,

11 According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:

12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

15 Of whom [p] the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

16 That he would grant you, according [q] to the riches of his glory, [r] to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in [s] the inner man;

17 That [t] Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,

18 May be able to comprehend with all saints [u] what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled [v] with all the fulness of God.

20 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,

21 Unto him be [w] glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He exhorteth to unity; 24 to put on the new man; 25 to cast off lying, 29 corrupt communication, 31 and all bitterness.

I THEREFORE, the prisoner [1] of the Lord,) beseech you [a] that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

2 With [b] all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love;

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit [c] in the bond of peace.

4 There [d] is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;

5 One [e] Lord, one faith, one [f] baptism,

6 One [g] God and Father of all, who is above all, and [h] through all, and in you all.

7 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, [i] When he ascended up on high, [j] he led [2] captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 (Now [k] that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

10 He that descended is the same also that [l] ascended up far above all heavens, that he might [3] fill all things.)

11 And he gave [m] some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;

12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, [n] for the edifying of [o] the body of Christ:

13 Till we all come [4] in the unity of the faith, [p] and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the [5] stature of the fulness of Christ:

14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every [q] wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

15 But [6] speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

16 From [r] whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind,

18 Having the understanding darkened, [s] being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the [7] blindness of their heart:

19 Who [t] being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ;

21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:

22 That ye put off, concerning the former conversation, the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

23 And [u] be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and [8] true holiness.

25 Wherefore, putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

26 Be ye angry, and sin not; let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

27 Neither [v] give place to the devil.

28 Let him that stole steal no more; but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have [9] to give to him that needeth.

29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good [10] to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

30 And [w] grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:

32 And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

CHAPTER V.

2 He exhorteth to love; 3 to flee fornication, and all uncleanness; 15 to walk with prudence.

BE [a] ye therefore followers of God, as dear children;

2 And [b] walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God [c] for a sweet-smelling savour.

3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints;

4 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, [d] which are not convenient; but rather giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath [e] any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

6 Let [f] no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of [1] disobedience.

7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

8 For [g] ye were sometimes darkness, but now [h] are ye light in the Lord: walk as children [i] of light;

9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;)

28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.
31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.
32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.
33 Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The relative duties of children; 4 of parents; 5 of servants; 9 of masters.

CHILDREN, [a] obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.
2 Honour [b] thy father and mother; (which is the first commandment with promise;)
3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.
4 And, [c] ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but [d] bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.
5 Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;
6 Not with eye-service, as men-pleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;
7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:
8 Knowing [e] that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.
9 And, ye [f] masters, do the same things unto them, [1] forbearing threatening: knowing that [2] your Master also is in heaven; neither is [g] there respect of persons with him.
10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.
11 Put [h] on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.
12 For we wrestle not against [3] flesh and blood, but against [4] principalities, against powers, against the [j] rulers of the darkness of this world, against [4] spiritual wickedness in [5] high places.
13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and [6] having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having [k] on the breastplate of righteousness;

15 And [l] your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace:

16 Above all, taking [m] the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the [n] sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

18 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and [o] supplication for all saints;

19 And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the Gospel,

20 For which I am an ambassador [7] in bonds; that [8] therein [p] I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, [q] Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:

22 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.

23 Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ [9] in sincerity. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS.

CHAPTER I.

Paul's thankfulness and prayer to God for them: 21 his readiness to glorify Christ.

PAUL and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the [1] bishops and deacons:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I [a] thank my God upon every [2] remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 For [b] your fellowship in the Gospel from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a [c] good work in you [3] will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because [4] I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my [a] bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the Gospel, [e] ye all are [5] partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that [f] your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all [6] judgment;

10 That [g] ye may [7] approve things that [8] are excellent; [h] that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ;

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, [i] which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the Gospel;

13 So that my bonds [9] in Christ are manifest [j] in all [10] the palace, and [11] in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and [k] strife; and some also of good will:

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the Gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation [l] through your prayer, and the supply of [m] the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that [n] in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.

23 For [o] I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to [p] depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;

26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

27 Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the Gospel;

28 And in nothing [q] terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to [r] you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, [s] not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

30 Having [t] the same conflict which [u] ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAPTER II.

Love, unity, and humility recommended.

IF there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if [a] any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,

2 Fulfil [b] ye my joy, [c] that ye be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 Let [d] nothing be done through strife or vain-glory; but [e] in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

6 Or, so dear unto me.

4 Look [f] not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 Let [g] this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 Who, [h] being in the form of God, thought [i] it not robbery to be equal with God;

7 But [j] made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form [k] of a servant, and [l] was made in the [1] likeness of men:

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became [m] obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also [n] hath highly exalted him, and [o] given him a name which is above every name:

10 That [p] at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11 And [q] that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling:

13 For [r] it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings:

15 That ye may be blameless and [2] harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom [3] ye shine as lights in the world;

16 Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and if I be [4] offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy and rejoice with you all.

18 For the same cause also do ye joy and rejoice with me.

19 [5] But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort when I know your state.

20 For I have no man [6] likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

22 But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the Gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you [s] Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellow-soldier, but your [t] messenger, and [u] he that ministered to my wants.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and [7] hold such in reputation:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, [v] to supply your lack of service toward me.

CHAPTER III.

2 To beware of false teachers. 12 The apostle's anxiety for the heavenly prize.

FINALLY, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 Beware [a] of dogs, beware of evil workers, [b] beware of the concision.

3 For we are [c] the circumcision, which worship [d] God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, [e] a Pharisee;

6 Concerning [f] zeal, [g] persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss [h] for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, [i] not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but [j] that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith;

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and [k] the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

11 If by any means I might attain [l] unto the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had [m] already attained, either were [n] already perfect; but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth [o] unto those things which are before,

14 I [p] press toward the mark for the prize of [q] the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many [r] as be perfect, [s] be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye [t] have us for an ensample.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

19 Whose end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)

20 For [u] our conversation is in heaven; from whence also [v] we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:

21 Who [w] shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according [x] to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

4 General exhortations: 10 his joy for their liberality.

THEREFORE, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, [a] my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I entreat thee also, true yoke-fellow, help those women which laboured with [b] me in the Gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow-labourers, whose names are in the [c] book of life.

4 Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. [d] The Lord is at hand.

6 Be [e] careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And [f] the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are [1] honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last [g] your care of me [2] hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

12 I [i] know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things [j] through Christ which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding ye have well done that [k] ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now, ye Philippians, know also, [l] that in the beginning of the Gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, [m] no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

16 For even in [n] Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit [o] that may abound to your account.

18 But [3] I have all, and abound: I am full, having received [p] of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, [q] a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God.

19 But my God [r] shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

20 Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren which are with me greet you.

22 All the saints salute you, chiefly [s] they that are of Cesar's household.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

It was written to the Philippians from Rome by Epaphroditus.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul thanketh God for their faith, 15 and describeth the exalted nature of Christ.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,

2 To the saints [a] and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

4 Since [b] we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of [c] the love which ye have to all the saints,

5 For the hope [d] which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the Gospel;

6 Which is come unto you, [e] as it is in all the world; and [f] bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew [g] the grace of God in truth:

7 As ye also learned of [h] Epaphras our dear fellow-servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;

8 Who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.

9 For [i] this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the [j] knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;

10 That [k] ye might walk worthy of the Lord [l] unto all pleasing, being [m] fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;

11 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and long-suffering [n] with joyfulness;

12 Giving [o] thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the [p] inheritance of the saints in light:

13 Who hath delivered us from the [q] power of darkness, [r] and hath translated us into the kingdom of [1] his dear Son:

14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:

15 Who is [s] the image of the invisible God, the [t] first-born of every creature:

16 For [u] by him were all things created that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created [v] by him, and for him:

17 And [w] he is before all things, and by him all things consist;

[2] Or, Wherein.

21 And you, that were sometime alienated, and enemies [4] in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled

22 In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unreproveable in his sight:

23 If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the Gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister.

24 Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up [z] that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for [a] his body's sake, which is the church:

25 Whereof I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, [5] to fulfil the word of God;

26 Even [b] the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints:

27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ [6] in you, the hope of glory:

28 Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus:

29 Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAPTER II.

He exhorteth them to constancy in Christ.

FOR I would that ye knew what great [1] conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

2 That [a] their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all [b] riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgment of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;

3 [2] In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.

5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him;

7 Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

8 Beware [c] lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the [d] tradition of men, after the [3] rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

9 For [e] in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

10 And [f] ye are complete in him, which [g] is the head of all principality and power:

11 In whom also ye are [h] circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:

12 Buried [i] with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through [j] the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.

13 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;

14 Blotting out the hand-writing of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;

15 And, [k] having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them [4] in it.

16 Let no man therefore [l] judge you [5] in meat, or in drink, or [6] in respect of [m] an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days:

17 Which [n] are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.

18 Let no man [7] beguile you of your reward [8] in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,

19 And not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 Wherefore, if ye be dead with Christ from the [9] rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances,

21 (Touch not; taste not; handle not;

22 Which all are to perish with the using;) [q] after the commandments and doctrines of men?

23 Which things have indeed a show of wisdom in will-worship and humility, and [10] neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

CHAPTER III.

1 He exhorteth to be heavenly-minded: 18 Sundry relative duties.

IF ye then [a] be risen with Christ, seek those [b] things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your [1] affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 For [c] ye are dead, [d] and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When [e] Christ, who is [f] our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in [g] glory.

5 Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:

6 For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience.

7 In the which ye also walked sometime, when ye lived in them.

8 But [h] now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 Lie [i] not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

10 And have put on the new man, which is [j] renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created [k] him:

11 Where there is neither [l] Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: [m] but Christ is all, and in all.

12 Put on therefore, [n] as the elect of God, holy and beloved, [o] bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering;

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a [2] quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

14 And above all these things put [p] on charity, which is the bond of perfectness.

17 And [w] whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving [x] thanks to God and the Father by him.

18 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

19 Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

20 Children, obey your [y] parents in all things: for this is well-pleasing unto the Lord.

21 Fathers, [z] provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eye-service, as men-pleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God:

23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

24 Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.

25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

CHAPTER IV.

2 He exhorteth to be fervent in prayer. 5 to walk wisely. 10 Sundry salutations.

MASTERS, [a] give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

2 Continue [b] in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving;

3 Withal [c] praying also for us, that God would [d] open unto us a door of utterance, to speak [e] the mystery of Christ, [f] for which I am also in bonds:

4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.

5 Walk [g] in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time.

6 Let your speech be alway [h] with grace, seasoned [i] with salt, [j] that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

7 All my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellow-servant in the Lord:

8 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts;

9 With [k] Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things which are done here.

10 Aristarchus [l] my fellow-prisoner saluteth you, and [m] Marcus, sister's son to Barnabas, (touching whom ye received commandments: if he come unto you, receive him;)

11 And Jesus, which is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellow-workers unto the kingdom of God, which have been a comfort unto me.

12 Epaphras, [n] who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always [1] labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect [o] and [2] complete in all the will of God.

13 For I bear him record, that he hath a great zeal for you, and them that are in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis.

14 Luke, [p] the beloved physician, and [q] Demas, greet you.

15 Salute the brethren which are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church which is in his house.

16 And when [r] this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye likewise read the epistle from Laodicea.

17 And say to [s] Archippus, Take heed to the [t] ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.

18 The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember [u] my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

THESSALONIANS.

CHAPTER I.

Paul showeth his remembrance of them in thanksgiving and prayer.

PAUL, and [a]Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians which is [b]in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

3 Remembering without ceasing your work of [c]faith, [d]and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;

4 Knowing, brethren [1]beloved, your [e]election of God.

5 For [f]our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in [g]the Holy Ghost, and [h]in much assurance; as ye know [i]what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost:

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you [j]sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves show of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God;

10 And to [k]wait for his Son [l]from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from [m]the wrath to come.

CHAPTER II.

1 In what manner the Gospel was preached unto them. 17 His desire of coming to them.

FOR yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at [a]Philippi, we were bold in our God [b]to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.

[2] Or, chased us out.

3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

4 But as [c]we were allowed of God to [d]be put in trust with the Gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which [e]trieth our hearts.

5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousness; God is witness:

6 Nor [f]of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have [1]been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing [g]to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our [h]own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because [i]we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children,

12 That [j]ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it [k]not as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers of the [l]churches of God which in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for [m]ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even [n]as they have of the Jews:

15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus [o]and their own prophets, and have [2]persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men:

16 Forbidding [p] us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, [q] to fill up their sins alway: for [r] the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us.

19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of [3] rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ [t] at his coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAPTER III.

1 Why Paul sent Timothy to them: 6 his good report a consolation to him.

WHEREFORE, when we could no longer forbear, [a] we thought it good to be left at Athens alone,

2 And sent [b] Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellow-labourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

3 That [c] no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that [d] we are appointed thereunto.

4 For [e] verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, [f] lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our [g] labour be in vain.

6 But [h] now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, [i] as we also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:

8 For now we live, if ye [j] stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;

10 Night [k] and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, [1] direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:

13 To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ [l] with all his saints.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He exhorteth to go on in godliness. 15 The saints' resurrection, and Christ's second coming.

FURTHERMORE then we [1] beseech you, brethren, and [2] exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and [a] to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is [b] the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 That [c] every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles [d] which know not God:

6 That [e] no man go beyond and [3] defraud his brother [4] in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, [f] but unto holiness.

8 He [g] therefore that [5] despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, [h] who hath also given unto us his Holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you; for ye [i] yourselves are taught of God [j] to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more;

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack [6] of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even [k] as others which have no hope.

14 For [l] if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you [m] by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For [n] the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them [o] in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so [p] shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore [7] comfort one another with these words.

CHAPTER V.

Of Christ's second coming.

BUT of [a] the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly, that [b] the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety, then [c] sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 But [d] ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all [e] the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.

7 For [f] they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken are [g] drunken in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting [h] on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet the hope of salvation.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

CHAPTER I.

Of the Thessalonians' faith and love.

PAUL, [a] and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians [b] in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

A. D. 54.

CHAP. 1.

[a] 2 Cor. 1, 19.
[b] 1 Thess. 1, 1.
[c] Job 17, 9. Psalm 84, 7.

2 Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth [c] exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;

4 So that [d] we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God [e] for your patience and faith [f] in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

5 Which is [g] a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted [h] worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer:

6 Seeing [i] it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;

7 And to you who are troubled rest [j] with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with [1] his mighty angels,

8 In [k] flaming fire [2] taking vengeance on them [l] that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

9 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and [m] from the glory of his power;

10 When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe, (because our testimony among you was believed,) in that day.

11 Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would [3] count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power:

12 That [n] the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER II.

1 He warneth against the surmise that the day of Christ was at hand; 3 that it would be preceded by a great apostasy.

NOW we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, [a] and by our gathering together unto him,

2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except [b] there come a falling away first, and [c] that man of sin be revealed, the [d] son of perdition;

4 Who opposeth and [e] exalteth himself above [f] all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what [1] withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For [g] the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way:

8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom [h] the Lord shall consume [i] with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy [j] with the brightness of his coming:

9 Even him, whose coming is [k] after the working of Satan with all power [l] and signs and lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in [m] them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And [n] for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, [o] that they should believe a lie:

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:

14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold [p] the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which [q] hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.

CHAPTER III.

1 He craveth their prayers: 3 he testifieth his confidence in them: 6 divers precepts.

FINALLY, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord [1] may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you:

2 And that we may be delivered

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that [c] ye withdraw yourselves [d] from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.

7 For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;

8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but [e] wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

12 Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, [j] that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, [4] be not weary in well-doing.

14 And if any man obey not our word [5] by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

The second epistle to the Thessalonians was written from Athens.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER I.

3 Paul remindeth Timothy of his charge. 8 The scope of the law is also the design of the Gospel.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by [a] the commandment [b] of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which [c] is our hope,

2 Unto [d] Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, [e] when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that [f] they teach no other doctrine,

4 Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.

5 Now [g] the end of the commandment is charity [h] out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:

6 From which some [1] having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that [i] the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 Knowing [j] this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for [k] the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for man-slayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for men-stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine;

11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our

Lord, who hath enabled me [l] for that he counted me faithful, [m] putting me into the ministry;

13 Who [n] was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because [o] I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and [p] love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, [q] that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto [r] the King eternal, immortal, [s] invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, [t] according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;

19 Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away, concerning faith have made shipwreck:

20 Of whom is [u] Hymeneus [v] and Alexander; whom I have [w] delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

CHAPTER II.

1 He exhorteth to pray and give thanks for all men. 9 How women ought to be attired.

I [1] EXHORT therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

2 For [a] kings, and [b] for all that are in [2] authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 For this is [c] good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour;

4 Who [d] will have all men to be saved, and to [e] come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

6 Who gave himself a ransom for all, [3] to be testified [f] in due time.

7 Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray every [g] where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with [4] broidered hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve.

14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved [h] in child-bearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

CHAPTER III.

2 How bishops, 8 deacons, 11 and their wives, should be qualified. 16 Important truths of Christian revelation.

THIS is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a [a] bishop, he desireth a good work.

2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, [1] of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach;

3 [2] Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous;

4 One [b] that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity;

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

6 Not [3] a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not double tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 For they that have [4] used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and [5] ground of the truth.

16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: [c] God was [6] manifest in the flesh, [d] justified in the Spirit, [e] seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

CHAPTER IV.

Various precepts for Timothy's direction.

NOW the Spirit [a] speaketh expressly, that [b] in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed [c] to seducing spirits, [d] and doctrines of devils;

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having [e] their conscience seared with a hot iron;

3 Forbidding [f] to marry, [g] and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created [h] to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For [i] every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up [j] in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth [1] little; but godliness is profitable unto all things, having [k] promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation.

10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, [l] who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

11 These things command and teach.

12 Let [m] no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 Neglect [n] not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee [o] by prophecy, [p] with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear [2] to all.

16 Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both [q] save thyself, and them that hear thee.

CHAPTER V.

1 Rules to be observed in admonishing. 22 Not to ordain any rashly.

REBUKE [a] not an elder, but entreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren;

2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to show [1] piety at home, and [b] to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that liveth [2] in pleasure is dead while she liveth.

7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own [3] house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be [4] taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,

10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged [c] strangers, if she [d] have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

12 Having [e] damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 And [f] withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 I [g] will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, [h] give none occasion to the adversary [5] to speak reproachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.

16 If [i] any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 Let [j] the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the Scripture saith, [k] Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn: and, [l] The labourer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but [6] before two or three witnesses.

20 Them [m] that sin rebuke before all, that others [n] also may fear.

21 I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things [7] without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

22 Lay [o] hands suddenly on no man, neither [p] be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure.

23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.

24 Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.

25 Likewise also [q] the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The duty of servants. 3 Of corrupt teachers.

LET as many [a] servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the [b] name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because [c] they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are [1] faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness;

4 He is [2] proud, [d] knowing nothing, but [3] doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings,

5 [4] Perverse disputings of [e] men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, [f] supposing that gain is godliness: [g] from such withdraw thyself.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul's love to Timothy: 6 he exhorteth him not to be ashamed of the Gospel.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to [a] the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,

2 To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and [b] thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that [c] thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

7 For [d] God hath not given us the spirit of fear; [e] but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

8 Be [f] not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel according to the power of God;

9 Who hath saved us, and [g] called us with an holy calling, [h] not according to our works, but according [i] to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before [j] the world began,

10 But [k] is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who [l] hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel:

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed; for I know whom I have [1] believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed [m] unto him against that day.

13 Hold [n] fast the [o] form of sound words, which [p] thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia be turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord [q] give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus; [r] for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain:

17 But, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto [s] him that he may find mercy of the Lord [t] in that day: and in how many things he [u] ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAPTER II.

Timothy exhorteth to constancy and perseverance.

THOU therefore, my son, [a] be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me [1] among many witnesses, [b] the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No [c] man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life, that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 [2] The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ of the [d] seed of David [e] was raised from the dead according [f] to my gospel:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil-doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, [g] that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11 It [h] is a faithful saying: For [i] if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

12 If [j] we suffer, we shall also reign with him: [k] if we deny him, he also will deny us:

13 If [l] we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: [m] he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, [n] charging them before the Lord that [o] they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But [p] shun profane and vain babblings; for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

17 And their word will eat as doth a [3] canker: of whom is Hymeneus [q] and Philetus;

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, saying [r] that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless [s] the foundation of God standeth [4] sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

23 But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, [5] patient,

25 In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

26 And that they may [6] recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are [7] taken captive by him at his will.

CHAPTER III.

He foretelleth the wickedness in the last days.

THIS know also, that [a] in the last days perilous times shall come.

2 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, [b] disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 Without natural affection, truce-breakers, [1] false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

4 Traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the [c] power thereof: from such turn away.

6 For [d] of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,

7 Ever learning, and never able to [e] come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 Now [f] as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, [2] reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be mani-

17 That [n] the man of God may be perfect, [4] throughly furnished unto all good works.

CHAPTER IV.

Paul's solemn charge to Timothy.

I CHARGE thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;

2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, [a] rebuke, exhort, with [b] all long-suffering and doctrine.

3 For the time will come when they will not endure [c] sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and [d] shall be turned unto fables.

5 But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an [e] evangelist, [1] make full proof of thy ministry.

6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me [f] a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me:

10 For [g] Demas hath forsaken me, having loved [h] this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.

11 Only Luke is with me. [i] Take Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry.

12 And [j] Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus.

13 The cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments.

14 Alexander [k] the coppersmith did me much evil: the [l] Lord reward him according to his works:

15 Of whom be thou ware also; for he hath greatly withstood [2] our words.

16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: [m] I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge.

17 Notwithstanding [n] the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered [o] out of the mouth of the lion.

18 And [p] the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

19 Salute [q] Prisca and Aquila, and the household [r] of Onesiphorus.

20 Erastus [s] abode at Corinth: but Trophimus [t] have I left at Miletum sick.

21 Do thy diligence to come before winter. Eubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.

22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

The second epistle unto Timotheus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Ephesians, was written from Rome, when Paul was brought before [3] Nero the second time.

TITUS.

CHAPTER I.

5 Why Titus was left in Crete. 6 How ministers should be qualified, etc.

PAUL, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, [a] and the acknowledging of the truth which [b] is after godliness;

2 [1] In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before [c] the world began;

3 But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me [d] according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

4 To [e] Titus, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest [f] set in order the things that are [2] wanting, and [g] ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:

6 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children, not accused of riot, or unruly.

7 For a bishop must be blameless, as [h] the steward of God; not self-willed, not soon angry, [i] not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of [3] good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

9 Holding fast the faithful word [4] as he hath been taught, that he may be able [j] by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially [k] they of the circumcision:

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert [l] whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

12 One [m] of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

14 Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments [n] of men, that turn from the truth.

CHAPTER II.

1 Directions given to Titus. 11 What the Gospel teacheth.

BUT speak thou the things which become [a] sound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be [1] sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

3 The [b] aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh [2] holiness, not [3] false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be [4] sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, [c] obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be [5] sober-minded.

7 In [d] all things showing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine showing uncorruptness, gravity, [e] sincerity,

8 Sound [f] speech, that cannot be condemned; [g] that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not [6] answering again;

10 Not purloining, but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

11 For the grace of God that [7] bringeth salvation [h] hath appeared to all men,

12 Teaching us that, [i] denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

13 Looking for that blessed [j] hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, [k] and purify unto himself [l] a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

15 These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

CHAPTER III.

1 Titus is yet further directed by Paul, both concerning the things he should teach, and not teach.

PUT them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, [a] to be ready to every good work,

2 To [b] speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, showing all meekness unto all men.

3 For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But after that the kindness and [1] love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 Not [c] by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, [d] by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

6 Which [e] he shed on us [2] abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

7 That, being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

8 This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.

9 But [f] avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

10 A man that is an heretic [g] after the first and second [h] admonition reject;

11 Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, [i] being condemned of himself.

12 When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or [j] Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.

13 Bring Zenas the lawyer [k] and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

14 And let ours also learn to [3] maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be [l] not unfruitful.

15 All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

It was written to Titus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Cretians, from Nicopolis of Macedonia.

PHILEMON.

1 Paul's joy in hearing of the faith and love of Philemon. 8 Onesimus entreated for.

PAUL, [a] a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, [b] and fellow-labourer,

2 And to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus [c] our fellow-soldier, and to the [d] church in thy house:

3 Grace [e] to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I [f] thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 Hearing [g] of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints;

6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by [h] the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.

7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints [i] are refreshed by thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, [j] though I might be much bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient,

9 Yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such an one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my [k] son Onesimus, whom [l] I have begotten in my bonds:

11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me:

14 But without thy mind would I do nothing; [n]that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly.

15 For [o]perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever;

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE HEBREWS

CHAPTER I.

1 The essential dignity of the Son, by whom God hath revealed himself in these last days.

GOD, who at sundry times and in [a]divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

2 Hath [b]in these last days spoken unto [c]us by his Son, [d]whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by [e]whom also he made the worlds;

3 Who [f]being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, [g]and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, [h]sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

4 Being made so much better than the angels, as [i]he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, [j]Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, [k]I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

6 [1]And again, when he bringeth in [l]the first-begotten into the world, he saith, And [m]let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And [2]of the angels he saith, Who [n]maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he saith, [o]Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of [3]righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, [p]hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And, [q]Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:

11 They [r]shall perish; but thou remainest: and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, [s]Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great [a] salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

4 God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and [2] gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, [b] What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest [3] him a little lower than the angels: thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

16 For verily [5] he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made [l] like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

18 For [m] in that he himself hath suffered, being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAPTER III.

Christ is showed to be more worthy than Moses.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the [a] Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;

2 Who was faithful to him that [1] appointed him, as also [b] Moses was faithful in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as [c] he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man; but [d] he that built all things is God.

5 And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, [e] for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;

6 But Christ as a Son over his own house; whose [f] house are we, if [g] we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore (as [h] the Holy Ghost saith, [i] To-day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness;

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.

11 So I sware in my wrath, [2] They shall not enter into my rest.)

12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To-day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

15 While it is said, To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For [i] some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, [k] whose carcases fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

CHAPTER IV.

The Christians' rest to be obtained by faith.

LET us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the Gospel preached, as well as unto them: but [1] the word preached did not profit them, [2] not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, [a] As I have sworn in my wrath, If they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And [b] God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and [c] they to whom [3] it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

7 (Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To-day, after so long a time; as it is said, [d] To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if [4] Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a [5] rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.)

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of [6] unbelief.

12 For the word of God is [e] quick, and powerful, and sharper than any [f] two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a [g] discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a great High Priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.

15 For [h] we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but [i] was in all points tempted like as we are, [j] yet without sin.

16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

CHAPTER V.

Of the priesthood of Christ.

FOR every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, [a] that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 Who [1] can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And [b] by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 And [c] no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was [d] Aaron.

5 So [e] also Christ glorified not himself to be made an High Priest; but he that said unto him, [f] Thou art my Son, to-day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, [g] Thou art a Priest for ever, after the order of Melchisedec.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had [h] offered up prayers and supplications, with [i] strong crying and tears, unto [j] him that was able to save him from death, and was heard [2] in that he feared:

8 Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience [k] by the things which he suffered;
9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;
10 Called of God an High Priest after [l] the order of Melchisedec.
11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.
12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.
13 For every one that useth milk [3] is unskilful in the word of righteousness; for he is [m] a babe.
14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are [4] of full age, even those who by reason [5] of use have their senses exercised [n] to discern both good and evil.

CHAPTER VI.

Exhortation to be stedfast in the faith.

THEREFORE leaving [1] the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,
2 Of [a] the doctrine of baptisms, and [b] of laying on of hands, [c] and of resurrection of the dead, [d] and of eternal judgment.
3 And this will we do, [e] if God permit.
4 For [f] it is impossible for [g] those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of [h] the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,
5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,
6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; [i] seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.
7 For the earth, which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them [2] by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God:
8 But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.
15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.
16 For men verily swear by the greater; and [n] an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.
17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to show unto [o] the heirs of promise [p] the immutability of his counsel, [3] confirmed it by an oath:
18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope [q] set before us:
19 Which [r] hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, [s] and which entereth into that within the veil;
20 Whither [t] the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an High Priest for ever, after the order of Melchisedec.

CHAPTER VII.

Christ, a priest after the order of Melchisedec.

FOR this [a] Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;
2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;
3 Without father, without mother

[1] without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto [b] whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily [c] they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

6 But he whose [2] descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed [d] him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of [e] whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And, as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father when Melchisedec met him.

11 If [f] therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that [g] our Lord sprang out of Judah; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another Priest, 16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testifieth, [h] Thou art a Priest for ever, after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before, for [i] the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For [j] the law made nothing perfect; [3] but the bringing in of [k] a better hope did: by the which [l] we draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made Priest;

21 (For those priests were made [4] without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, The [m] Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a Priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:)

22 By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:

24 But this man, because he [n] continueth ever, hath [5] an unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them to [6] the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth [o] to make intercession for them.

26 For such an High Priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, [p] and made higher than the heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, [q] first for his own sins, [r] and then for the people's: for this [s] he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh [t] men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who [u] is [7] consecrated for evermore.

CHAPTER VIII.

The excellency of Christ's ministry.

NOW of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such an High Priest, who [a] is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

2 A minister [1] of the sanctuary, and of the [b] true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it [c] is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth he should not be a priest, seeing that [2] there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Who serve unto the example and [d] shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: [e] for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern showed to thee in the mount.

6 But now [f] hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the Mediator of a better [3] covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For, finding fault with them, he saith, [g] Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will [4] put my laws into their mind, and write them [5] in their hearts: and [h] I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

11 And [i] they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

CHAPTER IX.

1 By the imperfection of the legal sacrifices, 11 he showeth the efficacy of Christ's blood.

THEN verily the first covenant had also [1] ordinances of divine service, and [a] a worldly sanctuary.

2 For [b] there was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the [c] table, and the showbread; which is called [2] the Sanctuary.

3 And [d] after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all;

4 Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was [e] the golden pot that had manna, [f] and Aaron's rod that budded, and [g] the tables of the covenant;

5 And [h] over it the cherubim of glory shadowing the mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, [i] the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God;

7 But into the second went the high priest alone [j] once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:

8 The [k] Holy Ghost this signifying, that the [l] way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, [m] that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;

10 Which stood only in [n] meats and drinks, and [o] divers washings, [p] and carnal [3] ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an High Priest of [q] good things to come, [r] by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but [s] by his own blood he entered in [t] once into the holy place, having [u] obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For [v] if the blood of bulls and of goats, and [w] the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh;

14 How much more [x] shall the blood of Christ, [y] who through the eternal Spirit offered [z] himself without [4] spot to God, purge [a] your conscience from dead [b] works [c] to serve the living God!

15 And [d] for this cause he is the Mediator of the new testament, that [e] by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they [f] which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity [5] be the death of the testator.

17 For [g] a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 Whereupon [h] neither the first testament was [6] dedicated without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, [i] with water, and [7] scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people,

20 Saying, [j] This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 Moreover [k] he sprinkled likewise with blood both the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without [l] shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that the [m] patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For [n] Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to [o] appear in the presence of God for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once [p] in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And [q] as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment;

28 So [r] Christ was once [s] offered to bear the sins of many: and unto them that look for him shall he appear [t] the second time without sin unto salvation.

CHAPTER X.

1 The law-sacrifices ineffectual to take away sins. 10 By the offering of Christ's body once for all we obtain perfect remission.

FOR the law having [a] a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

2 For then [1] would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 But [b] in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 For [c] it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore, when he cometh into the world, he saith, [d] Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body [2] hast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By [e] the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth [f] daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

12 But [g] this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting till [h] his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof [i] the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 This [j] is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 [3] And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren,

21 And having an High Priest over [l] the house of God;

22 Let us draw near with a true heart, [m] in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our [n] bodies washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; for he [o] is faithful that promised;

24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:

25 Not [p] forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and [q] so much the more as ye see [r] the day approaching.

26 For [s] if we sin wilfully [t] after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and [u] fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

28 He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:

29 Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath [v] counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, [w] and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

30 For we know him that hath said, Vengeance [x] belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, [y] The Lord shall judge his people.

31 It [z] is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But [a] call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured [b] a great fight of afflictions;

33 Partly, whilst ye were made a gazing-stock, both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, whilst ye [c] became companions of them that were so used.

34 For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and [d] took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing [6] in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward.

36 For [e] ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, [f] ye might receive the promise.

37 For [g] yet a little while, and he [h] that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

38 Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition, but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

CHAPTER XI.

The nature and fruits of faith.

NOW faith is the [1] substance of things hoped for, the evidence [a] of things not seen.

2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that the worlds [b] were framed by the word of God; so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith [c] Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he, being dead, [2] yet speaketh.

5 By faith [d] Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But [e] without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith [f] Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, [3] moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of [g] the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in [h] tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 Esteeming the reproach [7] of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith [b] he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.

28 Through faith [c] he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the first-born should touch them.

29 By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were drowned.

30 By faith [d] the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

31 By faith [e] the harlot Rahab perished not with them [8] that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of [f] Gedeon, and of [g] Barak, and of [h] Samson, and of [i] Jephthae; of [j] David also, and [k] Samuel, and of the prophets:

33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped [l] the mouths of lions,

34 Quenched [m] the violence of fire, escaped the [n] edge of the sword, [o] out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned [p] to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 Women [q] received their dead raised to life again: and others were [r] tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover [s] of bonds and imprisonment:

37 They [t] were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: [u] they wandered about in sheep-skins and goat-skins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and [v] in dens and caves of the earth.

39 And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise;

40 God having [9] provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be [w] made perfect.

CHAPTER XII.

Exhortation to faith and godliness.

WHEREFORE, seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking [a] unto Jesus the [1] author and finisher of our faith; [b] who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, [c] and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For [d] consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest [e] ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My [f] son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

6 For [g] whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons: for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof [h] all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us [2] after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that [i] we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth [j] the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore [k] lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 And make [3] straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; [l] but let it rather be healed.

16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, [o] who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

17 For ye know how that afterward, when he [p] would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no [5] place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For ye are not come unto [q] the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard entreated that [r] the word should not be spoken to them any more:

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:

21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)

22 But ye are come [s] unto mount Sion, and [t] unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, [u] and to an innumerable company of angels,

23 To the general assembly and church of the first-born, which are [6] written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men [v] made perfect,

24 And to Jesus the mediator of the new [7] covenant, and to [w] the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than [x] that of Abel.

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh: for if they escaped not who refused him [y] that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:

26 Whose [z] voice then shook the earth; but now he hath promised, saying, [a] Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth [b] the removing of those things that [8] are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Wherefore, we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, [g] let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:

29 For [c] our God is a consuming fire.

CHAPTER XIII.

Exhortations to various duties.

LET brotherly love continue.

2 Be [d] not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby [b] some have entertained angels unawares.

3 Remember [c] them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

4 Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, [d] I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 So that we may boldly say, The Lord [e] is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

7 Remember them which [1] have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God; whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation;

8 Jesus Christ [f] the same yesterday, and to-day, and for ever.

9 Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

10 We [g] have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.

11 For [h] the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burnt without the camp.

12 Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered [i] without the gate.

13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his [j] reproach.

14 For [k] here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

15 By him therefore let us [l] offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips [2] giving thanks to his name.

16 But to do good and to communicate forget not; for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 Obey them that [3] have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: [m] for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

18 Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.

19 But I beseech you the rather to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

20 Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, [n] that great Shepherd of the sheep, [o] through the blood of the everlasting [4] covenant,

21 Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, [5] working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; [p] to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

22 And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation: for I have written a letter unto you in few words.

23 Know ye that [q] our brother Timothy is [r] set at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.

24 Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints. They of Italy salute you.

25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES.

CHAPTER I.

The apostle exhorts to patience in affliction.

JAMES, [a] a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, [b] to the twelve tribes which [c] are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations;

3 Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

A. D. 60.

CHAP. 1.
[a] Matth. 10, 3.
[b] Acts 26, 7.
[c] John 7, 35. Acts 2, 5.

5 If [d] any of you lack wisdom, let [e] him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and [f] it shall be given him.

6 But [g] let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree [1] rejoice in that he is exalted;

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 Blessed [h] is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the [i] crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with [2] evil, neither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then, when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin; and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with [j] whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18 Of [k] his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits [l] of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the ingrafted word, [m] which is able to save your souls.

22 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For [n] if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But [o] whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this [p] man shall be blessed in his [3] deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To [q] visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, [r] and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

CHAPTER II.

1 We must not regard the rich, and despise the poor. 10 The guilt of any one breach of the law. 14 Of faith without works.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, [a] the Lord of glory, with [b] respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your [1] assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here [2] in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath [c] not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of [3] the kingdom [d] which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, [e] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he [f] is guilty of all.

11 For [4] he that said, [g] Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

13 For he shall have judgment without mercy that hath showed no mercy; and mercy [5] rejoiceth against judgment.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being [6] alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: show me thy faith [7] without thy works, and I will show thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the [h] devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith [i] without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, [j] when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 [8] Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, [k] Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called [l] the Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also, [m] was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the [9] spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAPTER III.

1 We must not rashly or arrogantly reprove others: 2 The importance of governing the tongue. 13 How true wisdom will manifest itself, in opposition to strife and envy.

MY brethren, [a] be not many masters, knowing [b] that we shall receive the greater [1] condemnation.

2 For [c] in many things we offend all. [d] If any man offend not in word, [e] the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold how great [2] a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that [f] it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the [3] course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every [4] kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of [5] mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are [g] made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same [6] place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13 Who [h] is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him show out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.

14 But if ye have [i] bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 This [j] wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, [7]sensual, devilish.

16 For [k] where envying and strife is, there is [8]confusion and every evil work.

17 But [l] the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, [9]without partiality, [m] and without hypocrisy.

18 And [n] the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Our evil lusts cause contention: 7 how we may overcome them, and gain God's favour.

FROM whence come wars and [1]fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your [2] lusts that war in your members?

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye [3]kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye [a] ask not.

3 Ye [b] ask, and receive not, [c] because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your [4] lusts.

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that [d] the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever [e] therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the Scripture saith in vain, [f] The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth [5]to envy?

6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, [g] God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. [h] Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 Draw [i] nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double-minded.

9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

11 Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

12 There is one lawgiver, [j] who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?

13 Go to now, ye that say, To-day or to-morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

14 Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? [6] It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

15 For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

16 But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.

17 Therefore [k] to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

CHAPTER V.

1 Wicked rich men warned of God's judgments. 7 Of patience. 13 We ought to pray in adversity.

GO to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver is canker-ed; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. [a] Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.

4 Behold, [b] the hire of the labourers which have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth; and [c] the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth.

5 Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

7 [1] Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive [d] the early and latter rain.

8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for [e] the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 [2] Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the Judge [f] standeth before the door.

10 Take, [g] my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the 11 Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the [h] patience of Job, and have seen [i] the end of the Lord; [j] that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

CHAPTER I.

1 The apostle's address: 3 he blesseth God for their hope of a blessed immortality: 10 he showeth that their salvation in Christ had been foretold by the prophets of old; 13 he exhorteth them to godliness.

PETER, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers [a] scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

2 Elect [b] according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through [c] sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling [d] of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his [1] abundant mercy hath [e] begotten us again unto a lively hope, by [f] the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven [2] for you,

5 Who [g] are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time:

6 Wherein [h] ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations;

7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though [i] it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:

8 Whom [j] having not seen, ye love; [k] in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

10 Of [l] which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:

11 Searching what, or what manner of time, [m] the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand [n] the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 Unto [o] whom it was revealed, that not unto [p] themselves, but unto us, they did minister the things which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the Gospel unto you with [q] the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which [r] things the angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope

[3] to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at [s] the revelation of Jesus Christ:

14 As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:

15 But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;

16 Because it is written, [t] Be ye holy; for I am holy.

17 And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your [u] sojourning here in fear:

18 Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received [v] by tradition from your fathers;

19 But with the [w] precious blood of Christ, [x] as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

20 Who [y] verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest [z] in these last times for you,

21 Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and [a] gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:

23 Being [b] born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by [c] the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

24 [4] For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:

25 But [d] the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the Gospel is preached unto you.

CHAPTER II.

1 He inciteth them against uncharitableness: 4 he showeth their privileges through Christ the chief corner stone: 11 several duties enjoined.

WHEREFORE, laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings,

2 As [a] new-born babes, desire the sincere [b] milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

3 If so be ye have [c] tasted that the Lord is gracious.

5 Ye [d] also, as lively stones, [1] are built up a spiritual house, [e] an holy priesthood, to offer up [f] spiritual sacrifices, [g] acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

6 Wherefore also it is contained in the Scripture, [h] Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

7 Unto you therefore which believe he is [2] precious: but unto them which be disobedient, [i] the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

8 And [j] a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient; [k] whereunto also they were appointed.

9 But ye are [l] a chosen generation, a [m] royal priesthood, [n] an holy nation, [3] a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the [4] praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:

10 Which [o] in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;

12 Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles; that, [5] whereas they speak against you as evil doers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God [p] in the day of visitation.

13 Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;

14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evil doers, and for the praise of them that do well.

15 For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

16 As free, and not [6] using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.

17 [7] Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

18 Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

19 For this is [8] thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is [9] acceptable with God.

21 For even hereunto were ye called; because Christ also suffered [10] for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

22 Who [q] did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:

23 Who, [r] when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but [11] committed himself to him that judgeth righteously:

24 Who his own self bare our sins in his own body [12] on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: [s] by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For [t] ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned [u] unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

CHAPTER III.

1 He teacheth the duty of wives and husbands, 8 exhorting all men to unity and love, 14 and to suffer boldly for righteousness' sake: 19 he declareth also the benefits of Christ toward the old world.

LIKEWISE, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they [a] also may without the word be [b] won by the conversation of the wives;

2 While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

3 Whose [c] adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4 But let it be [d] the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

6 Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him [e] lord: whose [1] daughters ye are as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; [f] that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, [2] love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous:

9 Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, [g] that ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For [h] he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

11 Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, [i] and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is [3] against them that do evil.

13 And [j] who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

14 But [k] and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be [l] not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and [m] be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and [4] fear;

16 Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evil doers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye [n] suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.

18 For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death [3] in the flesh, but [p] quickened by the Spirit:

19 By [q] which also he went and preached unto the spirits [r] in prison;

20 Which sometime were disobedient, when once the long-suffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark [s] was

21 The [u] like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

22 Who is gone into heaven, and is [v] on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He exhorteth them to cease from sin by the example of Christ. 7 By the approaching end of all things he exhorteth them to sobriety, charity, etc. 12 Sundry motives of comfort under persecution.

FORASMUCH then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he [a] that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;

2 That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.

3 For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you:

5 Who shall give account to him that is ready [b] to judge the quick and the dead.

6 For, for this cause [c] was the Gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But [d] the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

8 And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for [e] charity [1] shall cover the multitude of sins.

9 Use hospitality one to another without [f] grudging.

10 As [g] every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

11 If [h] any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that [i] God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ; [j] to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you:

13 But rejoice, inasmuch as [k] ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 If [l] ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the [m] Spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evil doer, or as a busybody in other men's matters.

16 Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but [n] let him glorify God on this behalf.

17 For the time is come [o] that judgment must begin at the house of God: and [p] if it first begin at us, what [q] shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

18 And [r] if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?

19 Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God [s] commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

CHAPTER V.

1 The elders exhorted to feed the flock of Christ; 5 the younger to obey the elder; 8 and all to be sober, watchful, and stedfast in the faith: 9 to resist the cruel adversary the devil, etc.

THE elders which are among you I exhort, who am [a] also an elder, and [b] a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also [c] a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

2 Feed [d] the flock of God [1] which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

3 Neither as [2] being lords [e] over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock.

4 And when [f] the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF

PETER.

CHAPTER I.

1 Saluting the Christians, he admonisheth them of the gifts and promises of the Gospel: 5 he exhorteth them to add to their faith such virtues as would make it fruitful: 12 he remembereth them hereof, knowing his dissolution to be near.

SIMON PETER, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained [a] like precious faith with us through the righteousness [1] of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through [b] the knowledge of him that [c] hath called us [2] to glory and virtue:

4 Whereby [d] are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might [e] be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And besides this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and [f] to virtue knowledge;

6 And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;

7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and [g] to brotherly kindness charity.

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be [3] barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things [h] is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was [i] purged from his old sins.

10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence [j] to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall:

11 For [k] so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

14 Knowing [l] that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our [m] Lord Jesus Christ hath showed me.

15 Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eye-witnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This [n] is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in [o] the holy mount.

19 We have also a more [p] sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the [q] day-star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that [r] no prophecy of the Scripture is of any private interpretation.

21 For [s] the prophecy came not [4] in old time by the will of man; but [t] holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

CHAPTER II.

1 He foretelleth them of the appearance of false teachers, the impiety of them and their followers, and the judgments that would overtake them. 7 The godly shall be delivered, as Lot was out of Sodom. 10 The manners of those profane and blasphemous seducers described.

BUT [a] there were false prophets also among the people, even as [b] there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord [c] that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their [1] pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not [d] the angels [e] that sinned, but [f] cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;

5 And spared not the old world, but saved Noah, [g] the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

6 And [h] turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrha into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)

9 The [i] Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:

10 But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise [2] government. Presumptuous are they, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities:

11 Whereas [j] angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation [3] against them before the Lord.

12 But these, [k] as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

13 And [l] shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure [m] to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they [n] feast with you;

14 Having eyes full of [4] adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of [o] Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbade the madness of the prophet.

17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that [p] were [5] clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise [q] them liberty, they themselves are [r] the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For [s] if, after they have [t] escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For [u] it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, [v] The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAPTER III.

Of Christ's coming to judgment.

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which [a] I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance;

2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, [b] and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 Knowing [c] this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking [d] after their own lusts,

4 And saying, [e] Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that [f] by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth [1] standing out of the water and in the water:

6 Whereby [g] the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

7 But the heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto [h] fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and [i] a thousand years as one day.

9 The [j] Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is [k] long-suffering to us-ward, not [l] willing that any should perish, but [m] that all should come to repentance.

10 But [n] the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which [o] the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burnt up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness,

12 Looking for and [2] hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall [p] be dissolved, and the elements shall [q] melt with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for [r] new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

15 And account that [s] the long-suffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given unto him, hath written unto you;

16 As also in all his epistles, speaking [t] in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, [u] beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness:

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF JOHN.

CHAPTER I.

The person of Christ described.

our [c] hands have handled, of the [d] Word of life;

2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and show unto you that eternal life which was with the Father, [e] and was manifested unto us;)

3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and [f] truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God [g] is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

8 If [h] we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

9 If [i] we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAPTER II.

Christ our advocate and propitiation.

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, [a] we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

2 And [b] he is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but [c] also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoso [d] keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

6 He [e] that saith he abideth in him ought himself [f] also so to walk, even as he walked.

7 Brethren, [g] I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which [h] ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, [i] a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: [j] because the darkness is past, and the [k] true light now shineth.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and [l] there is none [1] occasion of stumbling in him:

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, [m] and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because [n] your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him [o] that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because [p] ye are strong, and [q] the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If [r] any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, [s] and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God [t] abideth for ever.

18 Little children, [u] it is the last time: and as ye have heard [v] that antichrist shall come, [w] even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for [x] if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that [y] they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

20 But [z] ye have an unction [a] from the Holy One, and [b] ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? he is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] [c] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, which ye [d] have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, [e] ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 And [f] this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you.

27 But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye [g] need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing [h] teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in [2] him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 If [i] ye know that he is righteous, [3] ye know that every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.

CHAPTER III.

He declareth the singular love of God.

BEHOLD what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that [a] we should be called the sons of God! therefore the world knoweth us not, [b] because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God; and [c] it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we [d] shall be like him; for [e] we shall see him as he is.

3 And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know that he was manifested to [f] take away our sins; and [g] in him is no sin.

6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he [h] that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 He [i] that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, [j] that he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 Whosoever [k] is born of God doth not commit sin; for [l] his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For this is the [1] message that ye heard from the beginning, [m] that we should love one another.

12 Not as [n] Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

14 We know that we have passed from death unto life because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

15 Whosoever [o] hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no [p] murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 Hereby [q] perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But [r] whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed, and in truth.

19 And hereby we know [s] that we are of the truth, and shall [2] assure our hearts before him.

20 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloved, [t] if our heart condemn us not, [u] then have we confidence toward God.

22 And [v] whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, [w] and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.

24 And he that keepeth his commandments [x] dwelleth in him, and he in him. And [y] hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

CHAPTER IV.

He warneth them to try the spirits.

BELOVED, [a] believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God; because many [b] false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every [c] spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:

3 And [d] every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.

4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is he that is in you, than he [e] that is in the world.

5 They [f] are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, [g] and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God: [h] he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we [i] the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not knoweth not God; for [j] God is love.

9 In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only-begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, [k] not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 No [l] man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

13 Hereby [m] know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And [n] we have seen and do testify that the [o] Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 Whosoever [p] shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is [l] our love made perfect, that we [q] may have boldness in the day of judgment: [r] because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 And [s] this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

CHAPTER V.

He that loveth God loveth his children.

WHOSOEVER [a] believeth that Jesus [b] is the Christ is born of God: [c] and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 For [d] this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and [e] his commandments are not grievous.

4 For [f] whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but [g] he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came [h] by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And [i] it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there [j] are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, [k] the Word, and the Holy Ghost: [l] and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive [m] the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for [n] this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God hath [o] the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath [p] made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and [q] this life is in his Son.

12 He [r] that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

13 These [s] things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God, [t] that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have [1] in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us.

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he [u] shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. [v] There is a sin unto death: I [w] do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.

18 We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.

20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true; and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This [x] is the true God, and eternal life.

21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN.

John's regard for a certain pious matron.

THE [a] elder unto the elect lady and her children, [b] whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known the [c] truth;

2 For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

3 Grace [1] be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children [d] walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady, not [e] as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, that [f] we love one another.

6 And [g] this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, [h] as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

7 For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist.

8 Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have [2] wrought, but that we receive a full reward.

9 Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.

10 If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, [i] neither bid him God speed:

11 For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.

12 Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come unto you, and speak [3] face to face, that [4] our joy may be full.

13 The children of thy elect sister greet thee. Amen.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN.

Gaius and Demetrius commended.

THE elder unto the [a] well-beloved Gaius, whom I love [1] in the truth.

2 Beloved, I [2] wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For I rejoiced greatly when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as [b] thou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy than to hear that my [c] children walk in truth.

whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers:

6 Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey [3] after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:

7 Because that for his name's sake they went forth, [e] taking nothing of the Gentiles.

8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth.

9 I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the pre-eminence among them, receiveth us not.

11 Beloved, [f] follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He [g] that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.

12 Demetrius [h] hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; [i] and ye know that our record is true.

13 I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee:

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF

JUDE.

Jude exhorteth Christians to constancy.

JUDE, the servant of Jesus Christ, and [a] brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and [b] preserved in Jesus Christ, [c] and called:

2 Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you [d] of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 For there are certain men crept in unawares, [e] who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning [f] the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and [g] denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward [h] destroyed them that believed not.

6 And [i] the angels which kept not their [1] first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains, under darkness, unto [j] the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as [k] Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them, in like manner giving themselves over to fornication, and going after [2] strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

9 Yet [m] Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil, he disputed about the [n] body of Moses, [o] durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The [p] Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way [q] of Cain, and ran [r] greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and [s] perished in the gainsaying of Core.

12 These are spots in your [t] feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about [u] of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

13 Raging [v] waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

14 And Enoch also, [w] the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the [x] Lord cometh with ten thousand of his saints,

15 To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having [y] men's persons in admiration because of advantage.

17 But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ;

THE REVELATION

OF S. JOHN THE DIVINE.

CHAPTER I.

1 The preface. 7 The coming of Christ.

THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, which [a] God gave unto him, to show unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and [b] he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things [c] that he saw.

3 Blessed [d] is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 JOHN to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from [e] him which is, and [f] which was, and which is to come; and [g] from the seven Spirits which are before his throne;

5 And from Jesus Christ, [h] who is the faithful Witness, and the [i] first-begotten of the dead, and [j] the Prince of the kings of the earth. Unto [k] him that loved us, [l] and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to [m] him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

7 Behold, [n] he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, [o] and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

9 I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and [q] in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 I [r] was in the Spirit on [s] the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet,

11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned [t] I saw seven golden candlesticks;

13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks [u] one like unto the Son of man, clothed [v] with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and [w] his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and [x] his eyes were as a flame of fire;

15 And [y] his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; [z] and his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seven stars; and [a] out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword; and [b] his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And [c] when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And [d] he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; [e] I am the first and the last:

18 I I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and [g] have the keys of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter;

20 The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are [h] the angels of the seven churches; and the [i] seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

CHAPTER II.

Christ's message to the churches.

UNTO the angel of the church of [a] Ephesus write; These things saith [b] he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

2 I [c] know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou [d] hast tried them [e] which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

3 And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast [f] not fainted.

4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; [g] or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate.

7 He [h] that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give [i] to eat of [j] the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith [k] the First and the Last, which was dead, and is alive;

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou [l] art rich,) and I know the blasphemy of [m] them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

10 Fear [n] none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be [o] thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee [p] a crown of life.

11 He [q] that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the [r] second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he [s] which hath [t] the sharp sword with two edges;

13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, [u] where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of [v] Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, [w] to eat things sacrificed unto idols, [x] and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.

16 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and [y] will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone [z] a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, who [a] hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

19 I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.

20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman [b] Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space [c] to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that [d] I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and [e] I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known [f] the depths of Satan, as they speak; [g] I will put upon you none other burden.

25 But that which ye have already hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my [h] works unto the end, to [i] him will I give power over the nations:

27 And [j] he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

28 And I will give him [k] the morning star.

29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAPTER III.

What John was commanded to write to the angels of the churches of 1 Sardis, 7 Philadelphia, 14 and Laodicea.

AND unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, [a] and art dead.

2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard; and hold fast, and repent. [b] If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast [c] a few names even in Sardis which have not [d] defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me [e] in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will [f] not blot out his name out of the book [g] of life, but [h] I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he [i] that is holy, [j] he that is true, he that hath [k] the key of David, [l] he that openeth, and no man shutteth; [m] and shutteth, and no man openeth;

8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee [n] an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, [o] I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, [p] I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh will I make [q] a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and [r] I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new [s] Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: [t] and I will write upon him my new name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the church [1] of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the [u] Amen, the faithful and true [v] Witness, the [w] beginning of the creation of God;

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

21 To him that overcometh [e] will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAPTER IV.

The throne of God, etc.

AFTER this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will show thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately [a] I was in the Spirit: and, behold, [b] a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: [c] and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: [d] and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was a [e] sea of glass like unto crystal: and [f] in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts, full of eyes before and behind.

7 And [g] the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each of them six [h] wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and [1] they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever,

10 The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

11 Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

CHAPTER V.

Of the book sealed with seven seals.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne [a] a book written within and on the back side, sealed with [b] seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And [c] no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, [d] the Lion of the tribe of Juda, [e] the Root of David, hath [f] prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a [g] Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven [h] eyes, which are [i] the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of [j] them harps, and golden vials full of [1] odours, [k] which are the prayers of saints.

10 And [p] hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was [q] ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And [r] every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, [s] Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, [t] and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever.

14 And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

CHAPTER VI.

The opening of six of the seals in order.

AND I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals; and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw, and behold [a] a white horse: and [b] he that sat on him had a bow; [c] and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And [d] there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and [e] that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a [e] black horse: and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, [1] A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and [f] see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given [2] unto them over the fourth part of the earth, [g] to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, [h] and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under [i] the altar the [j] souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for [k] the testimony which they held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, [l] How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that [m] they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow-servants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal; [n] and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the [o] sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her [3] untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

14 And [p] the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain [q] and island were moved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bond man, and every free man, [r] hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 For [s] the great day of his wrath is come; and [t] who shall be able to stand?

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, [d] Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed [e] the servants of our God in [f] their foreheads.

4 And [g] I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an [h] hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation [l] to our God [m] which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 And [n] all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders, and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,

12 Saying, [o] Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These [p] are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed [q] their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell [r] among them.

16 They [s] shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; [t] neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne [u] shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters; and God [v] shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 The seventh seal opened. 6 Great plagues.

AND when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 And [a] I saw the seven angels which stood before God; [b] and to them were given seven trumpets.

3 And another [c] angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much [d] incense, that he should [1] offer it with [e] the prayers of all saints upon the [f] golden altar which was before the throne.

4 And [g] the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it [2] into the earth: [h] and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, [i] and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, [j] and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast [k] upon the earth: and the third part [l] of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became [m] blood;

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters:

11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: [n] and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And [o] the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, and [p] heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, [q] woe, woe to the inhabiters of the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

CHAPTER IX.

The sounding of the fifth angel.

AND the fifth angel sounded, and [a] I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of [b] the bottomless pit.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose [c] a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke [d] locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them that [e] they should not hurt [f] the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not [g] the seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, [h] but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days [i] shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And [j] the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and [k] on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, [l] and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and [m] their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.

11 And [n] they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name [1] Apollyon.

12 One [o] woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound [p] in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared [2] for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And [q] the number of the army of [r] the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: [s] and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and [t] the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: [u] for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men, which were not killed by these plagues, yet [v] repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship [w] devils, [x] and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

CHAPTER X.

An angel appeareth with a book.

AND I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud; [a] and a rainbow was upon his head, and [b] his face was as it were the sun, and his feet [c] as pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: [d] and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven [e] thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, [f] Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that [g] liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, [h] that there should be time no longer:

7 But [i] in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take [j] it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

2 But [c] the court which is without the temple [1] leave out, and measure it not; for [d] it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they [e] tread under foot [f] forty and two months.

3 And [2] I will give power unto my two [g] witnesses, [h] and they shall prophesy [i] a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are the [j] two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, fire [k] proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: [l] and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These [m] have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and [n] have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they [o] shall have finished their testimony, [p] the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless [q] pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of [r] the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where [s] also our Lord was crucified.

9 And [t] they of the people, and kindreds, and tongues, and nations, shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, [u] and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 And [v] they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

11 And after three days and an half [w] the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And [x] they ascended up to heaven [y] in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same hour was there a great earthquake, [z] and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain [3] of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there [a] were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and [b] he shall reign for ever and ever.

16 And the four and twenty elders which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God,

17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned.

18 And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, [c] and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldest destroy them which [4] destroy the earth.

19 And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen [d] in his temple the ark of his testament: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

CHAPTER XII.

Of the woman clothed with the sun.

AND there appeared a great [1] wonder in heaven; a [a] woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

2 And she being with child cried, travailing [b] in birth, and pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another [2] wonder in heaven; and behold a [c] great red dragon, having [d] seven heads and ten horns, [e] and seven crowns upon his heads.

4 And [f] his tail drew the third part of the [g] stars of heaven, [h] and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for [i] to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 And she brought forth a man-child, who [j] was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

7 And there was war in heaven: Michael [l] and his angels fought against the [m] dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And [n] the great dragon was cast out, that [o] old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he [p] was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, [q] Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, [r] which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And [s] they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; [t] and they loved not their lives unto the death.

12 Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. [u] Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because [v] he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man-child.

14 And [w] to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into [x] the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for [y] a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

15 And the serpent [z] cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman; and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, [a] and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have [b] the testimony of Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER XIII.

The beast with seven heads and ten horns.

AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw [a] a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the [1] name of blasphemy.

2 And [b] the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the [c] dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were [2] wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all [d] the world wondered after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, [e] Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given unto him a [f] mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him [3] to continue forty [g] and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, [h] and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him [i] to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, [j] whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb [k] slain from the foundation of the world.

9 If any man have an ear, let him hear.

10 He [l] that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: [m] he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here [n] is the patience and the faith of the saints.

11 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And [o] he doeth great wonders, so [p] that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

15 And he had power to give [4] life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and [r] cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

CHAPTER XIV.

The fall of Babylon, etc.

AND I looked, and, lo, a [a] Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, [b] having his Father's name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps:

3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women; [c] for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These [1] were redeemed from among men, [d] being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.

5 And [e] in their mouth was found no guile: for [f] they are without fault before the throne of God.

6 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, [g] having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come:

and [h] worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

8 And there followed another angel, saying, [i] Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same [j] shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And [k] the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 Here [l] is the patience of the saints: here are [m] they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed [n] are the dead [o] which die in the Lord [2] from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that [p] they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto [q] the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust [r] in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest [s] of the earth is [3] ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, [t] which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, [u] Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into [v] the great wine-press of the wrath of God.

20 And [w] the wine-press was trodden without [x] the city, and blood came out of the wine-press, even unto the horse-bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

21 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in [i] pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And [m] one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And [n] the temple was filled with smoke from [o] the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAPTER XVI.

The seven angels pour out their vials.

AND I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial [a] upon the earth; [b] and

CHAPTER XV.

The seven angels with the seven plagues.

AND I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven [a] angels having the seven last plagues; for [b] in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were [c] a sea of [d] glass mingled with fire; and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, [e] and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.

3 And they sing [f] the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, [g] Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just [h] and true are thy ways, thou King of [1] saints.

4 Who [i] shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for [j] all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and, behold, [k] the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

6 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in [i] pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which [c] had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and [d] it became as the blood of a [e] dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou [f] art righteous, O Lord, which [g] art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus:

6 For [h] they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, [i] and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, [j] true and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were [1] scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and [k] they repented not to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon [l] the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11 And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial [m] upon the great river Euphrates; and [n] the water thereof was dried up, that [o] the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three [p] unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the [q] dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For [r] they are the spirits of devils, working [s] miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth [t] and of the whole world, to gather them to the [u] battle of that great day of God Almighty.

15 ¶ Behold, [v] I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, [w] lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such [y] as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

19 And [z] the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon [a] came in remembrance before God, [b] to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

20 And [c] every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And [d] there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAPTER XVII.

The woman arrayed in purple and scarlet.

AND there came [a] one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither: I will show unto thee the judgment of [b] the great whore that [c] sitteth upon many waters:

2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and [d] the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the spirit into the [e] wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon [f] a scarlet-coloured beast, full [g] of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple [h] and scarlet colour, and [i] decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls, [j] having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, [k] MYSTERY, BABYLON [l] THE GREAT, [2] THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of [m] the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and [n] shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, (whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world,) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And [o] here is the mind which hath wisdom. [p] The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And [q] the ten horns which thou sawest, are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have [r] one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 These [s] shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: [t] for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they [u] that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he saith unto me, [v] The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, [w] are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, [x] these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate [y] and naked, [z] and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

17 For [a] God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, [b] until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest [c] is that great city, [d] which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

CHAPTER XVIII.

The fall of Babylon.

AND after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; [a] and the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, [b] Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and [c] is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and [d] a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the [1] abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, [e] Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues:

5 For [f] her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Reward [g] her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.

7 How [h] much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a [i] queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: [j] for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And [k] the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall [l] bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, [m] Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

11 And [n] the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more;

12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all [2] thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

13 And cinnamon, and odours,

CHAPTER XIX.

The marriage of the Lamb.

AND after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia! [a] Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

2 For true and righteous are his judgments; for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged [b] the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Alleluia! And [c] her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

4 And [d] the four and twenty elders, and the four beasts, fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, [e] Amen, Alleluia!

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, [f] Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

6 And [g] I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia! for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let us be [h] glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for [i] the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

8 And [j] to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and [1] white: for [k] the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed [l] are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

10 And [m] I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See [n] thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren [o] that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was [p] called Faithful and True; and [q] in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a [r] name written that no man knew but he himself:

13 And [s] he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The [t] Word of God.

14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, [u] clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And [v] out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and [w] he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and [x] he treadeth the wine-press of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

16 And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, [y] KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, [z] Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 And [a] I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These [b] both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

CHAPTER XX.

Satan bound for a thousand years.

AND I saw an angel come down from heaven, [a] having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on [b] the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and [c] set a seal upon him, that [d] he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw [e] thrones, and they sat upon them, and [f] judgment was given unto them: and I saw the [g] souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, [h] and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and [i] reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the [j] second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of [k] God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall [l] go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, [m] Gog and Magog, to [n] gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 And [o] they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 And the devil, that deceived them, was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face [p] the earth and the heaven fled away; [q] and there was found no place for them.

12 And [r] I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God: [s] and the books were opened; and [t] another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, [u] according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and [1] hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And [v] death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAPTER XXI.

Description of the heavenly Jerusalem.

AND [a] I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more [b] sea.

2 And I John saw [c] the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared [d] as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, [e] the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 And [f] God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and [g] there shall be no more death, [h] neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5 And [i] he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, [j] I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. [k] I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 He that [l] overcometh shall inherit [1] all things; and [m] I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

8 But [n] the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of the seven angels, which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will show thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me [o] that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

13 On the east, three gates; on the north, three gates; on the south, three gates; and on the west, three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and [p] in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me had [q] a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth four-square, and the length is as large as the breadth. And he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 And [r] the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: [s] and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 And [t] I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 And [u] the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

24 And [v] the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for [w] there shall be no night there.

26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 And [x] there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination or maketh a lie; but they which are written in the Lamb's book [y] of life.

CHAPTER XXII.

The glorious state of God's servants.

AND he showed me [a] a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the [b] tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were [c] for the healing of the nations.

3 And [d] there shall be no more curse: but the [e] throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him:

4 And [f] they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.

5 And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for [g] the Lord God giveth them light: and they [h] shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the [i] Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to show unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7 Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which showed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

10 And [j] he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book; for the time is at hand.

11 He [k] that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward [l] is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.

13 I [m] am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 Blessed [n] are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

15 For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

16 I [o] Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am [p] the root and the offspring of David, and [q] the bright and morning star.

17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. [r] And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If [s] any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God [t] shall take away his part [1] out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

20 He which testifieth these things saith, Surely [u] I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE OF THE PATRIARCHS, FROM ADAM TO MOSES, 2500 YEARS.

This table exhibits the years of the birth and death of the patriarchs; the comparative length of their lives; who of them were alive at the same period; and the rapid decrease in the length of life after the deluge. Thus, Lamech the father of Noah was born A. M. 874, and died A. M. 1651; he was contemporary with Adam 56 years, and he died but five years before the flood. Shem was born nearly 100 years before the flood, and lived many years after both Abraham and Isaac were born.

NOTE. The pronunciation of many Proper Names, especially those of Hebrew origin, is very difficult to determine, and in many cases high authorities disagree. Our effort has been, to designate first the mode best authenticated by analogy of language, general usage, and the judgment of learned men; and to add any mode sanctioned by high authority.

The same general rules have been followed in designating the meaning of Bible Proper Names—which is often far more doubtful than the true pronunciation. In many cases in the following table, a word receives several nearly synonymous meanings; in many others the sense assigned by one lexicographer is totally different from all others.

In pronouncing these words observe the division into syllables, and the accent. Final i when a syllable by itself, is pronounced long; ai when one syllable, as in aid; iah, when one syllable, is pronounced yah, as I-sa'yah.

In Hebrew names, g is always pronounced hard, as in Gethsemane, Gilead. In Genesis, a Greek word, it is soft. In both Hebrew and Greek words pronounce ch hard, like k; except in Rachel, cher'ub, cher'u-bim. Cherub, a city, is pronounced Ke'rub.
